Eagleville Times Celebrates Two Year Anniversary

A great deal of hard work brings Eagleville Times to its two year birthday with the August 2005 edition. The paper has expanded in every way... increased pages, increased advertising and increased circulation now reaching 25 states, Canada and England. But Eagleville Times still means community to those who read the paper and for those who contribute to the monthly issues. A great deal of work and considerable time is spent bringing freshness to each issue and maintaining continuity from one issue to the next. There are many in the community and students at the school who have enjoyed stretching their creative pens to capture stories and bring them to the reading public. The paper has highlighted photographs from many of our community photographers.

Each month, Eagleville Times reports various community events, honors an Individual of the Month, steps back in time to look at past community schools and gives ample room to cover school related news. And just like the community, the paper is not the effort of a single person. The paper benefits from many contributors who enjoy bringing stories to everyone who reads the paper, stretching their writing skills, and highlighting events which celebrate the community. And contributing is easy... just email to news@eaglevilletimes.com or drop in the box at the front door of the Eagleville Times office.

Reading about the Tractor Show, the Lion's Club Horseshow, individuals in the community, Christmas Parade, activities by local scouts and events at the school keep people linked to their community even if they live far away. Thanks to those who work hard to get the paper out each month. Bobbie Sue Shelton, Jane Shelton, Margaret Ryan, Courtney Simon, Trish Hayes, Deborah Lamb. Especially thanks to all of the businesses that have supported the paper from day one. Readers enjoy articles about people and events from the present and the past which have shaped this area of middle Tennessee. The paper receives cards and letters twice each month from someone local or from those far away, thanking Debbie for starting the paper, expressing how much they love it. Debbie says that "If I ever think of throwing in the towel these words always get me motivated again." Writing about those events, past and present, make the paper what it is ... The Eagleville Times ... a community newspaper.

Summer Fun...Summer Heat...Back To School

Summer is characterized by days that seem to never end as daylight stretches past 8:00 p.m. and schedules accommodate a different pace. For many of us, the summer months bring back memories of childhood—wading in creeks, catching lightening bugs, swimming, and frozen desserts guaranteed to cool you down on hot, humid afternoons. And even though much in our world has changed, much stays the same as our children enjoy simple summer fun. Since June, area churches in the Eagleville/ Rockvale/ Triune area have provided Vacation Bible School for children and adults. Crafts, skits, games, songs, and stories teach participants Bible stories and Christian beliefs in this well established tradition. Many children took advantage of a week of free swimming lessons at Henry Horton State Park in June. Cooling off in backyard pools has given them a place to practice their newly learned skills. Children have also kept busy visiting the library and participating in the Summer Reading Program offered there. Many of the children enjoyed an appearance by Channel 4's Snowbird who signed autographs, posed for photographs and encouraged the children to continue to read. Family vacations are always a Summer highlight as families travel to Florida to enjoy the white beaches there, or to state parks for hiking and camping, to the eastern part of the state for a vacation in the cooler mountains of the "Smokies" or to visit family members where siblings, cousins, aunts and uncles enjoy "catching up" on all the family news. Some children enjoy being the "host" family as relatives from out-of-state travel to middle Tennessee for reunions. Alas, the dog days of summer are upon us...and right around the corner... it is those words that parents love to hear and children are not quite sure about...

THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL....

This year again, Rutherford County has set its calendar to begin the school year in mid-August. The first day of school is Thursday August 11 and is an abbreviated day. Faculty will be busy with staff development on the 8th and 9th with a Freshman Orientation scheduled for the 9th as well. Staff will also be working on Wednesday the 10th and Friday the 12th. School in full begins on Monday, August 15, at 7:45. And as the academic calendar is busy so is the sports calendar. The Golf Team has matches on the 12th, 16th, 17th, 19th, 23rd, 24th and 26th. The Volleyball team is also busy in August with matches the 23rd, home matches on the 25th and 26th, and a tournament in Smyrna the 27th and 28th. The Varsity Football team has its Season Opener on Friday the 20th against Jo Byrns and plays Moore County at home on the 27th. The Middle School Football team plays at Moore County on the 18th and has its first home game on the 25th against Cornersville. So enjoy those last days of summer...

