EAGLEVILLE 3RD ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARADE

As people lined the streets for the 3rd annual Eagleville Christmas parade to roll through town, anticipation grew not only for a glimpse of Santa, but for this year's grand marshals-Trace Adkins and Family. This star-studded appearance was greatly appreciated by the Eagleville Activities Committee, as both Trace and his family took time out of their busy schedules to show support for our small town. Trace and Family were pulled in a festive red and white carriage by two beautiful Belgian Draft horses owned by Sam Tune of Roadhouse Wagons in Christiana. Trace Adkins' appearance in the parade drew a large crowd, as people poured into the City of Eagleville to usher in the holiday season in a fun and festive environment. While the Christmas parade is a tradition enjoyed by many local residents each year, this year's parade hosted a variety of spectators along the parade route, including some from out of state!

Although other area parades were cancelled-the city of Eagleville managed to pull off its 3rd annual Christmas parade while the rain held off long enough to allow this holiday event to be enjoyed by all.

Community involvement was again greatly displayed, as local businesses, churches, and organizations came out to join in on the fun. This year's parade theme was "Christmas Through a Child's Eyes" and was greatly reflected in many of the parade entries. Winners of this year's awards were: Mt. Vernon Church for the Mayor's Choice Award, Tennessee Valley Pioneer Power Association for Best Themed Float, and the Spirit of Christmas Award was presented to the Eagleville Methodist Church.

A big "thank-you" goes out to everyone who juggles their busy holiday schedules to maintain the Christmas parade as a yearly tradition. Everyone plays an integral part in the success of such an event including all parade participants, volunteers who help with the line-up, the school for use of its facilities, the local police and sheriff's department, and of course, everyone who comes out and bears the cold to stand along the parade route. Join us again next year for this great holiday event the first Saturday in December!

Out With The "OLD, and In With The "NEW"

The only holiday that is observed all around the world is New Year's Day. People feel the need of a new beginning, once a year, regardless of different religious beliefs or racial traditions. It may be the oldest day of special meaning, too, because it stands for a promise of new life.

Traditionally, the change from an "old" year to a "new" year has been the time for "making a fresh start," and for making New Year's resolutions. These aim not only at eliminating our personal faults but also at renewing friendships and settling quarrels.

In the first quarter of this century, many people exchanged New Year's Day visits. It was a time for "open house," with refreshments ready for serving. Nowadays, popular emphasis is placed, more and more, on late-hour New Year's Eve merrymaking.

Happy New Year!

Where in the world did this year go

It seems it passed so fast

But here we are...2006

And 2005 is in the past!

May peace and love fill the earth

May past sorrows fade away

May the New Year bring joy to all

On each and every day.

Happy New Year to everyone

I hope your dreams come true

A heart that's filled with happiness

Is the wish I wish for you

US BANK & CROSSLIN SUPPLY DONATE TO EAGLEVILLE BAND

The Eagleville Band tower is used to give the band director and staff a better perspective of what the half time show looks like as the band members rehearse. It's a vital piece of what is needed to make sure that the show is the best it can be. Without the donation of the lumber by our local Crosslin's Supply company to make the tower, instructors would still be on ground level trying to teach the marching band. The tower was excellently designed and constructed by Eagleville School Band Booster Vice President Steven Hassell. The Crosslin banner will always be proudly displayed as a reminder of their generosity for such an important contribution.

US Bank offered its sponsorship of the band through a donation to the Eagleville School Band Booster Association. With this contribution, the ESBBA was able to provide flag material for the new flags used in this year's (and future) half time show(s) and to also purchase music and supplies needed to restart the Eagleville Jazz Band for this Spring. As a thank you for the US Bank donation, a banner will hang from the band practice tower for one year.

For more information about donations to the band program, please contact the Eagleville School Band Booster Association at 893-5815, ext. 25910.

