BUDDY PATE RETIRES FROM EAGLEVILLE SCHOOL

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

Buddy Pate

Walfred Alvin "Buddy" Pate Jr., principal of Eagleville School announced his retirement for the end of the 2003-2004 school year. He has served Rutherford County School for 37 years as teacher, coach and principal. He has been principal at Eagleville since 1995 and has been instrumental in adding several valuable sport programs to our school. When Buddy came to Eagleville, only basketball, volleyball, baseball and golf were offered. Since then, he has established middle school softball and baseball, track and field, middle school and high school football and high school girl's softball. Buddy with the help of the Eagleville community fought hard and was successful for getting the football stadium for the Eagleville School. Rhonda Holton, Eagleville assistant principal stated, "On the academic side, Pate did a great job of hiring qualified teachers and appointing committee leaders. He has worked hard to improve test scores. Pate also organized an active booster club that's raised a tremendous amount of money and he's been a big supporter of the school's Parent Teacher Organization." Buddy commented, "the community has always been supportive of Eagleville School and I appreciate that greatly. Anytime we needed things we have been able to go to the community and the community has responded."

Buddy, son of Alvin and Margaret Pate, lived and grew up in the Patterson Community. He spent all his school years, 1st thru 12th grades at Eagleville, graduating in 1963. He was always involved in sports as a student, playing basketball, baseball and softball. His parents said he had played ball ever since he was born. He and his father, Alvin, played on ball teams together for Triune, College Grove and Patterson. Buddy's interest in sports carried over to his years in the education field. Buddy earned a bachelor's degree from MTSU in 1967 and returned to Eagleville to serve as a physical education teacher and girl's basketball coach

Easter Sunrise Service April 11th

Eagleville School at 6:30 a.m.

Community Sunrise Service on Easter morning began in Eagleville over 20 years ago and is a strong tradition still. Crowds at times have swelled to 200 people strong as individuals, families and the occasional pet have gathered to greet the sun and celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. The Eagleville-Rockvale ministerial association sponsors the worship service which is open to all. This year the service is April 11, 2004 Easter morning at 6:30 a.m. at Eagleville School. The ecumenical service will feature songs, prayers and an Easter message. Area churches and individuals contribute their special gifts to make this meaningful for all ages and the natural surroundings of being outdoors enhances the worship experience. Following the service, a "country ham breakfast" is held in the cafeteria compliments of Herman and Mary Ella Clark. We

for the next nine years. During these nine years the Eagleville girl's basketball team averaged over 20 wins a years, a total of 187 wins and 54 losses. Buddy transferred to Riverdale High School to coach girl's basketball and golf and teach driver's education. While at Riverdale, his team went 31-0 before losing to Warren County High School in the state championship game in 1979 before 11,000 fans. He said that was the largest crowd to ever see a high school basketball game. After 19 years at Riverdale, Buddy returned to Eagleville as principal.

Buddy plans to travel, play golf and enjoy retirement with his wife, Bernice, who retired last year from the Federal Government. I'm sure he'll also be spending a lot of time with his son, Drew and granddaughter, Lily. Thank you Buddy for all you have done for Eagleville School and you will certainly be missed by the faculty, students and the Eagleville community.

GIRL'S NIGHT OUT

By Melissa Buchanan

"A group of us girls that grew up together and attended Eagleville School recently went for a "GIRL'S NIGHT OUT" to Logan's at Cool Springs". Some hadn't seen each other since they were 12 years old. They had a great time catching up on their lives, husbands/boyfriends/fiancée's, babies and reminiscing about old times and all of the funny antics they pulled growing up in Eagleville. This was an event the group hopes to continue. They already have plans for a grill out this summer. This time husbands and babies are all invited. "We were very close growing up and this meant a lot to us".

VOTE SMITTY FOR EAGLEVILLE CITY COUNCIL

- Who is M.A. Smitty:
- A 1998 graduate of Eagleville High School
  - Attends Rocky Glade Cumberland Presbyterian Church
  - Loves Eagleville School basketball, agriculture, walking horses & antiques
  - After school, worked for Frank Crosslin Jr. at the Smyrna branch of Crosslin Supply Co. as the Sales Floor Manager for four years
  - Currently owns Smitty's Barber Shop at 281 Hwy 99, Eagleville.

Dear Friends & Neighbors,
As many of you know, I am running for city council, however, many of you don't know why.
I have decided to run for city council to be a voice for the small business owner and for the plain ole everyday home folks like myself.
There are many issues that the city is facing now, and there will be many more in the future. I want to be there to serve as your voice.
I invite each of you to stop in at my shop for a visit and discuss any issue that's on your mind.
To sum it up, I'm asking each of you to vote "M.A. Smitty" on Tuesday, April 20, 2004.

Smitty
Sincerely,

Paid for by M.A. Smitty for Councilman

Herman & Mary Ella Clark

The season of spring is upon us. Along with the signs of new birth and warmer weather, there is another event that folks from this area know will be taking place once again. We are speaking of the annual Easter community sunrise service and free country ham and egg breakfast. This tradition started with the idea and hard work of this month's featured couple, Mary Ella and Herman Clark.

In the early 1970's, Herman Clark and Lanny Turner had a vision to host an Easter Sunrise Service and country ham and egg breakfast to follow. This was to be for any and all people in the surrounding communities. The first two services were actually held on the Turner hill and the third one on the Clark hill. Buses were loaded at Eagleville School which brought folks to the sunrise service. The service grew to the point that it became impractical to have the services on top of the hills, so the services were moved to the school grounds where the breakfast followed in the school cafeteria. Over the years, this event has become a dream come true for Herman and Mary Ella. It has been made possible by God's guidance and the help of many dedicated and generous people working together. Again, this year you will hear the joyous Easter songs and smell the delicious aroma of fried country ham at Eagleville School

CITIZENS OF THE MONTH

By Theresa Clark Hill

around 6:30 am Easter Sunday morning.

Mary Ella is the daughter of Laura Bell Thomas Vaughn and Talmage Vaughn. She has one sister, Alma Vaughn Steagall.

Herman is the youngest son of Young Leslie Clark and Nannie Lou Burns Clark. He has 6 sisters and 5 brothers. Both were born in Rutherford County. Mary Ella has lived all her life except five years in Rutherford County and Herman has lived all of his life in the Rockvale/Eagleville area.