College Scholarship Awarded By Philip Morris USA

Dustin Lamb, of Eagleville, Tennessee has been awarded an academic scholarship through Philip Morris USA's Tobacco Farmer Partnering Program (TEPP). The scholarship award is renewable for as many as five years, provided Lamb meets academic and eligibility requirements of the program.

Lamb, who is a graduate of Eagleville High School, plans to attend Middle Tennessee State University to study pre-veterinary medicine. He was selected among more than 240 applicants and is being recognized for his academic achievements, character and leadership skills.

"About 80 percent of the tobacco we buy is grown in the United States so these tobacco growers are an important part of our business," said Jeanette Hubbard, vice president of Leaf for Philip Morris USA. "Our scholarship program allows us to recognize an individual that is an outstanding student citizen and we are pleased to support Dustin and his family as he continues his college career."

The Philip Morris USA scholarships are available to dependents of tobacco farmers who have current tobacco agreements with the company. Lamb is one of five scholarship recipients from Tennessee. Philip Morris gave similar scholarships to 52 students from other states across the southeastern U.S. Since Philip Morris began the program in 2000, more than $1 million has been awarded to recognize the accomplishments of the children of its tobacco farmer partners.

Students who plan to attend college or vocational/technical schools, or who are currently enrolled in college, can apply for scholarships. Recipients can receive as much as $4,000 per year for undergraduate scholarships and $2,000 a year for vocational/technical scholarships. As an addition to the program, this year Philip Morris is offering scholarships to students planning to continue their education in graduate school. Scholarships are renewed annually provided the students meet academic and eligibility requirements.

Philip Morris USA is an operating company of Altria Group, Inc. For more information about Philip Morris USA, our products, programs and positions on tobacco related issues, please visit us at www.philipmorrisusa.com.

Birth Announcements

I MAY WALK A LITTLE SLOWER

Yes, I may walk a little slower
and old they may call me,
But I look a little longer
at each dawn that breaks for me,
I hear a little better
all the sounds a day can hold,
I love a whole lot stronger
all the worldly births I see unfold.

I see a little clearer
what the world holds for me,
I feel a whole lot deeper
for another's misery,
I dream a lot more often
of the days that long have past,
I acknowledge precious times that ticks away so fast.

I hold a great deal tighter to loving friends' embraces,
And oh, how I cherish laughing children with life's smudges on their faces,
Yes, I may be a little slower
and old they may call me,
But do you know, I see, I hear, and I love much better than that young girl I used to be.

Because Jesus walks with me
every where I go,
And helps me with the trials of my life.

Our 5th and 6th graders learn memory verses, answer Bible questions, bring their Bible, bring a friend, by doing all of these things, they earn points, these points are used at our auction on the last day of VBS (Friday). This enables the students to learn more about God with the businesses contributions. A BIG THANK YOU!!! to Eagles Nest, Eagleville Drug Store and the Farmers Co-op.

Eagleville Resident, Wayne Neal Scores First Hole-in-One

Neal just moments after his hole-in-one on #17, Indian Bayou Golf

Eagleville resident, Wayne Neal while vacation in Destin, Florida scored his first hole-in-one since taking up the game in 1963. Neal, an avid golfer who reports playing more than 50 rounds of golf a year, was enjoying a day on the challenging Creek Course at Indian Bayou Golf Club on Friday, 25 June 2005 when he experienced the all to rare event.

Witnessed by his son Shane Neal of Nashville, Neal's success came on the 17th hold, a 145 yard par three with a slightly elevated, gentle sloping green. Hitting a crisply struck 7 iron the masterful shot landed on the left portion of the green short of the flag, caught a favorable bounce putting the ball on track for a pin striking hole-in-one.

By Neal's own estimates he has played thousands of par 3 holes in his golfing life, coming close only a time or two. Commenting on his stroke of luck Neal said "I always felt I'd have one!" He completed the round shooting a respectable 81 for the day.

Neal approaching the green to retrieve his ball resting safely in the hole.

FROM THE WIDE WORLD WEB - WWW

For those of you that don't have internet email, you tend to miss out on some pretty good statistics or jokes that get passed around the internet. For you, I decided each month to share some of this interesting fun.

