Easter Egg Hunt & Breakfast With The Bunny

Gray skies and soggy grass did not dampen the spirits of participants at the annual Eagleville City Easter Egg Hunt held Saturday April 8th at the Community Center. Despite cold weather and occasional misting rain, a strong group of children joined by proud parents, grandparents, and other family and friends made quick work of "picking the ground clean" of all the eggs and candy. Before the hunt began, many of those who came enjoyed a breakfast of pancakes and sausage or bacon, juice or milk with the Mascot of the Day, the Easter Bunny. Complete in a white rabbit outfit, Ms. Bunny invited the children to enjoy Easter fun with balloons, goodie bags and their own set of Easter Egg ears. Too excited to eat, they did pause long enough to get their picture taken on Ms. Bunny's lap and to guess the number of jelly beans in a Jar. Parents did their part by filling up on the breakfast food and enjoying the company of friends.

To keep the children occupied until Hunt time, an inflatable Dragon was in the side yard. This was a favorite attraction for the children despite the cool weather. Once inside the large but friendly dragon, children could slide down to the exit. As 10:00 a.m. approached children began to gather at the border of the "Field of Eggs", baskets and buckets in hand, ready to hunt and collect. Children four years of age and under had their own area in which to hunt. Children five and older hunted in a larger area. As the "go" was given, the race was on, to pick up candy eggs and plastic eggs filled with candy. The older children "picked their area clean" with everyone filling baskets, buckets, and bags. Two Golden Eggs were hidden in the area. The younger children took a little longer to find and deposit the candy in their baskets and locate the Golden Egg in their area. Parents and other “helpers” did a great job helping these little ones focus on the task at hand and finish the job. When it was over, the area was “swept clean”.

Following the hunt, the group gathered for a group picture and some important announcements. The winner of the Jelly Bean guess contest was Shanna Hix who won a big stuffed Easter Bunny and the jar of jelly beans. Three golden eggs were hidden. Kristen Moonyham found the Golden Egg for the 9 -12 years age group, Katlyn Vanatta won for the 5-8 years age group and Allison Simpson won for the 4 years and under age group. Each child received a $20.00 gift certificate to Toys R Us. After all the festivities, it was time to “dig in” to the best part of Hunting, which is the Eating.

Thanks to the City of Eagleville-Activities Committee and to all who helped to make the Easter Egg Hunt a great morning for all. Thanks also to Mr. and Mrs. Billy Goins for their generous donation of milk and juice for the breakfast.

ionville; a son, Kenny (Linda) Harvey of Goodlettsville; daughters Dianne (Don) hall of Murfreesboro and Annette (Charles) Byrd of Nashville; stepchildren Randall (Dawn) Boyce of Shelbyville, Roger (Rebecca) Boyce and Becky Sanders of Unionville; three grandchildren; eight step-grandchildren; and brothers Howell (Betty) Harvey of Waverly, Forrest (Virginia) Harvey of Monroe, La., and David (Joanne) Harvey of Lebanon.

Woodrow Edward Medlock, age 93, of Murfreesboro, died at his residence on Tuesday, April 4, 2006. He was a native of Paris, Tenn. in Henry County. Woodrow was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, and a devoted friend to all. He was a pastor and teacher for more than 70 years and was the founder and pastor of Jesus Way of Life Church.

He performed weddings, funerals and baptized the multi-thousands. He was a humble man who was never too busy or too tired, or the hour too late to go to someone on need.

He was a frequent visitor to jails, prisons and hospitals, as many as five times in one day, locally, and in other counties and states. He and his wife, Ruth, went on a mission trip to the poverty-stricken side of Jamaica.

A multitallented person who held certificates in insurance, real estate, auctioneer, and reflexology, he was a gifted motivational speaker. But his greatest desire was preaching God's word. His one last wish was to reach out to someone lost and facing eternity without Jesus.

In his early days, he preached at Powells Chapel and Westvue Baptist Church, and afternoons at Patterson, Wayside, Mt. Carmel, New Hope and Hoover's Gap. He was pastor of Bellwood Baptist Church and Christian Academy for 40 years. He donated the land and was administrator at the beginning of Good Shepherd's Children's Home.