The first time Herman saw Mary Ella was at the Rockvale, Fourth of July picnic. She was about ten years old and he eleven. Mary Ella wasn't at all happy about the decision her mother had made to leave before the festivities were over. Herman said he thought to himself, "That young lady needs a spanking as much as anyone I have ever seen." And so it began.

Mary Ella and Herman were friends throughout their school days at Rockvale School but did not date until both had graduated. Not many months after Mary Ella completed her high school education Herman was helping his dad drill a well for Mary Ella's parents. Mary Ella made a caramel pie and brought it out to the rig for their lunch. Herman's dad said, "If I were you I would call that little gal and ask for a date." Herman thought that was not a bad idea and the rest is history. From then on Herman knew if Mary Ella made a caramel pie something was at stake.

Mary Ella and Herman began housekeeping in a little trailer parked in Herman's parents' yard. Shortly after, they moved into a little house near the Vaughn's on Snail Shell Cave Road. Their first child, Theresa Kaye, was born in 1952. In 1955 they built their house in Rockvale on a parcel of land that Herman had played and hunted on all his life. It adjoined his home place on Jackson Ridge Road. In 1959 Mary Ella and Herman had a daughter named Veronica that only lived 5 hours. In 1960 Joyce Loureen was born. They decided they would try for a boy and so in 1964 Herman Talmage (Tam) Clark was born.

Herman drilled wells with his brothers, Y.B. and Horace Clark, until 1957 at which time he was hired as one of the first eight employees at the new General Electric plant in Murfreesboro. He also raised beef cattle. At one time Herman aspired to show registered Polled Herefords. However, it seemed just when he got one groomed to show it would up and die for the strangest reason. Her said he guessed God didn't intend for him to take this bend in life so he gave it up and when back to just raising and selling unregistered beef cattle.

Mary Ella worked in Nashville at the State Farm Insurance Company until 1955 when State Farm opened a new branch in Murfreesboro. However, Mary Ella quit her job when she became pregnant with their second child. Even though she did not work at a public job she was a very busy lady. Mary Ella was involved in all school activities, including the P.T.A. and room mother, as well as youth group leader at the Rockvale C.P. Church over a span of 25 years. One Saturday Herman was going to a cow sale. She asked him to pick up one good jersey so they could have fresh milk and butter. Herman, always knowing a good deal when he saw it, brought home 8 cows ready to milk that night. "They went so cheap!" he said. They had to go buy two buckets to milk in that very afternoon. Herman narrowly escaped a sudden death that day. However, Mary Ella acquired tow used milking machines and sold mild to the Ole Creamy in Murfreesboro. Theresa and Mary Ella milked the cows while Joyce and Tam played in the yard nearby and Herman worked the night shift at G.E.

In 1967 Mary Ella and Herman bought the Concord Grocery for Herman's Uncle Doc Burns. Mary Ella ran the store as well as answered the phone and kept the books for Herman who went back into the Water Well Business. The store at Concord became a great hangout for the Clark children's friends. They sold the store in 1971 and began to put all their energy into the water well business.

In the early 1970's Herman and Mary Ella bought land on the Cheatham Springs and Floyd Roads in Eagleville. After putting much thought and prayer into the decision, they decided they would build on top of a hill the looked out upon the town of Eagleville. They moved into their new house in the spring of 1974. Both Joyce and Tam graduated from Eagleville School and Theresa has taught there many years. Two of their grandchildren, Blake and Peyton, also attended all 13 years and recently graduated from Eagleville. Because Mary Ella's and Herman's children live close by they can often be seen at ballgames, concerts, and many church and school events. They have sponsored many teams and given donations to the athletic programs because they are firm believers in children and community pride.

Joyce is married to Timothy Merritt, an Eagleville graduate. They have four children; Jonathan, Kimberly, Josh, and James. They live in Cookeville. Joyce is a teacher and has recently graduated from seminary. Timothy is a marine biologist for the federal govern-

Tam lives in Mary Ella's home place which he bought some years ago. He recently started touring all over the U.S. with The Roosevelts, a band he has been in for the last several years.

Up until about six months ago Clark Water Wells was still going strong. The business was started in 1885 by Herman's grandfather, Willy Clark. Herman always said he had the only business he knew that started at the top and aimed for the bottom. Herman decided it was time to retire this past October. Several of Herman's nephews have drilled with him including Burns Jr. Clark, Terry Clark, and David Clark, all sons of Herman's well driller brother, Y.B. Clark. Tam, his son, has drilled and worked in the pump business off and on through the years and has recently served as foreman of the business. Dee Smith, a lifetime and devoted employee, set thousands of pumps for the Clark business. There have been many other loyal and appreciated people that Herman saw not only as employees but his friends. As stated by a recent employee, Paul Snook, "Leaving Herman Clark Well Drilling is like leaving my family. It really hurts."

Mary Ella and Herman have always believed in dreaming big and then turning it over to God. Even though not every dream has come true, there is one that was fulfilled this past Christmas. When Mary Ella was about six years old she asked Santa Claus for a little roll top desk. Santa did bring her a desk but it wasn't at all the one of which she dreamed. Of course, when she became a little older she understood why. But every Christmas that rolled around, she always recalled the Christmas that she didn't get that little roll top desk. It was a dream that had never come true. She even bought Herman a big oak roll top desk on Christmas. But, it somehow didn't make the disappointment of that unfulfilled wish disappear. However, this story has a very happy ending. This past Christmas Herman was able to locate an antique child's roll top desk that was made in the early thirties. Tam drove to North Carolina and found the desk to be in mint condition. Herman purchased the desk, put crayons, a coloring book and several storybooks inside. And placed a big red bow on top. After the gifts were opened this past Christmas, Herman told Mary Ella that Santa had roped off an overdue gift for her. Of course, it was the desk. After shock and tears Mary Ella said, "See, you should never give up on your dream. It may not be when or how you planned but don't give up." This little story is one of the gift and the giver of which Mary Ella and Herman are both to many.

Both Mary Ella and Herman are worker in their business, church, community, and home, but they do find time for hobbies that add beauty to their corner of the world as well as the community.