 Intended for fun only. No guarantees to authenticity.*

Advice:

- Your fences need to be horse-high, pig-tight and bull-strong.
- Life ain't about how fast you run, or how high you climb, but how well you bounce.
- Keep skunks and bankers and shyster lawyers at a distance.
- Life is simpler when you plow around the stump.
- A bumble bee is considerably faster than a John Deere tractor.
- Words that soak into your ears are whispered...not yelled.
- Meanness don't jes' happen overnight.
- Forgive your enemies. It messes up their heads.
- Do not corner something that you know is meaner than you.
- It don't take a very strong person to carry a grudge.
- You cannot recall mean words or put fired bullets back in a gun.
- Every path has a few puddles.
- When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.
- The best sermons are lived, not preached.
- Most of the stuff people worry about ain't never gonna happen anyway.
- Don't judge folks by their relatives.
- Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.
- Live a good, honorable life. Then when you get older and think back, you'll enjoy it a second time.
- Don't interfere with somethin' that ain't botherin' you none.
- Timing has a lot to do with the outcome of a rain dance.
- The easiest way to eat crow is while it's still warm, 'cause the colder it gets, the harder it is to swallow.
- If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'.
- It don't take a genius to spot a goat in a flock of sheep.
- Sometimes you get, and sometimes you get got. Somedays the pup, some days the fire hydrant.
- The biggest troublemaker you'll probably ever have to deal with, watches you from the mirror every mornin'.
- Always drink upstream from the herd.
- Lettin' the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin' it back in.
- If you get to thinkin' you're a person of some influence, try orderin' somebody else's dog around.
- Live simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly. Leave the rest to God.

Bobby & Betty Ann Crafton

By Charlie Underwood

Bobby Andrews Crafton was born on a cold snowy day in Pulltight, Tennessee on January 24, 1935 to Wallace and Nellie Crafton. He has four sisters; Leo Burns, Ann Reed, Sue Speakman, Fay Adair, and one brother Charles (deceased). Bobby attended Simmons Hill and the College Grove School.

Betty Ann Waters was born August 25, 1935 in Rutherford County near Kirkland, Tennessee to Lenzie and Lurene Waters. She is an only child. Her father died when she was only 5 years old. Betty Ann attended Eagleville School where she excelled in math and basketball.

Bobby and Betty Ann met at Parkers Theater and Restaurant in Eagleville in 1952. Betty Ann says that she thinks "Gone With The Wind" was showing that night. After dating a while (you didn't get in a hurry back then) they got married on November 26, 1955 in Luka, Mississippi. They went to Luka because you didn't have to get a blood test there to get married. They have lived in Eagleville since the beginning of their marriage.

Both worked in Nashville for 37 years traveling back and forth every day. Bobby retired from Nashville Sash and Door and Betty Ann retired for American General. That was a lot of driving and they even bought a Jeep for the slick roads in the wintertime (which is still in mint condition today).

In 1975 they bought Cheatham Springs Farm along with their friends and neighbors, Larry and Alma Hazel. There was some really long days back then working in Nashville and then coming home to work on the farm try to make it successful. Bobby has often said that if it wasn't for the late Mr. Jordan Redmond, they might not have made it. He was a lot of help for Bobby and Larry.

Even though they have retired from public work they continue to operate Cheatham Springs Farms where they raise cattle, goats, donkeys and peacocks. Bobby and Larry cut and bale hay for the public and for their own use. Betty Ann does a lot of needlework, quilting, knitting, embroidery and crochet. Some of her handiwork goes on the auction block at ice cream suppers to raise money for the church.

Since they have retired, Bobby and Betty spend much of their time working in their yard and resting. Just about any afternoon in warm weather, you can find them sitting out under a shade tree waving at people driving by. Bobby is always glad to discuss (or argue) about Nascar or baseball. They also vacation in the Smokies regularly as they have for many years.

John Hyden, pastor of Harpeth Lick Cumberland Presbyterian Church, has this to say about the Craftons. "Bobby and Betty Ann are the 'faithful ones' as my mother called them. They will be the first ones to arrive for all projects and the last to leave. When my father started as pastor of Harpeth Lick Church, Bobby and Betty Ann were some of the first ones to help revive the small rural church. For many years the Craftons were about the only ones you could count on to be at church except for John Redmon, who they brought with them. They also started the annual ice cream supper every first Saturday in June and the many country breakfast. They have given their time, effort, and money to every improvement that has been made throughout the last ten years. There are no words that could possibly describe all that Bobby and Betty Ann have given to Harpeth Lick Cumberland Presbyterian Church. They truly are the faithful ones."