Mathiesen Brothers Prepare To Serve Their Country

LCpl Timothy S Mathisen is currently on Active Duty status with the United States Marine Corps, temporarily stationed in Richmond VA. He has completed the fall semester at Motlow State with high marks, and plans to return after his tour of duty. Tim spent Christmas at home in Eagleville, then reported to base on his birthday, New Year's Eve. He will undergo desert training in California during January, then travel to Iraq in February for a six month tour. He will likely remain on Active Duty through November. Younger brother Nikolas enlisted in the USMC on his 18th birthday last October 22nd. Eagleville High School's JROTC (he's Cadet Commander for 2005-06) program and the Smyrna Civil Air Patrol (former Cadet Commander) squadron have paved the way for him to serve his country.

Misprint: December's birthday photo shown of Tim Mathisen was actually USMC Sgt DeGroff. We apologize to the family for this misprint.

New Year's Resolutions

The new year is almost here. This is the perfect time to take a look at yourself. Many people enter the new year by making New Year's Resolutions.

A new year is like a clean slate—the opportunity to forget the past and start fresh. Resolutions help you deal with the things that can be changed to improve behavior, performance, and relationships.

As the saying goes, today is the first day of the rest of your life. Why now make the first day of the year the first day of an entirely new you!

The number of resolutions is not important—the idea is to make real changes. If you're serious, less is more when it comes to making resolutions.

If you have a larger goal, break it down into multiple steps and take one at a time. Envision it like a road trip through the year. You can't jump over states on your way to something ahead; take one stop at a time.

How long will you keep your resolutions—a week? A month? Three months? It's easy to make a New Year's Resolution; it's hard to stick to it. To increase your odds of being committed to your resolution, follow these tips:

- Make resolutions that you can attain. Instead of saying you want to lose 20 pounds, resolve to lose 10 pounds by Memorial Day—or two pounds per month. This approach gives you shorter steps to measure toward your ultimate goal.
- Give yourself a reward. A bonus—like permission to buy five new CDs if your grades improve—will keep you focused.
- Let others know. You may be surprised how many of your friends will support and help you in your quest to improve yourself.
- Keep trying. If you stumble along the way, just get back on track. Columbus didn't have smooth sailing to the New World in 1492, and neither will you. New habits and new heights that are difficult to attain bring a greater sense of satisfaction.
- Keep a sense of humor. A resolution is something that should make you a better person, not a grouch. A sense of humor and not taking yourself too seriously will help you maintain a cheerful disposition.

If keeping your resolution sounds like a daunting task, remember, you aren't alone. Millions of people across the nation are making these promises to themselves as well.

YESTERDAY'S BELLS

I hear bells ringing long ago,
Clanging out their music clear and slow.

At sunrise on New Year's Day
Daddy rang the dinner bell to Usher in the happy holiday.
Every thing seemed right and good
For other bells were ringing
Across the neighborhood.

Homey iron bells that called folks home
From fields and woods at meal time
Were ringing, clanging, pealing out
A joyful New Year's rhyme.

Now all the world is singing
As merry as can be
When I remember bells ringing
Long ago, clearly, sweetly.

Eagleville Methodist Puts Christ Into Christmas

On Sunday December 11, the sanctuary at Eagleville United Methodist Church was waiting, waiting to hear again through music and readings the story of the birth of Christ. Promptly at 7:00 p.m. the choir took their place in the choir loft and those of us in the pews listened with anticipation. The story was familiar to all and yet Christmas would not be complete without listening again to the events which happened 2000 years ago.

Through music and narration the story began with the proclamation of God's plan to send His Son to earth to redeem humankind. Mary and Joseph, a couple from Nazareth find themselves without lodging in the town of Bethlehem and spend the night in a stable. There Mary gives birth to the Son of God. Angels announce the event not to the kings and royalty of the day but appear to Shepherds keeping watch over the flocks on the hillside outside of Bethlehem. These men come to worship the child who is the King of Kings, Lord of Lords. Forever is their life changed by this encounter with the Christ child.