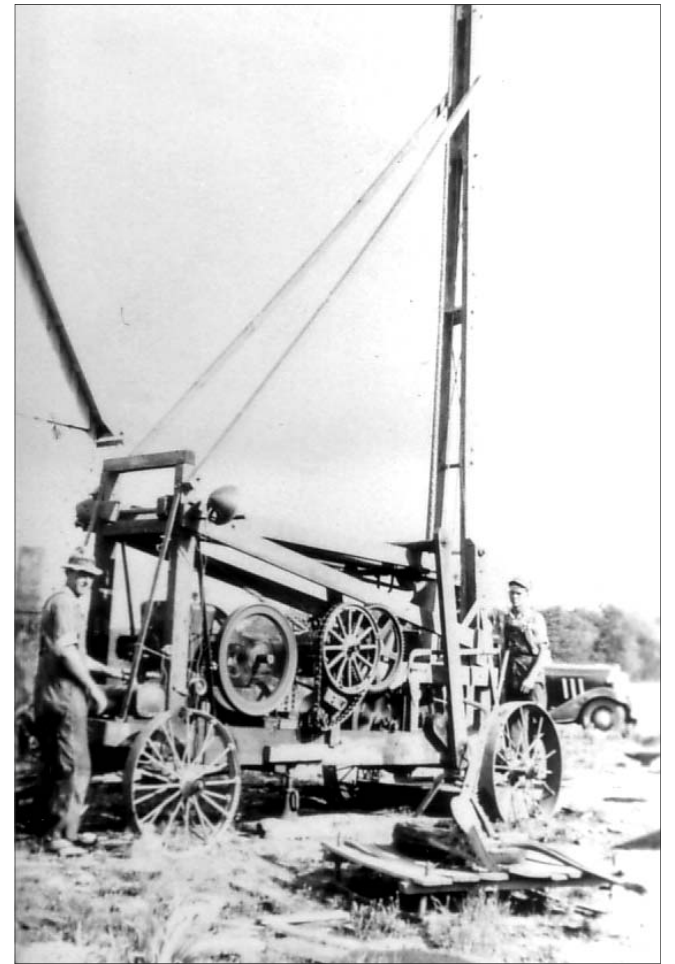

Mary Ella has a green thumb in the flower garden, roses being her specialty. Not only does she derive pleasure from growing them but her biggest joy is arranging and giving bouquets to be used in churches, hospitals rooms, school events, or just sharing with a friend. When asked had she ever thought about opening a business to sell her roses she replied, "I wouldn't want to do that. It would become work and do it for the joy not the money."

One of Herman's hobbies is rockwork. He has a special knack for putting together unusual rock shapes and colors to make interesting and unique displays. Many of the rocks he has used in his designs are rocks he has picked up where he was drilling a well or on his farm as he walked through the fields to check on his cattle. Throughout the Rockvale and Eagleville community you can see his craft in churches and houses. Just take a drive up Cheatham Springs Road in Eagleville and you will enjoy seeing the rock fences and fountain he built just a few years ago. When asked what his secret is to getting his on-of-a kind effect he said, "patience and a good eye for rocks".

Mary Ella and Herman do not have to tell people they are Christians. Their lives are living proof of their faith. Herman and Mary Ella have always put God first, family second, and the rest of life just seems to fall into place. They have been through hard times, lean times, and sad times as most people have. But there have been many happy, wonderful, blessed times for which they give God all the credit. Herman and Mary Ella are members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. They have given their time and talents as youth advisors, Sunday School teachers, elders, missions directors, superintendent, and children's ministry just to mention a few of the church roles they have served over the many years.

After 54 years of marriage, Herman and Mary Ella would tell you neither has changed much. Mary Ella says Herman is still stubborn and too good for his own good and Herman thinks Mary Ella probably still needs a spanking but he reckons he'll just let it slide.

Herman & Mary Ella in 1950

On February 20-22, 2004, thirty-nine youth and adult counselors from Jackson Ridge Church of Christ attended WINTERFEST 2004 in Gatlinburg, TN. Over 12,000 attendees gathered from 20 plus states for this annual event.

Through song, drama and the riveting delivery of the keynote speaker, Jeff Walling led the group through the struggles as we climb the mountain, to the joy on our arrival at the top with our God. Jeff Walling is a renowned speaker and organizer. His delivery style is dynamic and unforgettable.

There was a variety of classes, Bible Lessons, singing and drama. One of the presenters was 14 year old Tori Allen of the X Games. Tori is a Mountain Climber and Speed Climbing Award Winner. Tori combines her mountain climbing talent with her witness for Christ to groups over the country.

Another presenter was Bob Stromberg, a Christian Comedian. Since 1977 he has spoken at over 4,000 assemblies, retreats, and conferences. He is a frequent speaker at "Promise Keepers."

Archie Luper, beloved minister of the Jackson Ridge Church, was very competent in his capacity as organizer and presenter for the Communion Service on Sunday Morning. It was a very moving service.

Attendees came home with a renewed dedication to meet God on the mountain without fail.

EAGLEVILLE LOSES ONE OF ITS OWN

Eagleville mourns the loss of Miss Mary Edna Jackson. Although born in Nashville she moved to Eagleville for high school and spent her life as a resident of Eagleville. She considered herself to be a proper “river rat”, having made her home on Eagleville River Road. She touched countless lives of young people during her 44 years of teaching in Nashville and touched the lives of all us in the greater Eagleville area.

Surrounded by her family she quickly she filled the role of mother and grandmother with those children in her own family and generations of children in the community she nurtured. She attended countless athletic contests, programs, and plays at Eagleville School and was the number one fan of Will, Matt and Ashton Vaughn and Dayton Hendrix. She provided all of us a strong role model as she gave tirelessly to the community, Lions Club, Community Center and church. She was a member of Eagleville United Methodist Church since her teenage years and was Sunday school superintendent for over 40 years until her health prevented her from attending on a regular basis.

All of us are better people from having known and had a relationship with Miss Edna. At her funeral on March 21, we celebrated her life and mourned our loss. During the service Trey Lambert, pastor of EUMC read an essay written by one of Miss Edna’s “grandsons” Matt Vaughn. Below it is reprinted with permission. Matt has been able to capture the spirit of Miss Edna and to put to words the love we share for her and the loss we all feel. I warn you now, find a quiet place to sit and get a box of tissue...