Dedicated to ANGEL

By Cathy Redmond

An Angel came into our lives through Jeannie Hendrix. She had a dog named Angel and that was exactly what she was to all of her family. Angel was part wiener/part lovable. This is the only way to describe her because of her personality to crawl into your heart the way she was able to, without you knowing it. She expressed her feelings through her eyes, those pitiful, loving, melt your heart eyes. All she had to do was look at you and I think that was how she was picked out to be a part of the Hendrix family. Angel went everywhere Jeannie did; out to dinner, shopping, and sometimes to work with Jeannie. Everyone knew Angel. Of course, God calls all Angels home. When God called, Angel went willingly. She left behind the most beloved memories that we carry in our hearts everyday.

If you would like to send in a special tribute in memory of a pet that has passed on, email your submission to: news@eaglevilletimes.com or mail to Eagleville Times, PO Box 72, Eagleville, TN 37060.

The Rainbow Bridge

Just this side of heaven is a place called Rainbow Bridge.

When an animal dies that has been especially close to someone here, that pet goes to Rainbow Bridge.

There are meadows and hills for all of our special friends so they can run and play together.

There is plenty of food, water and sunshine, and our friends are warm and comfortable.

All the animals who had been ill and old are restored to health and vigor; those who were hurt or maimed are made whole and strong again, just as we remember them in our dreams of days and times gone by.

The animals are happy and content, except for one small thing; they each miss someone very special to them, who had to be left behind.

They all run and play together, but the day comes when one suddenly stops and looks into the distance. His bright eyes are intent; His eager body quivers. Suddenly he begins to run from the group, flying over the green grass, his legs carrying him faster and faster.

You have been spotted, and when you and your special friend finally meet, you cling together in joyous reunion, never to be parted again. The happy kisses rain upon your face; your hands again caress the beloved head, and you look once more into the trusting eyes of your pet, so long gone from your life but never absent from your heart.

Then you cross Rainbow Bridge together....

Summer Heat Precautions—During a heat wave the body has to work extra hard to maintain a normal temperature. Excessive heat can result in serious health threats by pushing the human body beyond its limits. Young children, elderly people, and those who are sick or overweight are most at risk.

Measures for Preventing Heat Related Illnesses

- NEVER leave children or pets alone in closed vehicles.
- Slow down, avoid strenuous activity.
- Avoid too much sun.
- Plan outdoor games and activities for early morning or evening.
- Avoid extreme temperature changes.
- Stay indoors as much as possible; use fans or air conditioners to cool the air.
- Wear loose-fitting, lightweight, light-colored clothing that will cover as much skin as possible.
- Protect face and head by wearing a wide brimmed hat.
- Drink plenty of fluids, even if you do not feel thirsty, and avoid alcoholic beverages.

Hot Weather Health Emergencies

Heat cramps: Painful spasms, mostly in legs and abdomen, usually the result of heavy exertion and heavy sweating.

Recognizing Heat Cramps—Painful spasms usually in the legs and abdominal muscles that may occur in association with strenuous activity.

What to do: Apply firm pressure to cramping muscles or gently massage to relieve spasms. Replace fluids. Consult your health care provider.

Heat exhaustion: Typically occurs when people exercise heavily or work in a hot, humid place where body fluids are lost through heavy sweating.

Recognizing Heat Exhaustion—Heavy sweating, weakness, cold, pale and clammy skin. Weak pulse. Fainting and vomiting possible.

What to do: Lie down in a cool place. Loosen clothing. Apply cool wet cloths. Fan or move person to air-conditioned place. Take sips of water. Consult your health care provider.

Heat stroke: A medical emergency- the body's temperature control system, which produces sweating to cool the body, stops working. Sunstroke: Another term for heat stroke.

Recognizing Heat Stroke—High body temperature (106+). Hot, dry skin. Rapid, strong pulse. Possible unconsciousness. Individual will likely not sweat.