The EUMC choir members Jack Orend, Jim Dodson, Lucas Thompson, Don Hendrix, Jeanie Hendrix, Jane Simpson, Suzanne McClaran, Janis Snell, Kathy Shelton, Rita Boyd, Suzanne Goad, Gretchen Thompson, and Mary Annette Rodgers sang familiar Christmas hymns combined in new musical arrangements to tell the timeless story. Sandy Shelton, narrator provided an idea of the thoughts and feelings of the Joseph, Mary and the Shepherds and related again the story of the Savior's birth as told in scripture.

Mac Jones played the part of Joseph and Ashton Vaughn was Mary in the dramatic portrayal. Shepherds played by Gary Reed, Matt Vaughn and Bill Vaughn came to visit the Christ child. With them their sheep, played by Lizzie Boyd and Bobby Snell honored the infant king. Angels filled the stable area and were played by: Anna Hayes, Kara Snell, Zachary Greenwood, Elizabeth Goad, Brooklyn Snell, McKenzie Greenwood, Brandy Shelkey, and Brendon Shelkey.

This story whether told in prose, poetry or through music is indeed the Good News for All People for Unto to Us is born a Savior which is Christ the Lord.

And God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him will not perish but will have Eternal Life. Amen

ERNIE COUCH & REVIVAL

Gospel music fans need to circle JANUARY 28TH, 2006 on their calendars. On that date Nashville's own Ernie Couch & Revival, will be in concert at Eagleville Baptist Church. EC&R exemplifies what good gospel music is all about. The group's style has been described as a unique mixture of various music styles. Music fans of all types will be able to enjoy this concert. EC&R is known across the United States and Canada for its high energy music. Many describe the group as a combination of the Oak Ridge Boys, The Statler Brothers, and the Statesmen with added excitement. Jason Couch, who sings baritone with the group stated, "We want folks to leave our concerts feeling better than when they arrived. We hope that they have not only been entertained, but that they go home in a better frame of mind and better prepared to cope with daily life." Don't miss seeing Ernie Couch & Revival in concert!

At 5:30 PM, we will have a time of fellowship with the group. There will be finger foods and the public is invited to come and eat and fellowship with them.

Rockvale Chorus Christmas Performances

The Rockvale Chorus groups had a busy Christmas season this year! Under the direction of Brenda Williams, both groups shared their musical talents in a number of Christmas concerts, including performances at SunTrust Bank (followed by lunch McDonald's!), Bethlehem Marketplace at Southeast Baptist Church in Murfreesboro, and a school program. The Elementary Group also performed at a nursing home in Murfreesboro, while the Middle School group also performed in conjunction with the Tennessee Valley Winds at their annual concert. The groups did fabulous jobs, and Mrs. Williams is very proud of them!

New

THE AFTER GLOW

The greeting cards have ended,
And a new year has come in,
The happy celebration has ceased.

The Angels has ascended to heaven,
The Wise Men returned to the east.

But the light that shone on the manger,
Still brightens the world afar.
And listening hearts hear angels,
And the Wise men still follow the star.

There's nothing nicer than prayer,
To bless those that we love.
It reaches out to angel wings,
Straight up to God above.

And that the reason we should pray,
To bless us every day.
And ask God for His special touch,
To carry us through this new years rush,
And help us in our daily trust.

"Holy Father" every day,
Keep us in the narrow way.
And when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last.

Where we need no star to guide us,
Where no clouds their glory can hide us.
Make full surrender and hear His soft whisper,
"Give me your heart,
And welcome to your home up above."

Happy New Year To All
And May God Bless You

The Gym Is Alive With Music

6th Annual Elementary Music Program

On Tuesday, December 13 the crowd began to gather before 6:00 p.m. as family and friends found seats on the bleachers and chairs on the gym floor. A few minutes before 6:30 the lights were dimmed and with a Clap... Clap... Clap..., Ms. Williams not only silenced the K through 5th grade students who had ready to perform, the high school band students in their places, stage right but also a somewhat rowdy crowd of parents, siblings, grandparents, aunts, uncles, etc.. etc.. etc... who filled a large part of the bleachers in the gym at Eagleville School.

