A NEW CITY PARK

The city of Eagleville is finally getting a city park! Feedback from concerned citizens regarding the desire for a community park with ball fields, a playground, and pavilion with restrooms led to the appointment of the Eagleville Beautification/Parks and Recreation/Historical Committee. Approximately three months ago this committee embarked upon a mission to locate an acceptable location for this park. After visiting neighboring communities and attending park and recreational meetings, the committee was eager to begin work toward our goal. Our data revealed that the majority of these parks were in low lying flood zones. Analysis of properties owned by the city of Eagleville revealed thirteen undeveloped acres of land in the old industrial park, located off 41-A South behind Tru-line Tool and Manufacture. The committee solicited the city for this parcel of land and after three-month discussion, this acreage has been relinquished for the new Eagleville City Park.

Volunteers are urged to assist

EAGLEVILLE TIMES

Our fine town will now have a monthly newspaper. Though Eagleville is a small town, the residents do have much to say and need to be heard. A monthly newspaper is a great way for our citizens to find out about local events, meetings of the city and plans for the future of our town.

CHAMPIONS RUN GOLF COURSE

Champions Run located at 14264 Mt. Pleasant Road in Rockvale is a C. Stuart Moore designed course that was started in 2001 and opened in October of 2002. CSM design is best noted for its other designs like The Prim in Payson, Arizona; Coyote Creek, in East Tucson; Los Alamos in the resort village of Pucon in the lake district of Chile. All championship courses with unique layouts to challenge the championship player or the beginner. Champions Run offers the same opportunity for the novice player to those who like a greater challenge from its championship tees. Champions Run is located just 10 minutes from Eagleville. The course offers a challenging 6,900-yard layout from the championship tees. Its picturesque holes feature some sixteen bunkers and numerous water hazards to make your

It's also a good way for opinions to get voiced and for our citizens to get involved. Cost of each paper is only fifty cents. The paper can be mailed to you each month or you can pick up a copy at one of the following establishments: Henry & Al's Grocery, Beauty Shack or Sandy's Market in Eagleville; Family Market in Rockvale. Please support our paper by providing the publisher with news that you feel would be suitable and interesting for our town. For information on subscribing to the Eagleville Times, see ad on page 3.

You only have to drive down highway 99 toward Murfreesboro to realize that something big is happening at Eagleville School. Machines are grading a field, bringing in dirt, lights are installed and a concession stand building is near completion. Yes, it is the beginnings of a football field and the continuing of a football program at Eagleville High School and Middle School. Building on the 2002 strong record of 9 wins and 2 losses, Eagleville will play a regular season schedule this year, competing for a birth in the playoffs and working towards a state championship. Although the team lost a number of key players through graduation, team members this year are stepping up to the challenge. Spring practice, a weight lifting and conditioning program, and summer practice will help these players make a strong showing at camp scheduled for late July at Sewanee. Scrimmages are planned for August and the Jamboree official opening of the season is scheduled for August 16, 2003 at Forrest, Chapel Hill. The Season opens at Jo Byrns on August 22 and the team plays at Moore County on the 29th. The first home game is September 5, 2003 against Forrest at 7:00 pm. Eagle fans lets support our teams.

The Eagles Nest, football booster club supports both the middle and high school teams. Join us for a Sunday Dinner at the school on Sunday, August 17. All the proceeds benefit the football programs. Watch for Eagleville Fan Wear and Merchandise to be on sale and other special events to be scheduled this season.

golfing experience a special round to remember.

Champions Run is a full service facility that can accommodate your every need whether it's the driving range, lessons from our teaching pros, food and beverage bar, or our pro shop. It even has the capabilities of handling wedding receptions or that special party that may be in the planning stages.

Champions Run is "a golf for everyone facility!" Pricing which includes golf carts range from $23 plus tax on Monday through Thursday to $27 for Friday, Saturday and Sunday. There is also special senior and twilight rates to meet your budget.