What to do: Heat stroke is a severe medical emergency. Call 911 or emergency medical services or get the person to a hospital immediately. Move to a cooler environment. Try a cool bath or sponging to reduce body temperature. Use fans and/or air conditioners, to cool the body. DO NOT GIVE FLUIDS.

Another year has begun and with it a new starting lineup for the Eagleville Football Booster Club. The Booster Club, as you may know, helps to support the Football program at Eagleville High School in numerous ways including but not limited to: pre-game meals, new equipments and equipment maintenance, team transportation, and finding new ways to raise money to support the team.

As we mentioned before, the Eagleville Football Booster Club has a new set of officers. Dan Bingham has taken over the reigns as President of the club while Lisa Jutkofsky has assumed the position as Vice President. Rhonda Gentry has taken on the job as Secretary while Karrie Moss has agreed to co-chair the pre-game meal committee with Ms. Jutkofsky. Last but not least, Sandra Fisher is assuming the role of the new treasurer.

This year, the Booster Club has a number of exciting things in store. Not only do we have some of our normal fundraisers planned but we are also planning some more unconventional ideas as well which thus far have received rave reviews. One such method is our upcoming Silent Auction. Families and Friends of the Football team can bid secretly on a number of special items at the games. Also in the works is a series of professional football style Eagleware, our new line of Eagleville branded merchandise, which may possibly include foam hands, temporary tattoos, ponchos for foul weather games and much more.

Another big project that we are excited about here at the Eagleville Football Booster Club is our Tailgating series. We know that our fans love the game and that they love a good hot meal. Why not get both? For this very reason, we've introduced a series of Tailgating Parties to be held on the football field (safely away from the playing surface of course) before the game starts. In order to get access into the Tailgating party, however, you must be a Season Ticket Holder. Below is a look at our season tickets and their benefits.

Lisa Jutkofsky-Vice President, Karrie Moss-Pre Game Cochairman, Daniel Bingham-President, Rhonda Gentry-Secretary, Marschella Mathis-Vice Treasurer. Sandra Fisher-Treasurer not shown.

Also new this year is a featured item for our Eagleware line, game video. These videos will be sold in DVD and VHS format and are being filmed by Mr. True of True's Video.

We are also planning to sell chilled bottled water as well as a few select Eagleware items at the upcoming Tractor Pull. For more information about anything you've read, including menus for our tailgating series or information on our other fundraising please come visit our website at www.eaglevillebooster.com. Feel free to view our calendar of events as well as register for our forums. Log in and enjoy the new content.

A Step Back in Time

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

Mr. Bill Lowe as a young man.

The Eagleville Community was very fortunate to have been home to three businessmen whose combined years of employment added up to approximately 201 years. All three men entered into Eagleville businesses and continued to work until they were in their 90's. Articles on Mr. Green Hay and Dr. Leslie Williams have been featured in previous editions of the Eagleville Times.

Mr. William Thomas "Bill" Lowe our third remarkable Eagleville businessman was born October 10, 1874. His parents were Leonard Keeling Lowe, a native of Wilson County, Tennessee and Sophie Parlee Williams Lowe, daughter of Chesley and Sally Allison Williams of Eagleville. Mr. Bill was one of 10 children who grew up approximately three miles north of Eagleville. He and his brother, George, married sisters and were the only children of Leonard K. and Sophie Lowe that spent their lifetime in Eagleville.

On November 7, 1892 Mr. Bill went to work for his uncle, James Chesley Williams in the Williams Dry Goods Store. During this time he was also a registered pharmacist. It is believed that Mr. Bill graduated from the University of Nashville Medical School in 1905. Tennessee did not formally license doctors until 1914. Many physicians/pharmacist interned with experienced doctors, attended a course or two at the university and then practiced medicine without a diploma, maybe completing their degree years later.

On December 25, 1900 he married Clara Jackson, daughter of Robert N. "Boat" and Emma Lee Dawson Jackson. She was the schoolteacher at Concord at the time of their marriage. Their home, which they purchased in 1900 from his uncle, Robert Edward Williams, was on the south end of Eagleville, first house past Eagleville Florist. Mr. Bill and his wife Clara had 3 children, William Robert "Bob", Helen and Clarence J. who was born May 18, 1907. Seven days after the birth of Clarence, Clara Lowe died at the age of 31. She is buried in the Jackson Cemetery. After her death, Mr. Tip and Laura McCord helped Mr. Bill by taking the baby, Clarence to live with them but unfortunately he died in November 1909 and is buried near his mother. Other family members helped with the care of the other children.