After a brief welcome, risers on the stage and those on the floor were soon crowded with kindergarten, 1st and 2nd grade students who searched the audience for their parents and so they could give a sly wave. In a reserved section of the bleachers, the 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students sat ready to enjoy the first program while thinking about their own time in the spotlight. And without delay the 6th annual Elementary Music Program began.

A Gingerbread Christmas highlighted many students in the early primary grades and showed their musical and dramatic talents. A "Gingerbread Christmas" the first song included hand motions performed by the whole choir and speaking parts performed by Hannah Cron as the Grandmother, Taylor Reed as Katrina, and Matt Beard as Josh. "One Special Cookie" was a sweet song and highlighted soloists Hannah Cron and Taylor Reed. "March of the Christmas Toys" was a crowd favorite and featured speaking parts by Kayla Stiles, David Manier as the Gingerbread boy, Seth Wilson and Alex Nippers as toy soldiers, Chelsea Scott and Cheyenne Wiebe as Princess Dolls, Kelly Schockey and Shelby Burns as Jack-in-the-Box toys, and Lexy McCord and Ally Vaupel as Teddy Bears. "Run, Run Rap" was a great song for the children to show their musical talent and continued the story of the Gingerbread Boy who didn't want to end up as Santa's snack. This number featured soloists David Manier, Olivia Adams, Emily Carlton, Kayla Stiles, and Luther Dillard and the acting abilities of Rebecca Jackson as Ms. Tick Tock, James Jones as Mr. Tick Tock, Zach Philburn as a jolly Santa Claus, and Olivia Adams as the Narrator. Much to the relief of all the children and especially the Gingerbread Boy, he ended up as a special ornament on the tree rather than a snack. The performers celebrated with a final musical number "Christmas Everywhere".

As the stage was cleared, children exited and found their seats in the bleachers, the High School band provided a musical intermission. Woodwinds, percussion, brass section and the whole group played both new and familiar songs.

The stage was full once again but this time with the older elementary students, dressed in clothes from their grandparent's era, as they performed "Santa Stuck in the 50's". This "Rock-n-Roll Holiday Celebration" was a delight for everyone and featured upbeat tunes and complex singing arrangements. The program opened with "Whole Lotta Cleanin Goin On" which featured students Seth Wales as Santa, Tarryn Smotherman as Mrs. Claus, and elves played by Julia Jones and Halie Turner. "Strolling through the 50's with You" showed the group using toys from the 50's to fill the wish list of boys and girls. This song featured soloists Seth Wales and Tarryn Smotherman and dramatic performances by Charitey Merritt as an elf, and Aaron Nippers, Ben Kelley, Brian Edwards, Colin Progar, Dylan Beatey, Chelsey Owen, Nathaniel Thomason, and Bubba Grisham as reindeer. The story continues as Santa's helpers grow more and more excited by the treasures from the past they find. "Rock Around the Shop Tonight" featured soloists Blake Freeman and speaking parts by elves Daniel Stiles, Andrew Jernigan, Ashton Smith, C.J. Roberson, Briley Fulghum, and Hunter Warnack. "Gifts from the Heart" shared the true meaning of Christmas and featured soloists Tiffany Henson, Samantha Maxwell, Joshua Vaquez and Taylor Bennett. Danielle Driver played the part of Roxie and children busy with their lists for Santa included Melissa Nash, Jamer Norris, Bo Tollett, and Daniel Mealer. "Santa Be Good To Me" allowed all the performers to put on their most persuasive faces as they pleaded with Santa to be generous. The song featured soloists Jessi Horn, Ashley Tidwell, Rachel Lynch, Kalyn Patterson, Alicia Jordan, Isaac Haley, Amber Underwood, Hannah Wilson, Alaina Jack, Anna Harrell, Shaniqua Moore and Taylor Goodson. Elves were played by Levi Smotherman and Chelsea Phelps. The program ended with a fun musical presentation of "Rockin Down the Chimney Tonight" which featured soloists Kelsie Vanatta and Samantha Beard.