Edna

By Matt Vaughn

A person that has played a significant role in my life is a lady named Edna Jackson. She is a distant cousin, but to me she is so much more. I have grown up around Edna all my life, and she has been with me through mostly everything. She would always travel to watch me play any kind of sport activities, and she always helped me with my homework.

One reason why Edna means so much to me is because she has always supported me. She would go to my basketball games and baseball games. She was my number one fan and always will be. In my baseball games, she was always one of the first ones there, and she would always load me up with bubble gum before the games. When I would get up to bat, I could always hear her yelling, and for some reason, her voice would always stand out to me. She always had a saying that was “hit it hard and run fast”. Those were the famous words of someone I love dearly, and I will never forget when I would look off the mound and see that smile. She is really, really sick and isn’t able to come and see me play anymore, but I am getting my grandmother to put the letters E D N A on a wristband, and I will wear it at all times so I will always be able to think about her when things are going good or bad.

Another reason why Edna means so much to me is because in my mind she’s like another mom to me. She was never afraid to teach me right from wrong, even if it meant whipping me. In the summer, I would be at her house everyday, and during the school year, I would run to her house as soon as I got home. She would always have a cheeseburger waiting for me. After that, she would help me with my homework because she was a really good teacher. She would take me places, and I would always know who to call if no one was around.

My final reason why Edna means so much to me is basically because she has just done so much for me and helped me in so many ways, and now she is really ill. She can’t get out of bed. She can’t eat. It just kills me to have to go visit her and see her like this. I know when she’s gone, I will be glad that I did. As much as she has done for me, I owe it to her. If there’s anything I can do to help her caretakers, I will try to do it because she is such a special person.

In conclusion, Edna means a lot to me and is really close to my heart. I have so many memories, and no one will ever be able to take them away from me. I will always be able to look back at what she has taught me as a person, I will carry it throughout life.

The Mystery of Stonehenge

By Jack McClaran, Bedfordshire England

EAGLEVILLE TIMES

Stonehenge is one of the most famous prehistoric monuments in Britain. It is visited by so many people, that it has been necessary to fence off certain parts to prevent further damage by visitors. It stands on Salisbury plain about 8 miles from the Cathedral City of Salisbury in the County of Wiltshire.

Stonehenge was used from about 2800 BC until after 1100 BC, a period of some 17 centuries. The Heel Stone, which leans towards the centre of the monument was originally upright. It weighs about 35 tons and would have required about 250 men to transport and erect it. Counting women and children the total would have been about 500, which gives some indication of the population in the area. Inside the surrounding bank there are 56 pits, now called the Aubrey Holes after their discoverer, John Aubrey. Their exact purpose is not known but they were at some stage used for the burial of cremated human bones, one found dates back to 2200 BC.

Around the centre is a circle of blue stone, the name derived from the colour. These stones came from the Preseli Mountains in South West Wales, 135 miles from Stonehenge. On the north east side of the site, an entrance, marked by extra stones, pointed down the Avenue to the Midsummer Sunrise. Four station stones lie at the corners of a rectangle, the short sides of which point to the rising sun at Midsummer Sunrise and the setting sun at Mid Winter, and the long sides to the most southerly rising and most northerly setting of the moon. The latter events occur once every 18½ years.

The Druids, a religious sect, come early midsummer's day to watch the sunrise. They are the only people that have been allowed to step inside the stone circle in recent times, although my wife as a child when visiting was allowed to climb over the stones but as I have said to preserve the site one is only allowed to walk on the footpath around the stone circle. Then as now, she experiences a feeling of eeriness at Stonehenge and surrounding area.

It is thought that Stonehenge was built by the Beaker people, so called from their habit of burying pottery beakers in graves. They settled in Britain between 2,500 and 2000 BC. and transformed the life of the native Neolithic population by introducing metal working of copper and gold, also burying their dead singly instead of communally.

Between 2000 and 1500 BC, the Norman invaders arrived in England. The early Bronze Age saw a rise in the rich and powerful dynasties of chiefs, with large flocks and herds, who also controlled the increasing trade in bronze tools and weapons, manufactured for the European market.

These people were the builders of Stonehenge III, the most remarkable stone circle in Europe. The height of the stones is greater than the others. They are more refined in shape and joining, and uniquely, have lintels on top of the uprights. Transporting and placing of the larger stones would have required about 1500 men, who would have been drafted in from the surrounding areas, indicating some central control.

It is not known what religious beliefs Stonehenge represents. It could have been used as an astronomical observatory, to record the movements of the sun and moon.

There can be no certainty, just speculation based on scientific study. The mystery is still there, lost in the mist of time.

The Allergy Season and Your Eyes

By Dr. Rena R. Cron

Spring is in the air --- literally!! The trees are budding. The grass is greening. Flowers are blooming. And if you suffer from seasonal allergies, the next few weeks will be miserable!! Along with the beauty of springtime comes that time of the year when allergy sufferers are frequently bothered by itching, watering eyes, sneezing, headaches and general fatigue. A large percentage of the general population living here in the middle Tennessee area must deal with allergies to anything from pollen and spores to mold and dust. Many allergy sufferers find relief from over the counter remedies. Many more need the strength of prescribed antihistamines. Whatever the case, the eyes are sometimes the most affected part of the body. As the pollen levels rise, the eyes will begin to water and itch. They may then get red and swollen. For some, the symptoms can be mildly annoying. For others, the aggravation is intolerable! Those with mild ocular allergies can find relief in over the counter ocular antihistamines, such as Naphcon A or Opcon A. These eye drop medications can be safely used up to four drops a day in the affected eyes. People with more severe symptoms will benefit from prescribed ocular antihistamines such as Patanol or Alrex. But before rushing off to your pharmacist and demanding prescription eye drops for your hay fever allergies, it is best to have an evaluation with an eye doctor to see just which solution is right for you.