William Robert "Bob" born in 1901 and died in 1996 married Nan McRae, daughter of Samuel Pleasant and Eugenia McRae and had 4 children: Clara, William Robert Jr. "Spot", Mildred and Clarence J. "Buddy". Nan died in 1954 and is buried in the Evergreen Cemetery in Murfreesboro. Bob married 2nd to Della Bergh who died in 1968.

Helen was born in 1904 and died 1975. She married Leonard Akins and had 2 daughters, Helen Claire and Anna.

Mr. Bill Lowe married November 12, 1912 to Martha Wilford "Mattie" Coleman, daughter of Emily Jane and Wilford E. Coleman of Bedford County. She was born in 1872 and died in 1958 and is buried in the Jenkins Chapel Church Cemetery in Bedford County. No children born to this union. Mrs. Mattie Lowe was a cousin to William Prentice Cooper Jr. who was Governor of Tennessee 1939-1945. Mr. Bill was a deacon in the Eagleville Baptist Church and Mrs. Mattie was a member of the Eagleville Methodist Church.

In 1907 Mr. Bill's banking profession started as an assistant cashier in the Bank of Eagleville. He soon became a cashier, and later president of the bank. In about 1957 he was named chairman of the board and held that position at the time of his death in 1967. Mr. Bill Lowe was a good friend as well as a banker to many people in the Eagleville area. It was well known he made personal loans to those who didn't qualify for a loan through the bank. He was a very punctual employee. It was often said, "you could set your watch by Mr. Lowe going to and from work each day". He continued going to the bank each day until a few weeks before his death.

Long before armor trucks delivered bank money, the Bank of Eagleville money was often delivered by a livestock truck. Dalton Pope, a local livestock dealer often made trips to Nashville transporting livestock to the stockyards. On his way back to Eagleville, he would pick up the bank money, throw the money sack in the back of his truck, where the cows had been and bring it to the bank. If the bank had already closed, he would take the money to Mr. Bill's house.

A memory I have of Mr. Bill is about him driving his car to and from work. He would never change gears traveling between his home and the bank. Needless to say, everyone knew when Mr. Bill was coming through Eagleville.

Mr. Bill also established the W. T. Lowe Auto Parts Co., in Eagleville. The business burned and it was later re-opened in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

Many long-time Eagleville citizens remember William Thomas "Bill" Lowe. Those who knew him automatically connect his name with the Bank of Eagleville. He was a very well known and respected citizen of the Eagleville community. He is buried in the Jordan-Williams Cemetery near Eagleville.

The Bank of Eagleville opened in 1901 and was located in the building north of Dr. Les William's store and in front of Crosslin Supply. Keith Carey and Rick Thurman own the building and major remodeling is presently in progress. According to a 1976 newspaper article, the Bank of Eagleville was the oldest financial institution in Rutherford County. In 1970 the bank was moved to a new building and on September 25th, 1976 the bank celebrated it's 75th anniversary along with an open house for the new expansion of a new conference room, bookkeeping department, additional storage area, expanded perimeter paving, kitchen and decorative retainer wall. In 1976 the officers of the bank were: Marvin Hayes, president and chief executive officer; L. R. Taylor, chairman of