The programs were a great success and Ms. Williams says thanks to all the students, parents, and especially Kelly Medford, Band Director, Melinda Dickens, Art Teacher who designed the sets and props, and Bruce Haley who helped with the stage and various other tasks.

EAGLEVILLE TIMES

THE BEST OF THE BEST AWARD is given each year by the Tennessee Association for Family and Community Education (TAFCE) as a way of recognizing and honoring outstanding members who have given over and beyond the norm in the performance of duties as a volunteer, through unselfish acts for the betterment of their community.

Nominees are submitted at county level where they are judged. The winner is sent to the Central Region FCE, and winners there are sent to the state. This year, Eagleville FCE Club nominated MARY ALICE LAMB for this award. She was honored as the State Winner at the annual TAFCE Conference in Kingsport last month. Juanita Carlton accepted the award of Mary Alice who was not able to attend because of her husband's health. She received a certificate, a recognition pin and two checks, as well as the thanks of the organization of her dedication to the goals of the FCE Clubs.

Mary Alice has been a member of the Triune Home Demonstration Club for 16 years and of the Eagleville Club for 38 years for a total of 54 years. As a small child she attended the Triune Club with her mother. She remembers pressure cookers being carried to homes where everyone helped in canning vegetables and beef. Also, at the meetings, after canning season was over, they made cotton mattresses for the family.

Eagleville Club also had a TAFCE winner in Cultural Arts. Dolores McCord won with her restored child's chair with a woven bottom. Mrs. Dolores did all the work on this entry. Her chair was a county and region winner before going to the state.

At the Central Region breakfast, Eagleville FCE member, Frances Edwards was installed as Regional President. The club is very proud of Frances. Juanita Carlton was also installed as a Regional Education chairperson.

A Step Back in Time

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

Dr. Joshua Epps Stephenson

Dr. J. E. (Joshua Epps) Stephenson was born in 1888 and was the son of George White and Lucy Elizabeth Epps Stephenson. Joshua Epps' dad was a farmer and lived in Spring Hill, TN. He was educated in Spring Hill at Branham-Hughes Military Academy. While in school he once told his dad that he wanted to quit school. His father agreed, if only he followed in his footsteps each day on the farm, so he decided that school would be the easier of the two options.

After finishing Branham-Hughes in the early 1900's he decided to enter the U. T. Dental School in Nashville, TN. When Joshua Epps left to go to Nashville, he had with him a suitcase of a few clothes and a five-dollar bill that his dad had given him. His dad would send him a little money from time to time and that wasn't very often. Since he was a single man when he started his dental practice in Eagleville, TN., on Nov. 21, 1911, he also went to Westmoreland, TN, about 70 miles one way, one or sometime two days a week for about two or three years. "Doc" as everyone called him lived at McRae's Hotel, which was right in the middle of Eagleville. The present Dairy Bar is located on property that was the hotel's front yard. His office was upstairs over the Eagleville Bank building. The Eagleville telephone office and Miss Pearl Tucker's apartment were also upstairs in the bank building. Sometime after moving to Eagleville, building a dental practice and meeting people in a new community, Doc had a blind date with a nice young lady, Mary Claire Hughes. She was born in 1892 and was the daughter of David Henning and Lucy Holland Jones Hughes. What they did or where they went on that blind date is not known but it is known to the family that Mary Claire told Doc that she didn't like going out with strangers. Doc took her at her word and didn't call on her for four or five years. He gave her time to feel that he wasn't a stranger anymore and they started dating. Five years after he moved to Eagleville in 1916, they married. When they first married, they lived in the McRae's Hotel. They bought their first new home, the second house on the right side of Hwy 99, going toward Murfreesboro. This house is still in the family. Doc's and Mary Claire's granddaughter, Suzanne McClaran and her husband, Johnny, has lived there since 1975.