He was a pastor in Bedford County before returning to Murfreesboro, where he organized Jesus Way of Life Church and met at Rucker Chapel for two years before moving to 2022 East. Main Street, where the members purchased the church and fellowship hall. Brother Medlock was a friend, and a pastor who served well day or night, regardless of the hour. He was a mountain of a man.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ode and Pearl Chandler Medlock; son Carl Medlock; sisters Matilda Medlock Kelton and Willie Vona Medlock; great-grandchildren Raven Star and Steven Heckler; and stepson Steve Cole. He is survived by his wife, Ruth Templeton Cole Medlock; son Woody Medlock and his wife Kathy; daughters Mary Underwood and her husband James, and Sally Brown and her husband Roger; grandchildren Joann Johnson and her husband David, Bubba Medlock and his wife Kate, Lydia Kelly, Josh and Thomas Underwood, Christy Bond and her husband, Shannon Heckler and her husband, Steve, and Brittany and Ashley Brown; four step-grandchildren, Crystal, Rick and Justin McCullough and Ashley Cole; 10 great-grandchildren and 14 step-great-grandchildren.

Evelyn Smith Barrett, 99, passed away Monday, April 3, 2006, at Boulevard Terrace. She was a native and lifelong resident of Rutherford County. She was a homemaker and a member of the Concord Methodist Church. She was preceded in death by her parents, James "Jim" Smith and Savannah Rutledge Smith; husband Laymon Lee Barrett; sons J.W. Barrett and Laymon Lee Barrett Jr.; daughters Lorene Barrett and Mary Frances Carlton; brothers Fred, Thomas, James Alfort, Willard and Jessie Smith; sisters Florence Davis, Savannah Smith, Alice Williams, Mamie Bucy and Estelle Jacobs. She is survived by daughter Earlene McDaniel of Eagleville; 13 grandchildren; 12 great-great grandchildren; and six great-great grandchildren.

Citizens of the Month—Bill & Frankie Morgan

SHORT COURTSHIP – LONG LASTING MARRIAGE—THE MORGANS By Bobbie Sue Shelton

It isn't always necessary to have a long courtship to have a long lasting marriage. In one such case, William "Bill" Morgan and Frankie Edward married after a two-week courtship and celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary in December 2005.

William "Bill" Morgan and Frankie Edward met and fell in love during WWII. Bill, stationed at Camp Hood, Texas (presently called Ft. Hood) met Frankie who at the time was working in the PX (Post Exchange) on the base. Frankie originally was Harrisburg, Illinois was in Texas visiting her older sister. Her "return home money" was needed elsewhere, so Frankie went to work in the PX to make enough money to return home. But as fate would have it, she met and married her husband, Bill and later made Rockvale, Tennessee her home.

Their courtship started as Bill would walk Frankie to the bus station from the PX. After about two weeks, Bill received notice he was being transferred to Camp Howsie near Gainesville, Texas. He wasn't allowed a pass from his new location for a week, but as soon as he got one, he returned and he and Frankie were married in Belton, Texas on December 8, 1944, coincidentally the same date of her parents' anniversary. After being told of their marriage, her sister reminded Frankie that her wedding was on their parents' wedding anniversary.

Bill, son of Thomas and Evie Campbell Morgan was a native of Rockvale. He was born October 29, 1917. Frankie was born September 7, 1924, the daughter of Thomas and Bertha Ellen Armstead Edward. She had 5 siblings, all sisters.

Bill and Frankie continue living in Texas until 1945 when he received orders to Arkansas and Frankie came to Rockvale to wait the arrival of their first child. Bill was expecting to be shipped overseas, but after 3 or 4 months, he was discharged from the service and returned home. He missed his son Ed's arrival by a few days.

Bill and Frankie made their home with Bill's parents on Morgan Road for 18 years so he could help his father with the farm. Bill was also a fireman at Stewart Air Force Base in Smyrna. After the closure of the Base, he attended refrigeration school and worked in that field for several years until his retirement. Frankie was employed as a seamstress for White Stag in Murfreesboro for 15 years and at the shoe factory in Chapel Hill for about 6 years. They are members of the Concord United Methodist Church.