WOMAN STOMPS, BURGLARS SCRAM

Eagleville, Tenn – A little gray haired woman, stomped through her apartment and frightened away burglars working below on the vault of the Bank of Eagleville early yesterday. After her march, calm Miss Pearl Tucker pulled up a chair, sat down and leveled a pistol at her apartment door and waited for the intruders to come get her, if they chose. The unsuccessful burglars went the other way. Police said they left so fast they tore down a door and tossed their tools away. Miss Tucker, who wouldn't give her age, said she was awakened about 2 a.m. by a banging and pounding noise below that actually jarred the building. She first went down the outside stairs to call a neighbor but when she couldn't arouse her, returned upstairs to her apartment and tried her scheme – put on her shoes and walk up and down like mad, and sound like as many men as possible. "I turned on the hall light and then walked hard throughout my apartment", she said. "I hoped they would think I was a man and leave." She was careful not to scream or call out, so as to carry out the illusion she was a man. "Then I got my pistol – I think it is a .38 (caliber) – sat down in a chair, pulled the hammer back and pointed it at the door. I was ready for them if they came." Miss Tucker wasn't able to tell police how many persons might have been downstairs. Sheriff W. Wilson, an agent of the federal investigation would not say if they had any leads. Miss Directors were: Charles Ivey Burns, Davis Carr, H. B. Grader, Marvin Hayes, Edna Ivey, C. W. Puckett, Russell Puckett, W. J. "Justin" Crosslin, Jr. Sam Farris and L. R. Taylor.

In 1983 the Bank of Eagleville was sold to Union Planters Bank of Nashville and this year, 2005, it's ownership was changed to Regions Bank.

The Bank of Eagleville had several robberies and attempted robberies over the years. The following Tucker could tell they were in a hurry. "They really made a noise when they went through the back door, nearly tore the door down," she said. Sheriff Wilson said the burglars entered the building after prying loose a screen outside an unbarred window behind a teller's cage. They attempted to break through the vault door by knocking off a hinge and the combination off the lock, Wilson said. Then they entered a storage room behind the vault and dug through four layers of brick but failed to break through the wall. John G. Wade, cashier said they had to go through two more rows of brick to get inside. There they would have found a large safe next to the wall where they were digging. W. T. Lowe, chairman of the board, said the vault contained $14,295.61 and explained that most of the bank's money was on deposit with a Nashville bank. He said a similar break-in occurred about 40 years ago and the burglars then also failed to get any money. Wilson said he found a sledgehammer near the debris in the storage room at the rear of the vault and a steel punch outside the back door. A burglar's wrecking bar was found two doors up the street between two buildings.

The Ralston Sisters: Faye Hitchcock, Nancy Clower, and Rachel Cowart had an awe-inspiring Irish jaunt to Dublin, Kilarney, and Shannon.

Each summer we sisters take a vacation together to reminisce and count our many blessings. This particular trip was filled with Irish blessings. To mention a few, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Trinity College and Christ Church, the oldest church in Dublin. Our historian/story teller/tour guide gave up play-by-play history lessons and folklore. As we toured the Ring of Kerry, we saw vast countryside and seaside too beautiful for words. The serenity one feels while at the Cliffs of Moher is lingering and magical. It is there that we were drawn to the harp playing and singing of a young Irish lady. We learned that the harp is Ireland's national symbol.

We delighted in a medieval dinner and performance at the Bunratty Castle, which was built in 1425. Next day, we enjoyed our day in Blarney, especially the Blarney Castle and shopping. We merried in lively Irish music and savored Irish coffee.

Rachel's personal favorite was the visit to the sheep farm. The Rathbaum Farm had been in the family for generations. Their cottage was a dream, thatched roof, small rooms with low ceilings and "peat" burning in the fireplace. Mrs. Rathbaum served us a lovely lunch and Mr. Rathbaum sheered a sheep for us. The Australian sheepdog herded the sheep twice for us. Awesome! Rachel thought she was in heaven.

Needless to say, we fell in love with Ireland and long to go back.