In 1936, Doc moved his dental practice to Murfreesboro, TN. His office was located in the Murfree-Clark Building on East Main St. He brought his instruments home each night and made house calls to people that were unable to go to his office. He commuted to Murfreesboro from Eagleville and had regular riders each day. Mrs. Lady Mary Williams taught 1st grade at the Training School, a school affiliated with Middle Tennessee State College, and Miss Carmine Jackson taught at Crichlow, a Murfreesboro City School. Many riders were students that commuted to Murfreesboro to attend Middle Tennessee State College. He also helped students by giving them part-time jobs to help pay for their education. They worked as dental assistants and secretaries.

From 1936 until the time he no longer practiced in the 1940s, the most he ever got for pulling a tooth was $2.00. As long as he practiced dentistry he also gave Mary Claire $1.00 each day in case she needed some money. Jane remembers going to Nap Tomlin's Pie Wagon to get sandwiches for lunch and there would be money left over.

Mary Claire and Doc had two sons and four daughters, all educated in Eagleville, except for Walter who finished high school at Central High School in Murfreesboro. He went there so he could play football. Each of the children except one, Holly who died young, went to college to further their education. Doc died in 1949 and Mary Claire died in 1975. Children:

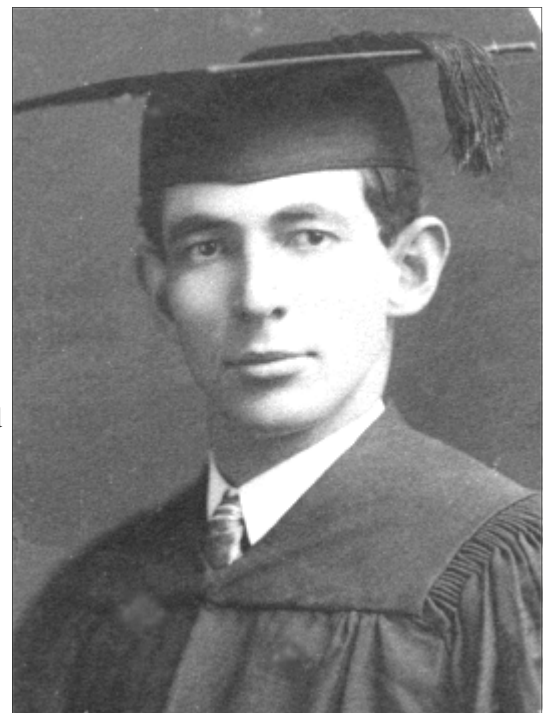

George Hughes Stephenson was born December 12, 1917. He graduated from the University of Tennessee, majoring in Agriculture. He served as a county agent in Benton Co. and Greene Co. Being told he would be drafted in the army in WWII, he resigned from his job and volunteered into the Navy. Much of his time was served in the Mediterranean Sea during many bad battles. When the war was over, he came home to enroll in dental school at the University of TN, Memphis. When George was in Knoxville, going to school, he had a blind date with Flo Irwin. When he went to Memphis to U.T. Dental School, he met Flo again. She was a dietitian at John Gaston Hospital. George and Flo married in 1948 in Memphis and after he finished dental school, they came back to Middle Tennessee to live and work. George set up his dental office in Murfreesboro, and Flo was a dietitian at the Alvin C. York Veterans Administration Hospital in Murfreesboro. George died March 30, 1984. They had two daughters: Kitty Claire and Mary George.

Elizabeth Holland (Holly) Stephenson was born May 7, 1920 and died August, 1922 when she was only two years old. It was said that every store in Eagleville closed and everyone went to her funeral.

Walter Henning "Bub" Stephenson born April 23, 1922 and died in 1991. He didn't want to go to college so he went to Lockheed Air Craft Plant in California and worked there about a year before he found out he was going to be drafted into the army, so he volunteered in the Air Force in June of 1943 and soon was sent to Saipan and Iwo Jima. He was in many battles and while in service he decided that getting an education was very important. He enrolled in U.T. Jr. College in Martin, TN in pre-med. After he finished medical school, he came back to Middle TN and practiced medicine in Cross Plains and Gallatin. After many years of practicing medicine he took a leave of absence from his medical practice and in 1978-79 he and his wife, Walter Mai Bell Stephenson, daughter of James Walter and Manor Little Bell, (another Eagleville family), who got her education in Eagleville and M.T.S.U., went to Liberia, Africa through the United Methodist Church Global Ministry, as a medical missionary and a schoolteacher. Walter and Walter Mai had 3 children: Walter Henning Stephenson II, (Steve), James Epps Stephenson (Jim) and Betty Holland Stephenson (Holly).