The Morgan's have three children: Edward "Ed", born October 10, 1945 married Gayle Averitt and lived in the Rockvale area. He was employed at Arnold Engineering and they have two children: Melissa and Bryan. Edward died in 2004 about two years after a work related accident.

Billie Fay born May 10, 1948 married Larry Johns. They have a son, Jonathan and presently live in Shelbyville Tennessee.

Elizabeth "Betty" was born Nov. 9, 1952 and married John Elizondo. They live in New Mexico where Betty is a teacher. They have two children, Michael and Katie.

After living on Morgan Road for about 18 years, Bill and Frankie moved their family to Rockvale. Their children wanted to play ball at school so they moved closer where they would be able to ride the school bus. They lived at this location about 40 years before moving to their present home on Jackson Ridge Road. Bill and all his children are graduates of Rockvale High School.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

BY BOBBIE SUE SHELTON

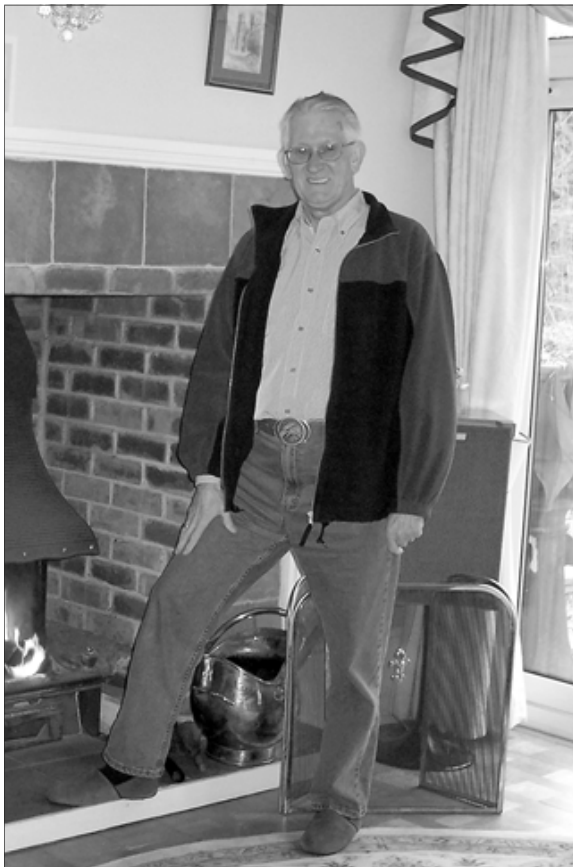

When I left Eagleville in late October 1951 to enter the US Air force I little knew that I had set in motion a train of events which would ultimately result in my taking up residence in another country and never again returning to the USA as a permanent resident. On completion of training in the States I was sent to Europe for a 3-year tour of duty and stationed at Rhine Main Airbase Frankfurt Germany for the entire period. I enjoyed my time there very much as I could indulge in my favorite past time of travel being able to visit several European countries observing their culture close up.

In mid 1954 an English girl who had been working for Pan Am Airways in New York and had come to Germany to learn the language joined us in my unit. We started dating and in November 1954 married at her home near London. On our return to Frankfurt we lived off base in Morfelden near Frankfurt. In June 1955 we returned to the US sailing from Bremhaven on the USS General Hood. After a visit to family and friends we went to North Carolina where I was based at Fort Bragg. My enlistment ended October 1955 and we decided to return to England via New York-Southampton on the QE 1.

After settling in we moved to West Hampstead in London. For a brief period I worked for an American food distribution company. But after a few months I decided to embark on a career in Industrial Electronics. Over the next 5 years I attended college at night and part time day release to gain recognized qualifications in the field and in 1968 joined the company from which I retired, firstly as Sale Manager then as Marketing Director retiring after 22 years in 1990.

In 1985 my 1st wife and I separated and later divorced, following this I formed a relationship with my 2nd wife Jean and we married in Las Vegas in the millennium year.