Who - N - Where By Jane Perrell Shelton

- June 16 Maureen M. Writesman departed Nashville and traveled to Seattle, WA where she met her mother Lois Keas (who is retired and lives in Florida). They toured Seattle on Friday and on Saturday boarded the Norwegian Spirit for a 7-day cruise to Alaska. Cities visited include: Juneau, Ketchikan, Skagway, and Price Rupert Island, Canada. Weather was a delightful 55 degrees each day!
- Congratulations to teachers Wanda Logue, Patsy Slusher and Belinda Woodson, on their retirement from Eagleville School. When school starts in a few weeks I know they will be missed.
- Michael Shinn spent a week with his Granny, Jane Shelton, while his parents, Renee, Greg and brother Kevin went to Pennsylvania on a Mission Trip.
- Bessie Mosley, Margaret Ryan, Anita Hargrove, Jane Shelton, Shirley & Hillard Crick enjoyed lunch at Horton Park recently. The occasion was Bessie Mosley's 81st birthday.
- Lois Whitaker, daughter Crystal Rodriguez and Lois's sister Joyce Chumbley recently enjoyed a trip to CA. They had three days in the San Francisco area where they took a cruise under the Golden Gate Bridge and around Alcatraz, and enjoyed walks on Lombard Street and Pier 39, riding the cable cars, and drives through Chinatown and the Presidio. Golden Gate Park was especially beautiful with all the flowers and trees of the CA Conservatory and Japanese Tea Garden. They enjoyed a day trip and lunch in the Napa Valley. They then drove through the San Joaquin Valley over the mountains into Los Angeles where they saw the King Tut exhibit at the LACMA and the Brea Tar Pits, and visited relatives in nearby Banning. Upon their advice, because of the extreme heat, plans to see The Joshua Tree were changed but they were able to see smaller ones on the drive through the outer edges of Death Valley into Las Vegas. They then explored many of the "themed" hotels, New York, Paris, Caesars, Bellagio, Venetian, Luxor, Excalibar, etc on the Strip and a drive out to Hoover Dam and Lake Mead. All agree it was a great trip but are glad to be back to the green of TN.
- James & Hazel Rigsby and Bob Lee, Jerry & Yvonne Lowe, Richard & Geri Moffet and Sissy recently vacationed several days in Pigeon Forge. While there, they shopped, went sightseeing and picnicked.

Howard Ghee passing out Snow Kones as fast as he could!

On Sunday, June 26, the annual Russell Reunion was held at the home of Shirley (Russell) and Jack Williams in Eagleville. There were 91 present with the oldest attendee being 96 years old and the youngest was three months old. These included our family along with the families of Dorothy Foster (deceased), Lorene Rigsby, Lucille Moore, Emma Molder and Lula Mae Johnson. Each family had several friends to attend and many of our neighbors were also able to be here. The new additions to our family this year included five marriages and five babies.

The big hit this year was the 'SNOW KONE MACHINE'. The Happy Clown Moonwalk was really enjoyed by the little ones. We had the usual badminton, horse-shoes and swings. Then there were those who just could not seem to be able to move away from the delicious food table.

At the end of a very good day, good-byes were said with the hope that all of us will be able to attend the reunion next year. Let's hope that we will have many more additions and NO subtractions.

Helpful Hints

- Soak bacon in cold water for a minute or two before placing in skillet. This will lessen the tendency to shrink and curl.
- Dip a new broom in hot salt water before using it. This will toughen the bristles and make it last longer.
- Rub scissors with butter to cut up marshmallows.

Seniors Celebrate In The Sun

Several Eagleville 2005 Seniors, along with their parents, celebrated graduation with a Bahamas Cruise. Elaine Shapcott hosted a pre-cruise party to get the group off to a great start. At the end of the cruise, many members of the group went on to Jacksonville. They were joined with more members of the senior class along with their families for more fun on the beach. An after-cruise party was held at the home of Dena Smith.

Cheerleaders Attend Camp

The Eagleville High School Varsity Cheerleading Squad and Coach Kim Armstrong attended camp at Tennessee Tech from July 12-15. During the week the squad learned an extreme routine that they performed on the last day against other varsity squads for camp championships. The day of competition the squad received first place in dance and first place in cheer making them the Camp Champs!! In addition to Camp Champs, the squad came home with eight blue superior ribbons they received through-out the week.

Also, four of our Seniors received All Stars out of approximately 175 girls. With this honor, they each received a UCA (Universal Cheerleading Association) medal and have the opportunity to travel to London in December. The All Stars chosen were Malia Maxwell, Mary Alice Porter, Kayla Baker and Magen Strunk. Along with the above awards, two of our Seniors, Kayla Baker and Malia Maxwell were given applications to try-out for the UCA staff. Out of the 175 girls attending camp only three received applications and two were from our very own Eagleville High School Cheerleading Squad.

A special thanks to our awesome coach, Kim Armstrong. She dedicated her time and talent and made certain we all would succeed. There is not enough positive things that can explain how this squad feels about her.

Coach Armstrong, we love you and will miss you greatly!!!