For those people who take daily doses of prescription antihistamines such as Allegra or Zyrtec, the ocular symptoms may be sufficiently suppressed. In other words, you may not need any further assistance for the itching and watering eyes. However, many times even this is not enough and ophthalmic remedies are valuable. But not everyone should use eye drops for allergies, prescribed or otherwise. People who wear contact lenses have special needs and should consult with their eye doctor before beginning any allergy treatment. If you take allergy medications such as Claritin or Allegra, the eyes can become too dry and intolerant to contact lens wear. Many times I will recommend lubricants or rewetting drops to replenish moisture to eyes that have been dried out by prolonged use of allergy medications. Moisture drops also have the double advantage of keeping the eyes flushed of the offending pollen. Eye drop medications should never be used with contact lens use unless specifically recommended by an eye doctor who is familiar with various contact lens products in use today.

Another common side effect of ocular allergies is conjunctivitis, or pink eye. Some people develop an eye infection during allergy season. This is many times created by an existing sinus condition or a bad case of sinusitis. These people need to visit an eye doctor for treatment, as typical over the counter remedies will be ineffective and the infection could spread. A classic case of 'pink eye' will be very painful and will have a larger amount of mucus discharge from the eyes than usual. Vision can become blurred and the person will many times be very sensitive to light. With this set of symptoms, you should visit an Optometrist or Ophthalmologist as soon as possible. There are numerous variables when an eye infection is present. A proper diagnosis and treatment in a timely manner will provide relief and prevent further complications.

There are times when the swelling can be controlled by using cold compresses over the eyelids. This simple, but effective remedy can do wonders for increasing your comfort during a particularly rough allergic episode. Be careful with any type of swelling of the eyes, however. A sty is treated in a much different and aggressive manner. So, if you are in doubt as to what is causing the swelling, do not hesitate to call me or your current eye doctor.

Eventually, the hay fever allergy season will wind down. But for the next few weeks many of you reading this will know when you have been outdoors too long. At the Eagleville Eye Clinic we see and treat a large number of people who suffer from ocular allergies and eye infections. The weather is getting pleasant so we all want to be out side as much as possible. The bottom line is this; if you are in doubt as to what to do for your eyes --- then please do not hesitate to call us at the clinic. A proper evaluation and treatment can help you get back outdoors enjoying the wonderful spring weather!!

On Thursday March 25th and Friday March 26th the Eagleville Drama department presented a 3 Act play Maid to Order. With rapid fire dialogue, comedies of errors, and flawless timing these actors gave an incredible performance. The play itself is a simple story of competing interests, busy bodies, rumors, assumptions, greed, and mistaken identity combined with an ever growing number of maids. “Maid to Order was written for one purpose only: to make an audience laugh.”

“Faith Martin is happily married to the football coach at Yarmouth College. On the eve of their biggest game, a rally is scheduled. It is also the evening that Julian Narramore, an old friend of Faith’s, is to appear in a program of Shakespearean readings. The two events conflict so there is a war between the Athletic and Speech Departments. Faith finds herself right in the middle, especially when Miss Speare, of Speech, accuses her of “carrying-on” with Julian. To top Faith’s problem, her rich Aunt Abby, who has never met her husband, is due to arrive. If she approves, all will be well. At the height of preparations for a big dinner, Faith’s maid quits. Two co-eds from the rival school Western conspire to steal Yarmouth’s prize trophy adding to the cast of characters parading through the Martin living room. To escape the wrath of her husband, Julian masquerades as the new maid - then a new maid arrives, then another, and another.”

Rockvale FCE Club News

By Emily Barr, Secretary

The Rockvale FCE Club Met for the March Meeting at the Rockvale Community Center with 13 members, 1 child and Extension Agent Emma Swafford.

President Jane Jackson called the meeting to order. Judy Read gave the devotion from Proverbs, stressing "Friendship". The members then sang "Making New Friends". Debbie Williams read the poem and quotation. The roll call was answered by "A Characteristic of a Good Friend".

The club members have been very busy with several projects:

- On "Nutrition Day", February 3, the club prepared low fat, low sodium 3-Bean Soup and low fat Banana Bread for approximately 50 FCE members. These foods were prepared according to recipes from nutritionist Sheila Bates from the Vanderbilt-Ingram Cancer Center. She stressed eating 5 fruits and vegetables a day can help lower cancer risk.

- On February 23, the Rockvale and Eagleville clubs met at the Rockvale Community Center for a workshop to make table favors for the upcoming "Recognition Day" luncheon and program. This is an annual event where members are recognized for outstanding achievements for the previous year.
- In February, old Christmas cards were mailed to St. Jude's Ranch.
- On March 16, five-dozen Easter eggs were filled with "goodies" for the Inner City Egg Hunt to be held at the Old Ag. Center. Each year, two city schools are invited to hunt eggs hidden by FCE members. Prizes are also given.
- Fifty-eight food items were delivered to the Rutherford County Food Bank.

- A donation was made to the American Red Cross.

Plans were made to cut out and sew wheel chair bags for local nursing homes at the next meeting. Also, plans were made to handle concessions at a local estate auction coming up in April. We will be serving hamburgers, hot dogs, soft drinks and home-made pies. The money we earn will go to fund our community projects.

The secretary continues to send cards of encouragement to the shut-ins and to our "Adopted" friends of FCE. Remembering them on their birthdays and other special occasions.

Following the educational program given by Club member Peggy Hayes on "Cancer Prevention through Good Nutrition" the meeting was adjourned. A nutritious lunch was enjoyed by all.

METHAMPHETAMINE / NOT IN MY NEIGHBORHOOD

At the March 9th meeting of the Eagleville FCE (Family & Community Education) Club, members were informed about the growing problem of Meth Labs in our communities. Methamphetamine, also called crank, crystal meth or speed, is a combination of chemicals that can easily be found in hardware and drug stores. Due to the rapid growth of this problem, many Tennessee law enforcement agencies are referring to it as an "epidemic." Because of the enormity of the problem and limited law enforcement, especially in rural areas, there are things the average citizen can do to help identify and rid communities of these labs.

The group discussed the following questions:

1. What is methamphetamine and what are the side effects?
2. Why should I be concerned?
3. What are the signs of a meth lab?
4. What should I do if I suspect a meth lab is in my community?

The Eagleville FCE Club is contributing stuffed plastic Easter Eggs for the Rutherford County Egg Hunt. The club is giving little books and Boo Boo Animals, made by Jean Fagan, to newborn babies in the county in May. This emphasizes our Literacy Program and our Healthy Children Program. For the Spring Trip, members will lunch at Mrs. Bobo's in Lynchburg. Thanks were expressed from Ronald McDonald House for the aluminum tabs the club collected for them. Alberta Hedge and Jean Fagan took them to Nashville March 4th. The group will take an Easter Basket to their adopted nursing home patient, "Sallie."