I have only positive thoughts about my life in England, and take great pride in my children and grandchildren who have been brought up in the English culture. I have found English people very friendly and welcoming and in fact feels being an American has helped me both socially and in business. There are many Americans living in the Country and in London we have many clubs where we can meet with our fellow countrymen to discuss the issues of the day. I am still an American citizen, keep my passport up to date and would never relinquish it willingly, any more than I would ever trade my experiences of growing up on a farm in Tennessee for anything. There are certain aspects in the American culture that I miss but at the same time there are many things in the English culture that I admire greatly.

The one thing that cannot be replicated wherever I go is the sense of belonging, when I return to Eagleville to visit family and friends. The people of Eagleville are so friendly and welcoming that I always feel as though I have just returned from a few days away. On balance I believe I enjoy the best of both worlds!

Note: Jack is the son of the late Aubrey and Pearl Tomlin McClaran. He was one of eight children of which 5 are still living. He graduated from Eagleville High School in 1948. There were 10 graduates in the "class of 48".

Celebrate our Senior Adults with Gospel Fest 2006.

The church choirs from the Triune, Nolensville, College Grove, Arrington and Eagle-ville areas will join together on Saturday, May 6, 2006 at 6:00 pm in a musical concert to benefit the senior citizens in our community. All individual choirs involved will perform at least two (2) gospel musical selections with the night ending when all the choirs come together and perform as one very large choir. The evening will be filled with food and fellowship, with the food being donated by many of our local grocery and vendor suppliers.

The reason for this even is to raise money and awareness about the Meals on Wheels Association of America (MOWAA). During this event charitable donations will be accepted, and you will have the opportunity to sign up to be a volunteer.

MOWAA is the oldest and largest organization in the United States, representing those who provide meal services to people in need. It works towards the social, physical, nutritional, and economic betterment of vulnerable Americans. The guiding principle to which MOWAA subscribes is to help those men and women who are elderly, homebound, disabled, frail, or at risk.

As a part of the evening, there will be a testimonial video, where those who are being helped by MOWAA will have an opportunity to express what MOWAA has meant to them. Not only do those men and women receive a warm, nutritional meal, but they also received a visit from one of the volunteers. Sometimes, this is the only visitor they have all week. If you have been involved with MOWAA, then you know what a tremendous organization it is. If you haven't, then come and be a part of this wonderful evening which will be full of music, food, and fun. Again, Gospel Fest 2006 will be held on Saturday, May 6, 2006 at 6:00 pm and is hosted by Triune United Methodist Church, 7906 Nolensville Road, Arrington, Tennessee.

Travels of the Wandering Fool

By L. Smith

Hello and welcome to this first edition of The Wandering Fool, a guide to good food and great shows. I am, of course, the Fool himself. I wander around Rutherford County and surrounding areas in search of new restaurants. I also wander over to the local theatre and movie rental store at least once a week for a little entertainment. I'd hate for all these experiences to go to waste so I'm sharing them with you here in the Eagleville Times.

For my first restaurant review, I found myself wandering into Fuji Japanese Steakhouse and Sushi located at 352 West Northfield Blvd in Murfreesboro. Fuji is primarily a Hibachi restaurant with a large sushi bar in the back. If you wish to be seated at the sushi Bar, be sure to tell your hostess before being seated. The tables are designed around grills at which a chef will cook your meal for you as well as entertain you with flashy knife work, humorous antic dotes and the occasional jumping flames. My friends and I chose to have both Sushi and the Hibachi dinner. The sushi came out quickly, was fresh, and appropriately chilled. For those new to Sushi, it isn't just raw fish, but in fact quite a few are grilled, fried, or baked before being served. They even have their sushi menu split into 3 sections, Beginner, Advanced and All-Pro. We had a wide selection of some old favorites and a few new items to try out. I for one was impressed. Our hibachi meals came with soup and salad a nice little appetizer before the main meal.

When it came time for our meal, Chef Anthony rolled out his cart of goodies and started the show. He went to work, chopping up and scrambling some eggs for fried rice, slicing up shrimp and vegetables. His knife work was mesmerizing. He said it was his first day at the restaurant but he'd been doing it for 8 years. The food he prepared was flavorful and fresh...it had to be, he cooked it right at the table. The overall experience was very enjoyable and satisfying, though the prices were very high for my taste. For those with a taste for alcohol, Fuji serve sake, plum wine, a wide selection of beers and cocktails. I had a glass of the plum wine and found it a nice change of pace from the usual mixed drinks.