The course which is owned by Kirk Triplett (current PGA touring professional and the 47th ranked player in the world, Steve Graham, who serves as Director of Golf at Champions Run, Ron Graham, and Craig Sewell, President of Southeaster Turf Company wants to serve the surrounding communities with individual play, corporate outings, or special golfing events to assist charitable organizations with raising necessary funds to pursue their causes.

"We at Champions Run want to be community-minded and serve this area with a quality golf experience at very affordable pricing," stated Steve Graham, "this was best demonstrated by our first annual Middle Tennessee Golf Fair on Saturday, June 23rd when more than 110 players and some 250 plus people enjoyed a day of fun and entertainment while we generated funds to support the Dave Thomas Foundation, Eagleville High School Athletics and Tennessee Junior Golf.

with many tasks. Donations for building materials, supplies, and equipment are requested. An account for monetary donations has been established through the City Hall. Memorial donations will be accepted for this project. For questions regarding donations, contact Chairwoman Gloria Hill at 615-274-6044.

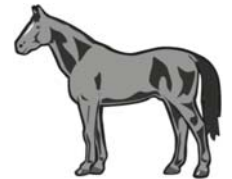

Other committee projects underdevelopment are; new "Welcome to Eagleville" signs, new lamp post lighting for the historical section of Eagleville, annual events such as parades and arts and crafts fairs. Submission of grant applications to fund community projects will be an ongoing effort by this committee. The Eagleville Beautification/Parks and Recreation/Historical Committee sincerely request your assistance and support in making our city park become a reality. This will truly become a community which can be used and enjoyed by all ages and something of which the City of Eagleville can be proud.

Summer Gardening

Gardening & Farming

It's hard to believe that we are finally in the hot season -the time of year when the weeds won't stop and we have to keep everything watered. Here are some tips to keep your garden beautiful: When watering, consider soaker hoses or some similar system to avoid using an overhead sprinkler. If this is not available there are some other methods you can utilize. First, simply take your water hose and hold it right down at the roots so that you are not wasting water. The water is going right where it is needed without evaporating. Make sure the water is a slow trickle. This takes longer but is more effective and also reduces the chance of disease. Second, you can take a 2-liter bottle, cut the bottom off, turn it upside down and bury the spout next to a plant. Fill it up with water and the water will slowly soak into the soil right by the roots. And, of course, water in the morning so the plant is not sitting wet overnight. This also reduces the chances of diseases. Consider putting a 2" layer of mulch on your garden beds. This not only helps the soil retain moisture but it helps prevent weeds - and it looks pretty! If you are growing vegetables, keep up with your harvesting. If you let things go to seed your production will slow down or even quit. For your flowers, keep them deadheaded (removing the spent flowers) this will allow the plant to put its energy into producing more flowers rather than seed and will look beautiful for a long time! Most of all, enjoy your garden!

Margaret's Helpful Hints

Use baking soda on a damp sponge to clean sinks, counters, microwaves, pots and pans silverware, food containers, counters, tubs, tiles, toilets, and more. It doesn't scratch. It cuts grease. It removes soap scum. If you accidentally over-salt a dish while it's still cooking, drop in a potato slice.

Tired of buying those expensive dryer sheets? I've got a solution. Find a container such as a plastic bowl with a lid. Place 1 or 2 regular kitchen sponges into the container and add one part liquid fabric softener to one part water. Keep this mixture near your dryer. Each time you dry a load of clothes, simply wring the sponge out lightly and toss into the dryer. This sponge will act as those expensive dryer sheets.

When preparing your summer fruit trays, add a special touch to your bunch of grapes by emerging them in water and then rolling the bunch in grape flavored Jello powder. This will give your grapes a beautiful frosted look and they taste scrumptious.

If you would like to submit a favorite recipe to share with the community, mail your recipe to: Eagleville Times Attn: Favorite Recipe P.O. Box 72 Eagleville, TN 37060 Or, send your e-mail to: times@eaglevilletn.com If your recipe doesn't appear in the next issue, check future issues.