Eagleville FCE Club will sponsor a "Sewing Machine Clinic" on April 8th at the Eagleville Community Center at 9:00 am. Marion Bean from Mid-South Sewing Center will teach you to clean and adjust your machine so that it runs like new. This would cost you about $75.00 if you took it in to be serviced. The cost for this clinic is $8.00. To attend, call 274-6292 for reservations.

Hostesses, Dolores McCord and Frances Edwards, decorated with lovely flowers for the pot-luck lunch. President Alberta Hedge welcomed three visitors, Margaret Hall, Virginia Turner and Debbie Turner. The ladies have decided to join the Eagleville Club.

The Eagleville FCE Club invites you to join our group to make a difference in our community.

Lions Club News

On February 19th, the Lions Club performed sight screening tests on the students of the 3rd and 6th grades at Eagleville School. A total of 41 students were tested. Eight students are believed to have serious eye problems and it was recommended that they be examined by an eye doctor.

The Lions Club has a program in place for the citizens of our community who are in need of eye care and cannot afford it. They are welcome to contact any member of the Eagleville Lions Club for more information and assistance.

With the help provided by Dr. Rena Cron, our local eye doctor, many of our community residents have been provided with eye care and glasses.

Drop boxes are located around town for you to drop-off your unused eyeglasses. These are taken to Lenscrafter in Murfreesboro for reconditioning and are then distributed locally, regionally, and internationally to people who are desperately in need. We recently delivered more than 100 pairs of glasses to Lenscrafters, who supports the efforts of Lions Club International.

On April 24, the Lions Club will have their annual Road Block at the downtown intersection. Each passerby will be offered a flyer. Any member of our community who has an interest in any of these programs may contact a Lions Club Member for more information.

Easter Eggs

Of all the symbols associated with Easter the egg, the symbol of fertility and new life, is the most identifiable. The customs and traditions of using eggs have been associated with Easter for centuries.

Originally Easter eggs were painted with bright colors to represent the sunlight of spring and were used in Easter-egg rolling contests or given as gifts. After they were colored and etched with various designs the eggs were exchanged by lovers and romantic admirers, much the same as valentines. In medieval time eggs were traditionally given at Easter to the servants. In Germany eggs were given to children along with other Easter gifts.

Different cultures have developed their own ways of decorating Easter eggs. Crimson eggs, to honor the blood of Christ, are exchanged in Greece. In parts of Germany and Austria green eggs are used on Maundy Thursday (Holy Thursday). Slavic peoples decorate their eggs in special patterns of gold and silver.

Austrian artists design patterns by fastening ferns and tiny plants around the eggs, which are then boiled. The plants are then removed revealing a striking white pattern. The Poles and Ukrainians decorate eggs with simple designs and colors. A number of eggs are made in the distinctive manner called pysanki (to design, to write).

Pysanki eggs are a masterpiece of skill and workmanship. Melted beeswax is applied to the fresh white egg. It is then dipped in successive baths of dye. After each dip wax is painted over the area where the preceding color is to remain. Eventually a complex pattern of lines and colors emerges into a work of art.

In Germany and other countries eggs used for cooking where not broken, but the contents were removed by piercing the end of each egg with a needle and blowing the contents into a bowl. The hollow eggs were died and hung from shrubs and trees during the Easter Week. The Armenians would decorate hollow eggs with pictures of Christ, the Virgin Mary, and other religious designs.

Margaret's Helpful Hints

To keep potatoes from budding, place an apple in the bag with the potatoes.

Burn your tongue? - Put sugar on it!

Wrap celery in aluminum foil when putting in the refrigerator-it will keep for weeks.

Put some water in a white dinner plate and add just a couple of drops of Lemon Fresh Joy dishwashing soap. Set the dish on a porch or patio. Not sure what attracts them, the lemon smell, the white color, or what, but mosquitoes flock to it, and drop dead, or fall into the water, or on the floor within about 10 ft. Enjoy a mosquito free summer!

TEX MEX DIP

Layer two cans of refried beans in a casserole dish. Mix (in a separate bowl) 8 ounces of sour cream, 1 packet Taco Bell taco mix, and 1 1/2 cups of mayo. Layer the mix on top of beans. Top with cheese, tomatoes, scallions, and olives.

ORANGE JUICE CAKE

1 pkg yellow butter cake mix
1 pkg instant vanilla pudding mix (small package)
1 cup orange juice
1/2 cup oil
4 eggs
1/2 cup nuts

Grease bundt pan. Pour chopped nuts evenly over bottom. Mix remaining ingredients and pour over nuts. Bake in preheated oven at 325° for 50 to 60 minutes. Don't overcook.

GLAZE

Bring to a boil and boil for 2 minutes
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup orange juice
1 stick butter or margarine

Punch a few holes in the cake with an ice pick. This allows the glaze to seep into the cake.

Pour glaze over hot cake in pan. Let set for 30 minutes and remove cake from pan.

With the assistance of City Planner, Bryan Collins, the topic of “Zoning” will continue from previous articles.

When a community decides to create land use laws, it's generally out of a desire to establish compatibility between the acceptable uses and the not-so-acceptable uses. Here, the goal is compatibility. Historically, modern zoning evolved from nuisance laws, sanitary and housing codes, European law and English common law. Even early Roman law addressed a need for protection against encroachments in certain areas and the spatial relationships of certain buildings to other structures. Acceptability of land use controls in the United States was not immediate or universal. Numerous reasons for its slow development could be noted, but perhaps the most significant reason was the tendency of the courts to go to great lengths to assure that individual property rights were protected from arbitrary control of government. Public control of private land was not only uncommon, it was contrary to the independent rural agrarian and enterprising values of that time. Much of that philosophy is still evident in Tennessee today.<sup>1</sup> To be continued next month.

There is an ad hoc park-recreation committee of citizens currently working with our Grant Facilitator Alan Farley, City Planner Bryan Collins, and a specialist grant writer with Greater Nashville Regional Council in preparation for writing grants for Eagleville. Part of this process will be a questionnaire to the Eagleville citizens. When this opportunity arrives, please take a few minutes to complete and then return. Thank you for helping.