All in all the service was excellent. The atmosphere was inviting yet still felt out of the ordinary. The food was fresh and wonderfully flavorful. The even have a website complete with menus located at www.fujisteakandsushi.com.

I give Fuji Japanese Steakhouse and Sushi, 4 chopsticks out of 5.

I wandered over to the local movie theatre recently as I do almost every week. I think before telling you a little about it though, you should read this poem:

This mostly obscure nursery rhyme from England is

*Remember, remember the 5th of November,
The Gunpowder Treason, and Plot.
I see no reason why the Gunpowder Treason
Should ever be forgot.*

the basis for the film, "V for Vendetta". The story is set in London some 22 year from now. America is consumed by plagues and riots while England's new government rules its people with an iron fist. Actor Hugo Weaving (whom you may recognize as Elrond from the "Lord of the Ring" movies) portrays V, a protagonist who uses bombings and murders to influence the people of England to change their unjust government while actress Natalie Portman plays Evey, a woman caught by circumstance who is morally forced to join in his fight.

The film itself is a wild mix of drama, action, explosions, dark comedy, and love. The focus of the movie, though, is not just action, but almost to satire politics both past and present. The director goes through great lengths to draw similarities between the new fictional British government of the film and the former Nazi Regime of World War II Germany. The central theme of the film is summed up by the movie's catch phrase, "People should not be afraid of their government, governments should be afraid of their people."

As a rule, I don't encourage parents to take their children to see an action and this is no exception. The movie isn't child friendly but mature teenagers should love it. There are no sex scenes but there is a fair bit of violence, both implied and shown as well as some blood spilled. The film's comedy is of a dark nature, as satires tend to be, but does have a few moments that had the whole audience laughing. The plot is compelling and the acting is on the mark. Overall, V for Vendetta is a great film for movie goers and should make an excellent home theatre rental or an outstanding Movie Theatre experience.

I give V for Vendetta 4 action packed explosions out of 5.

I recently caught a showing of "Inside Man" at my local theatre. The film revolves around a perfectly planned bank robbery and stars such big names as Denzel Washington, Jodi

Foster, Christopher Plummer, and William Dafoe. The main stage of the film is a bank founded by Arthur Case (Christopher Plummer). Robbers, dressed as painters walk in, disable the cameras, and order everyone to hit the dirt, more or less. From there, the heist seems to spiral out of control, all the while the robbers are calm and collected. The film is directed by Spike Lee, who paints a picture of mystery and intrigue while hostages cower for their lives at the command of the armed robbers. There were quite a few moments that surprised and excited the action star in me, but there wasn't really any comedy to speak of. With the few special effects and many twists and turns, "Inside Man" kept me guessing.

As such, I give it 4 "What just happened" moments out of 5.

That's all for this edition's travels of the Wandering Fool. I hope you enjoyed reading it as much as I enjoyed living it. Be sure to join me next time when I invite my 3 year old niece, Wanderer in Training, to help me review some of her favorite Bargain Movie Rentals for Kids. Also, if you know of any local restaurants or shows (including any local plays) that you think I should wander by in future editions, please send an email to thefool@chaoswebdesign.com.

All reviews are the opinion of the Wandering Fool and guest reviewers only and do not reflect the opinions of the Eagleville Times.

For those of you that don't have internet email, you tend to miss out on some pretty good statistics or jokes that get passed around the internet. For you, I decided each month to share some of this interesting fun. * Intended for fun only. No guarantees to authenticity.

Advice:

- * Your fences need to be horse-high, pig-tight and bull-strong.
 - * Life ain't about how fast you run, or how high you climb, but how well you bounce.
 - * Keep skunks and bankers and shyster lawyers at a distance.
 - * Life is simpler when you plow around the stump.
 - * A bumble bee is considerably faster than a John Deere tractor.
 - * Words that soak into your ears are whispered...not yelled.
 - * Meanness don't jes' happen overnight.
 - * Forgive your enemies. It messes up their heads.
 - * Do not corner something that you know is meaner than you.
 - * It don't take a very strong person to carry a grudge.
 - * You cannot recall mean words or put fired bullets back in a gun.
 - * Every path has a few puddles.
 - * When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.
 - * The best sermons are lived, not preached.
 - * Most of the stuff people worry about ain't never gonna happen anyway.
 - * Don't judge folks by their relatives.
 - * Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.
 - * Live a good, honorable life. Then when you get older and think back, you'll enjoy it a second time.
 - * Don't interfere with somethin' that ain't botherin' you none.
 - * Timing has a lot to do with the outcome of a rain dance.
 - * The easiest way to eat crow is while it's still warm, 'cause the colder it gets, the harder it is to swallow.
 - * If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'.
 - * It don't take a genius to spot a goat in a flock of sheep.
 - * Sometimes you get, and sometimes you get got. Some days the pup, some days the fire hydrant.
 - * The biggest troublemaker you'll probably ever have to deal with, watches you from the mirror every mornin'.
 - * Always drink upstream from the herd.
 - * Lettin' the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin' it back in.
 - * If you get to thinkin' you're a person of some influence, try orderin' somebody else's dog around.
 - * Live simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly.
- Leave the rest to God.

Gardening With Allergies

For some, gardening is enjoyable all year long. Others, however, are not so fortunate. Seasonal allergies can stop some people in their tracks with sneezing attacks, watery eyes and noses or an inability to breathe. Spring begins the allergy season with the pollen of ash, birch, elm, hickory, and other trees. Late spring and summer brings problems with grasses. Summer and fall continues the agony with numerous weeds such as dock, ragweed and amaranth.

People who are unaware of their particular allergies often want to blame plants with bright, fragrant flowers even though these are often not the culprit. The plants that often cause allergies are those whose pollen is windborne and have inconspicuous flowers. Brightly colored, fragrant flowers have heavy pollen that need insects for transfer. Unfortunately, highly susceptible people may be affected by insect pollinated plants as well.

The first step in gardening with allergies is to identify the plants which cause problems. Allergies can change over time as can sensitivity. By knowing your allergies you can begin developing avoidance strategies. Altering your surroundings can significantly reduce your exposure to your allergies (triggers). The microenvironment you create for yourself may not help much on windy days at the peak of your allergy season, but it should help at other times. Utilize plants throughout the landscape that do not cause problems for your allergies. If you have allergies to tree pollen, your yard may be sunnier than your neighbors. If grasses cause problems, avoid large expanses of lawn.

Once you know your triggers and have employed all the avoidance strategies you care to, then you can plan your outdoor activities accordingly. The American Academy of Allergy and Immunology ("United States Pollen Calendar," 611 E. Wells St., Milwaukee, WI 53202; 800-822-ASMA (2762)) offers a calendar indicating the average bloom period of many plants. Your doctor can help in this area as well. Knowing when your particular allergies are likely to flare up can help you plan major garden projects.

Pollen counts from the previous day are often published in local newspapers. Pollen forecasts are commonly given with the weather report. Both counts reflect conditions at particular sampling points, so individual situations may differ somewhat. Some people's allergies are worse in the morning, others in the afternoon and evening. Wind, humidity, and cloudy conditions all play a role in allergic responses as well. If you do venture out during times of high pollen counts, a small mesh face mask might help as will goggles and a head scarf. Showering immediately after prolonged exposure and changing into clean clothing is also helpful. If allergies are a part of your life, following some of the above suggestions may help you enjoy the gardening season and the outdoors a little more comfortably.

The last issue of the Talon Tidbits listed this years High School baseball Rooster; I left out a player from that list Number 4 Mac Jones. Starting this issue we have added a new item to our column Homegrown player of the week. Since we only have 2 issues a month 2 players will be highlighted each month. Players are chosen based on teamwork, sportsmanship and community and spirit. If you would like to nominate a student for player of the week please email me at Natvny@chaoswebdesign.com with players name and contact information, and why you think they deserve to be our player of the week.

Homegrown Player of the Week

Our first homegrown player is Mac Jones; number 4 on the Eagleville baseball team and the first baseman. Mac is the 17 years old son of Jerry and Joyce Jones of Eagleville. Born and raised in Eagleville Mac is the grandson of Gordon and Mary Alice Lamb, and Charles Mac and Betty Jones. Mac has been playing baseball since he was 4 years old in the county leagues; baseball has always been his first love. Mac is a junior over at Eagleville high School, where as an honor roll student carries a 3.97 GPA.