FROSTIN SALAD

2 small pkgs lemon Jello
2 cups boiling water
2 cups 7-Up
1 20 oz. can pineapple (drained)
1 cup small marshmallows
Drain pineapple (save the juice). Dissolve Jello in boiling water, add other ingredients. Pour into a dish and place in the refrigerator to congeal. Top with topping.
TOPPING
2 T flour
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup of pineapple juice
1 egg
Mix and cook until thick, stirring to prevent from sticking. Cool. Add 1-8 oz. tub of Cool Whip. Mix well, spread on top of congealed salad.
This is a good salad for summer.

JANE SHELTON

CHICKEN CASSEROLE

6 chicken breast, boned & diced
3/4 cup celery, chopped
Dash of lemon juice
1-teaspoon onion, chopped
1 egg, boiled & grated
Mix well and combine with:
1 can cream of chicken soup
3/4 cup mayonnaise
Mix with chicken and pour into casserole. Put cracker crumbs on top. Bake uncovered for 40 minutes. Serve with green vegetable salad and hot rolls.

GORDON & MARY ALICE LAMB

Eagleville Community is special in many respects and mostly for the people. And when you think of special people in Eagleville, Gordon and Mary Alice Lamb immediately come to mind. They have lived in Eagleville for 52 years, raised 5 children and spoiled twice as many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb specialize in service, service to the community, the church, the school and civic organizations. Mr. Lamb is a solid member of the Lions Club, Eagleville chapter and without him and Mrs. Mary Alice there would not be a Walking Horse Show each June to raise money for the programs the Lions Club supports. Not only do they organize a great deal of the show they make homemade ice cream to sell, work in the concession stand frying country ham, and successfully recruit volunteers to help as well. This past June saw one of the most successful horseshows in recent years with record number of spectators and participants.

Twice each year Mr. Gordon and Mrs. Mary Alice spearhead the Chittlin suppers held to benefit the Library and Community Center. Long before there was a library or community center, their efforts along with others in the community began the task of raising money to build what many of us use for family reunions, club meetings, weddings and receptions, worship services, and scout meetings. The funds raised at the Chittlin suppers keep the building in good condition and support the library. These suppers are well attended by local folk as well as by people from the greater Middle Tennessee area.

Mr. Gordon and Mrs. Mary Alice have been recognized for their support of Eagleville School. When a portion of the school burned, they worked with the church and school to provide parking for students and teachers. They are present at all the sporting events, attended PTO meetings, and have been recognized by the FFA organization and the Eagleville Alumni.

Mr. Gordon and Mrs. Mary Alice are long time members of the Eagleville United Methodist Church where they have served and continue to serve in various capacities such as Sunday school teacher, church committees, church trustee, and membership chair. Every year they provide a picnic lunch to the children and staff of the vacation bible school. They attend weekly service, sitting in the same pew each Sunday, only missing due to illness. Through their efforts, the role of the Eagleville

United Methodist Church in the community is strong and the ministries of the church are effective.

Whenever there is a need in the community for food, clothing, money for diapers, or for a benefit for a family who has suffered a tragedy, Mrs. Mary Alice and Gordon respond with the resources maintained at the Community Chest and often with resource from their own pantry, freezer or garden. They have a strong commitment to community and strong compassion for people.

Mr. Gordon and Mrs. Mary Alice are strong supporters of family, and thankfully that family extends to all of us. Papa is never without a piece of candy and a hug to share and Granny is "granny" to most of the children at the church, school gym, and ball field. This community is stronger for the special gift of their presence that Mrs. Mary Alice and Mr. Gordon share with us each day.