As mentioned in earlier articles, many people are giving of their time to enhance our quality of life. You know who these men and women are on our City Council, Planning Commission, and Beautification Committee. A suggestion would be to thank the spouses and/or family members of these people. Many hours of family time is instead devoted to working for the people of Eagleville. Granted, those who serve choose to do so. But, give a word of appreciation to these family members who also sacrifice their time to provide a better community for us all.

You are a wonderful people living in a wonderful town. Do remember to vote.

TO THE EDITOR:

A quick note to thank you for your work in producing and distributing the EAGLEVILLE TIMES. Your newspaper is interesting, fun, informative and the best thing to happen to our little town since paved streets!

In your recent issue you provided information regarding the upcoming Eagleville city election. There are many reports in large media outlets regarding attendance records of congressmen, senators and state legislators. Are attendance rosters accessible on our city council members?

Publication of this information would assist Eagleville voters in determining how seriously incumbent council members take their oath of public service to our city.

Keep up the good work. Your efforts in historical research of your circulation area is excellent and the entire area is abuzz with praise for your newspaper.

First Ever Eagleville Jazz Band—A Huge Success!

By Courtney Simon

March the 2nd, 2004 marked a new tradition in the Eagleville way of life. In addition to an amazing marching, concert, and pep band, Eagleville has added yet another musical sensation. A jazz band. This group consists of some of the members of the concert band, plus a few extras on electric and bass guitars. The members are: Steven Hassell on bass guitar, Eli Sadler on electric guitar, Matt Waldon on electric guitar, Aaron Aldaffer on trumpet, Jared George on trumpet, James Anderson on trumpet, Justin Musser on trumpet, Kristen Musser on bass clarinet, Megan Pewitt on melophone, Courtney Simon on clarinet, and Brandon Harper on snare drum and drum set. This group has been practicing once a week for only a couple of months but managed to put on a spectacular performance. They played popular tunes such as “Louie Louie”, “The Pink Panther”, “Stray Cat Strut”, and “Peter Gunn”.

Along with the new addition was the concert 6-12th grade bands. The 6-8th grade bands played the famous song “Lean on Me” and “Forrest Gump (feather theme)”. The high school band played the ballad “My Heart Will Go On” originally recorded by the Celine Dion from the 1997 movie “Titanic.” This music was accompanied by the beautiful vocal stylings of Mrs. Kim Armstrong. The band also played the tune “Over the Rainbow” from the 1939 movie “The Wizard of Oz”. This song was accompanied by the lovely voice of Mrs. Candace Williams. The cost of the show was $2, shirts and concessions were sold as fundraisers. All of the money raised will go to benefit the band’s private lesson program.

A Step Back in Time - EARLY SCHOOLS

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

In the late 1800's and early 1900's the Eagleville Community like most rural communities had several small schools scattered in different areas. At this time it wasn't uncommon for children to walk or ride horses several miles to the school closest to their home. At this time there were several one-room schools in this area with one teacher that would teach all grades. The Eagleville community was fortunate to also have a private school during this time but these schools charged a tuition to attend, so most of the children in the area around Eagleville attended the one-room or very small country schools.

The BUNKER HILL SCHOOL was located near Eagleville in the Bunker Hill area. The original school building was located on property now owned by the Manner family. Professor Walter Cole was the teacher in 1898. Mr. Aub McClaran was the last teacher in the original schoolhouse. The new Bunker Hill School was built down the road from the old one next to the drive leading to the present home of Ray Frost, previously known as the Ralston home place. Mr. Bryson taught in the new school and in 1914, Miss Annie Wilson, daughter of John Wilson was the teacher. According to Mrs. Mary Pearl Taylor and Allen Hudson who attended the Bunker Hill School, the recess was the favorite time of the day. They boys would play ball or pitch horseshoes. The girls would make playhouses out of rocks. Each child carried their lunch for the day. The teacher would often go home and spend the night in the children's home. Allen Hudson remembers a Miss Pomeroy staying at their home one night. Allen and his brothers went to school in the spring wagon that day because she was going home with them. One of the boys thought it would be fun to give her a fast ride. She was on the seat with Puckett Hudson, the driver. He got the horses going pretty fast and Miss Pomeroy got pretty upset them them. I'm sure their parents weren't too happy about this incident but the boys had a good laugh. When Bunker Hill School was closed, most of the students in this area went to Rover and Eagleville Schools.

In 1914 Miss Annie Wilson was the teacher and W. J. Owens, Officer of Bunker Hill School. That year, Miss Wilson gave all her students a "School Souvenir" booklet that included a "School Days" poem, list of students and a message from the teacher. On March 12 at Cascade, Matt Vaughn pitched a complete game, four hitter in Eagleville's season opening win over host and District foe Cascade. Vaughn (1-0) struck out eight batters and was 2-4 at the plate in the 4-0 victory. Bryce Toups was 3-4 with two runs scored, and as a catcher, he threw out two runners on two steal attempts. Derik Elmore was 2-3 with two runs scored for the Eagles.

On March 14, Eagleville's Matt Vaughn struck out 13 as he pitched a complete game in the Eagles' victory over visiting Page, winning 9-1. Vaughn (2-0) allowed one run on five hits over seven innings, walking none for Eagleville (2-0). Page fell to 0-3. Bryce Toups went 2-4 at the plate with two RBIs and four runs scored to lead the Eagle's offense, and Derik Elmore also went 2-4, scoring twice and driving in a run. The Eagles' Brandon Lamb added two doubles in two at bats, driving in two runs, and Matt Miller went 2 - 3 with two RBIs.

On March 15, the Eagles traveled to Cannon County and pulled off a 9-3 win. Matt Miller pitched.

Eagleville Athletes Compete in Weight Lifting Competition.

On Saturday, March 6, athletes from the football program and other sports at Eagleville School traveled to Chapel Hill to compete for the first time in a Weight Lifting Competition. The weight lifting and conditioning classes at Eagleville School are relatively new additions to the overall athletic department/program. The rewards from the program are stronger, better conditioned and healthier student athletes in all the sports programs at the school. The competition at Forrest School was the first for all the athletes who traveled and Eagleville enjoyed success that day. Colby George, junior, placed 2nd in his 148 lb. weight class with a total of 650 lbs. Bridget Monroe, a female freshman basketball and volleyball player competed in an otherwise all male class and placed 3rd in the 123 lb weight class. Aaron Fisher, a sophomore, posted the biggest "squat" of the day pushing 405 lbs. We are proud of are Eagleville Student Athletes. Keep pressing toward your goal.