I asked what his plans for the future were, and he told us that he plans to attend Tennessee Tech in Cookeville, and become a wildlife Biologist. His mother Joyce stated that he has a special gift with animals "she remembers a time when he got a hummingbird and Dove to land in his hand". Besides baseball Mac has other hobbies, he enjoys hunting, fishing as well as aquariums. His love of Church, family and his community are some of the reasons that we choose him to be our homegrown player of the week. When speaking to his parents Jerry and Joyce you get a sense of just how proud they are of all of his accomplishments.

Lucas Thompson and Sam Travis (Rockvale Ruritan Treasure)

We would like to thank everyone in the Rockvale and Eagleville communities for their support in our FAMILY owned business for nearly four years now. Last Spring we made a commitment on a flyer that was sent to every home in the local area stating that we would contribute $5 to either the Rockvale Ruritan or the Eagleville Lions Club for every card that was responded to for a Spring Maintenance. Each donation was then given to these long standing civic clubs by the customers choosing. After they had been tallied we went even further to make sure that the gifts to each club would be equal by further adding to the pot. Shown are the pictures from the events in which we were able to give back to the communities because of our customers response to the call. Because of that response we were able to give a total of $400 combined to the two clubs. Thanks to those who participated in this program on behalf of Thompson Services Unlimited Inc., Rockvale Ruritan and Eagleville Lions Club. Below is a cutout to continue this kind of local giving to the club of your choosing or you may take $5 off of your own Spring Maintenance.

Don't let the cold weather fool you. The heat will be here before you know it. Be prepared and be efficient. Give up a call.

Margaret's Helpful Hints

You won't waste syrup or honey if you first dip your measuring cup in flour. Sticky mixtures will slide out easily and completely.

If your wicker furniture is a little wobbly, wash it outdoors with hot soapy water. Rinse and let air dry. The wood and canes will shrink and tighten. Saggy seats also will tighten if treated with hot water. Vinegar can be added to the water for a freshening effect.

Concrete that has black coloration from weather is usually molded. Spray bleach water on the concrete. Use about 1 part bleach to 3 parts water. Brush in and let set. Then wash off.

David B. Turner
Candidate for Mayor

Candidate For Mayor

- 1979—Moved to Eagleville from Nashville with parents, Virginia A. Turner and the late Douglas Turner, for a better way of life.
- 1982—Graduated Eagleville High, Senior Class President
- Attended MTSU and Nashville Technical Institute
- Age 42

Meet the Candidate

Friday, April 14th—5:00-8:00 pm
Eagleville Community Center

- Healthcare Professional—24 years management and operations experience
- Vice President of Southeast Region—$3 million operation
- Director of Operations—$1 million operation
- Biomedical and Operations Manager—$4 million operation
- Affiliate Real Estate Broker License (not active)

Our State Rep. Curt Cobb (D) Shelbyville and David B. Turner.
"I have been blessed to know and work with Curt Cobb on a professional and personal basis since 1992."

David B. Turner with Dorene Bolze and John McFadden of Harpeth River Watershed Association during a recent meeting at Eagleville Community Center, highlighting "Improving Water Quality".

- Maximize/enhance police coverage and enforcement. Evaluate police staffing needs and equipment, some equipment is 12 years old and operates intermittently.
- Seek out and secure cost effective/environmentally friendly solution(s) to our almost 50% septic system failure rate. Repair/replace leaking City Hall septic holding tank that has to be pumped frequently. As a result, City Hall's restroom is frequently "out of order".
- Evaluate fire equipment and training for personnel. The city owned fire pumper/tanker is nonfunctional, which sits beside City Hall.
- Evaluate exterior appearance of City Hall. This is a direct reflection of our city, its leadership and affects community pride. Soap, water, and a little paint are very cost effective ways of greatly improving its appearance.
- I sincerely appreciate our police, fire, EMS and so many other nice people that make Eagleville a great place to live and work.

Your Vote on April 18th will be sincerely appreciated!