Lamb and Turner

Leslie Suzanne Lamb and Chris Turner were married at 6:00 p.m. on July 12, 2003, at Eagleville United Methodist Church in Eagleville. The Rev. Frank Blair performed the ceremony. The reception was held at Champions Run Golf Course.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Lamb of Eagleville. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lamb and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pruitt of Nashville.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Miller of Shelbyville, TN. He is the grandson of Mr. Thomas Sanders of Shelbyville, TN.

The maid of honor was Deanna Lamb of Eagleville, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Amanda Johnson and Jennifer Lamb of Eagleville; and Lee Cormier of Chapel Hill.

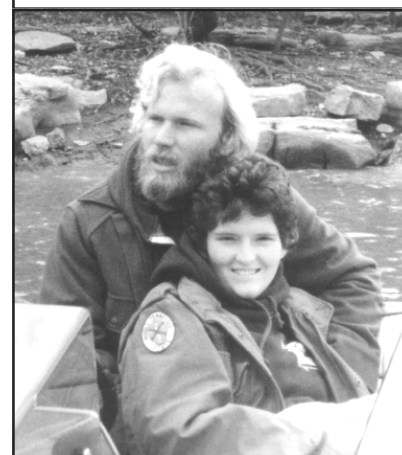

Best man was Jason Glascoe, of Alabama, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Matt Powers and Josh Graham of Shelbyville; and Dustin Lamb of Eagleville.

Flower girl was Courtney Marlin of Eagleville and ring bearer was Boone Sweeney of Chapel Hill.

After a honeymoon in Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple will reside in Eagleville.

Can you identify this couple from 1979?

Dressing Up the Town for the 4th of July

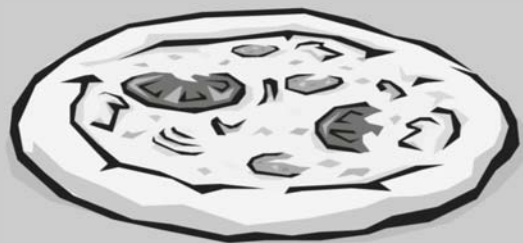

Gloria Hill, Chairwoman of the Eagleville Beautification\Parks & Recreation\Historical Committee recently had a gathering in her home to make bows for the 4th of July celebration of Independence Day. Melissa Buchanan, Janie Zumbro, member of the committee, Kim Daehr and Gloria spent a fun evening making approximately eighty bows which were displayed around town. Gloria commented that this is just a small beginning of what's in store for the town. She has lots of ideas and is expressively doing her best to motivate all around her to donate time and ideas on what can be done to beautify our small town.

City Ordinances: One of the most important responsibilities of the City Council for the Town of Eagleville is the drafting and institution of ordinances. An ordinance is a law requiring or restricting certain behavior of the citizens and others located within the corporate limits of Eagleville. During the fifty plus year history of the Town of Eagleville, numerous ordinances have been passed by the City Council governing everything from the speed limits on our roadways to the requirement of a building permit for the construction of buildings. While the ordinances are, for the most part, well known to the City Council and other town officials, there has never been a comprehensive collection of the town's laws.

For the past several months town officials have been collecting and reviewing all evidence of ordinances passed by the current and previous councils. The council is currently editing, amending and supplementing the amount ordinances and organizing the same into a single municipal code. The code will contain every current ordinance governing the town and will provide citizens and town officials with a single, organized and indexed source for our laws.

A final draft of the proposed new code is expected to be available for citizen review at the public library and on the internet at www.eaglevilletn.com sometime in July. A public hearing on the proposed code is expected to be held at the regular council meeting in August or September of this year. The exact date and time of the public hearing will be advertised in the Daily News Journal, the Eagleville Times and on the town's website, at least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing. Passage of the code will require three (3) readings and an affirmative majority vote of the council at each reading.

EAGLEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS REUNION

"CLASS OF 1960"

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

The 1960 graduation class held their class reunion July 19th at the Eagleville Community Center. Present were 17 of the 21 class graduates. Also present was Louise Manier, wife of Harold, Elaine Redmond, wife of Herbert, Linda Johnson, wife of Clarence, Joe Riggan, husband of Polly, Don Hendrix, husband of Jeannie, Alvin Sledge, husband of Lynda. There were also other school friends who came by and visited with their classmates. These included Barbara Chick War-law, Billy Joe Snell, John Redmond, Freeland and Sarah Maupin, and Nona Taylor Stacey's mother, Josephine, her aunt Betty and sister Cathey. This was the second time this class has gotten together since graduation 43 years ago. The afternoon was spent catching upon each one's family and recounting the good old school days. A delicious meal was catered by Kristy Shelton Bolin and Cheryl Daugherty of Murfreesboro.

U.S. Marine Lance CPL Brad Robinson returned home for a visit for the first time since he left in February 2003. He and his family were stationed at Camp Pendleton in Ocean Side, California.

LCPL Robinson, son of Gloria Hill, stepson of Ronnie Hill and brother of Brandi Robinson of Eagleville was shipped to Kuwait and deployed to Iraq.

A homecoming celebration of family and friends was held at the Hill's home on Sunday, July 12. Guest were there to greet Brad with his wife Kim and sons Tyler and Kasyn on their arrival.

LCPL Robinson has now returned back to Camp Pendleton where he will soon start Special Operations training.

FUND FOR FIREFIGHTERS

Ralph and Janice Marshall, local Eagleville residents, have worked as volunteers for the Eagleville Volunteer Fire Department for the past four years.

A couple of weeks ago, as Janice was preparing dinner for Ralph, an emergency call came into their home for them to respond to a fire. The fire was in a small barn located on Rocky Glade Road. The Marshalls responded and were able to extinguish the barn fire with minimal damage.

As Janice and Ralph were enroute back to their home, Janice began to worry that she may have left the stove on where she earlier had started to prepare fried potatoes. She immediately phoned her brother Bobby and requested that he go to the house to check to see if she may have left the stove on. Bobby found that not only did Janice leave the stove on but by the time he arrived the kitchen was in flames. Bobby then ran next door to his mother's residence to call 911. Ralph and Janice were able to get to the fire before it totally spread throughout the house, although the kitchen and the living room had been completely damaged.

The Marshalls did not have insurance. An account has been opened at Union Planters Bank, through the end of August, for anyone who would like to make donations.

Does this sound familiar? "Little Tommy, in the 3rd grade, is falling behind at school. He seems to understand the subject matter when we go over it, claims Mom. But he takes so long to get his work done that he gets points marked off. The school checked his eyes and they said everything was all right." If you are a parent, grandparent, or teacher chances are you have experienced this or have heard someone utter a similar statement. Vision problems can drastically slow a child down with schoolwork. "But the school eye test said he was O.K.," says Mom. Unfortunately, the vision screening performed in schools will detect some problems, not all. Many small amounts of hyperopia (farsightedness) and astigmatism can be overlooked without a comprehensive eye examination by an Optometrist.

Many times a child will present in the office with very few visual complaints. Let us not forget that young children cannot always tell Mom, Dad or the teacher what the specific problem is. They may not have experienced enough good focusing or good vision to know the difference between poor vision and good vision. Simply put, a child does not recognize that he/she is having trouble focusing on the pages of the book at hand. These kids would rather be out on the playground or doing more hands on tasks in the classroom. They will avoid anything visually stressing to reduce frustration.

Of course many children do complain of headaches and poor vision. Anytime this is the case, the child should be examined in an eye doctor's office as soon as possible. The health of the eyes is also a concern and should never be overlooked. A thorough eye examination will insure that the eyes are healthy and performing together. It could be that a simple eye glass prescription will tremendously improve the child's performance at school.

Don't get a false sense of security when a child successfully reads the eye chart for the screening at school or at the pediatrician's office, then please schedule one very soon. Numerous conditions can go undetected, and if are left untreated for too long, serious problems can occur that could have been avoided.