May 8th Golf Scramble Promises to be a Day of Fun

On May 8, 2004 the Eagles Nest Football Booster Club is sponsoring the 2nd annual Golf Scramble to raise funds for the upcoming season. Again this year, the Event will be held at Champions Run Golf Course located between Rockvale and Eagleville off Highway 99. Teams of four will compete for low score and prizes. The day promises strong competition and fun for all who participate. There will be "Mulligans" available to purchase, door prizes for everyone, prizes for the winning team, and a Hole in One for a Neil Sandler Toyota. Hole sponsorship is $100.00 and the entry fee for 4 person teams is $240.00; anyone wishing to sponsor a Hole and field a team, the total cost is $300.00. All proceeds benefit the Eagleville Football Program. Thank you for your support.

Sarah Karper Signs With Trevecca

Trevecca Nazarene University's women's basketball coach Julie van Beek is pleased to announce the signing of Sarah Karper. Karper, a 5'8 shooting guard from Eagleville High School averaged 19.2 points, 4.2 rebounds, 2.3 steals, and 1.3 assists per game this season. The 5'8 shooting guard scored 1,489 career points for Eagleville. Karper was honored for her outstanding senior season by being named to the all-district tournament team as well as the all-district team for District 11A. As a junior, Sarah was named 2nd team All-State as well as the All-Midstate, All-Region and All-District.

"We are thrilled that Sarah chose Trevecca," commented Coach van Beek. "Sarah is an outstanding 3 point shooter who can also create her own shot or a shot for her teammates by using dribble penetration. Also, Sarah has a winning attitude. She is a competitor who has high expectations for herself and shows a great desire to become better. Finally, she is a kid who wants to take the game winning shot.!"

Scouting News

Scouts Travel to MTSU to Learn Scouting

Each year, Middle Tennessee Council of Boy Scouts of America offers opportunities to attend merit badge classes at area colleges. Troop 123 of the Trail of Tears District annually attends the Merit Badge University at MTSU and 4 boys from the troop spent Saturday March 20 on the MTSU campus learning and having fun.

Merit Badge University offers the scouts an opportunity to complete most or all of the requirements for a specific merit badge in one day. In the past, scouts from Troop 123 have earned among others, merit badges in tractor mechanics, swimming, fingerprinting, traffic safety, first aid, and citizenship in the nation at the Merit Badge University.

Scouts Nathan Cron, Jared Davis, Garrett Pinkston, and Daniel Wilson attended merit badge class in Citizenship in the Nation and completed all but one requirement of the merit badge. Citizenship in the Nation focuses on the history and government structure of the United States and is required for the rank of Eagle. Good Job Scouts and Troop 123.

Eagle Scouts Honored

On March 21, 2004, Eagle Scout Jesse Emery was honored at the Middle Tennessee Council Eagle Banquet held on the Belmont University Campus in Nashville. The afternoon included presenting each Eagle Scout in attendance with his silk Eagle neckerchief and individually recognizing them on stage. Also honored from Troop 123 for obtaining the rank of Eagle was Glenn Frost who was unable to attend the event. We salute both of these young men and challenge other young men in Troop 123 to continue their path to Eagle.

Any boy from first grade and up is eligible to be part of Boy Scouts of America. For more information on Troop 123 or Cub Scout Pack 123, contact Mike Hayes at 931-364-4744 or Don Davis at 274-3439. Troop 123 meets each Tuesday evening from 7:00 to 8:30 at the Community Center.

Cub Scout Pinewood Derby

By Rena Cron

The Eagleville Cub Scout Pack 123 held their annual Pinewood Derby Thursday, March 18 at the Eagleville community center. Fourteen scouts, ages ranging from kindergarten to 5th grade, entered cars for the race. Many people were there to watch and cheer on the racers as they competed in the double elimination event. The 1st place trophy was awarded to Skylar Chrisman, a Tiger Scout and first grader at Eagleville School. Nathan Wilson, a 5th grade Weblo Scout came through with the second fastest car in the competition. Third place was awarded to Tiger Scout and Kindergartner, Tanner Warf. Many of the races were so close it was tough to tell who won. After the race competition ended, an open vote was held for the best car design of all the entries. This prize was awarded to Weblo Scout Nathan Wilson. Congratulations to all the winners!!! All of the boys had a great time building and racing their cars. And all of the spectators enjoyed watching the competition and eating pizza at this fun filled family event.

The participants were: Brent Harper, Tanner Warf, Clay Pinkston, Skyler Chrisman, Ethan Springer, Chance Horner, Colin Progar, Brian Edwards, Paxton Jameson, Randall Cooper, Nathan Wilson, Bradley Warf, Robbie Burns, and Shaun Hawkins.

Cub Scout Pack 123 wanted to make special mention of four scouts who donated their time to help out at the Annual Chitlin Supper held in Eagleville March 13. The Scout group was on hand to help out with the fundraiser by selling pie slices to the eager chitlin supper participants.

Shown below: Bradley Warf, Nathan Wilson, Brian Edwards, and Clay Pinkston were very diligent and raised nearly $200 for the Eagle-ville based scout group.

896-6076

www.RutherfordCountyVideo.com

You will hear about the early inhabitants of this area—the Cherokee, Choctaw Shawnee and the Creeks—the legend of Black Fox, the Cherokee Indian chief, is still talked about today. The boy hero of the confederacy, Sam Davis, inspires all who hear his story of self sacrifice. Have you heard about the Confederate female spy from La Vergne? Learn about the human fly, a man whose identity is still unknown, but his daring is well known by citizens who were alive when he shocked onlookers on the public square. Did you know the original county seat sits at the bottom of Percy Priest Lake? One hundred dollars kept Murfreesboro from becoming the permanent capital of Tennessee. What about Davy Crockett and Sam Houston—what business did they have here? Did you know our county's name came from a man who never lived here? What Rutherford town seceded from Williamson County to join our county?