Ethel Virginia (Sis) Stephenson was born July 24, 1924 and was never married. She went to U.T. Jr. College at Martin, TN for two years, finishing the other two years at Knoxville with a degree in Home Economics. She went from Knoxville to Yale University to enroll in nursing. She finished nursing and worked in New Haven, Conn. for several years. While there it was discovered that she had a blood deficiency (aplastic anemia). She came back to Tennessee so she would be close to her family and got a teaching job on the faculty at U.T. Nursing School in Memphis. She was a very devout Christian and belonged to the Methodist Church in Memphis. Her boyfriend was the pastor of the church. She would not marry him because she knew she had an incurable condition. When Sis died in 1956, he preached her funeral.

Pauline "Paul" Stephenson was born August 21, 1926 and also went to U. T. Jr. College in Martin, TN to get her pre-nursing courses. After finishing there she was accepted and enrolled in Vanderbilt Univ. School of Nursing. While in school she and her husband, Allen Pollard Crick, who grew up in the Rover Area, lived in Eagleville with her mother, Mary Claire. After both Pauline and Pollard finished their college requirements, they moved to Manchester TN where Pauline worked as a registered nurse and also supervising nurse. She worked as the Middle TN Regional Supervisor of Health Occupation for several years. During this time she also received her masters degree of nursing from U. T. Knoxville. She was very devoted to her profession. Pollard, her husband, also got his education in Eagleville and on to U.T. Jr. College in Martin, TN. He finished U.T. at Knoxville with a degree in engineering. He worked at Arnold Engineering Space Center at Tullahoma, TN. They lived in Manchester TN. Pauline's died in 1980. They have 3 children: Paula Jo, Michael Allen and Lee Ann.

Mary Jane Stephenson, who was born December 1, 1928, didn't want to go to college at all but her dad and mom said she had to. Walter and Pauline were both at U.T. Martin, so she decided to go there also. Jane went the summer and fall quarters of 1946. After Christmas break, she was told that if she would be happier at M.T.S.C in Murfreesboro, she could stay at home, but Jane decided to go back to Martin. By the time she had gotten to Martin, Jane wished she had stayed at home. Now she was in Martin, so she and some friends went to the movie. As soon as they got back from the movie, she packed her trunk and suitcases and called the train depot for the train schedule to Nashville. When arriving in Nashville, she called her parents and was on her way to M.T.S.C. the next day. Her father, Dr. Stephenson died in July of 1949, so she dropped out of school and taught the second grade in Eagleville for two years while staying at home with her mother. In the summer of 1951, Jane went back to finish college. She wanted to finish now because her parents had wanted her to so badly. She got her degree in Health & Physical Education. Jane actually got two degrees that week. She received her B.S. degree and also her MRS. Degree. She and Milton Simpson married the day after she finished college. Teaching at Rockvale School was the first position that Jane had after getting her degree. The next two years she taught at Chapel Hill. At both schools she coached Jr. High girls' basketball teams and taught at the Jr. High level. Leaving Chapel Hill, Jane came to Eagleville to teach the second grade, her favorite of all, and taught that grade until she retired after 31 years of teaching. Milton also got his high school education in Eagleville. When he and Jane married, he was engaged full time in farming. He farmed until the early 70s and at that time he changed to construction and part time farming. Milton and Jane have two daughters, Suzanne and Rita Jane.

Suzanne married John Stanley McClaran, son of J. W. and Dorothy Gillespie McClaran and have a son, John Davy who teaches and coaches at Chapel Hill, TN. He married Melissa Daugherty and they have a son, John Ryley, born in 2002 and a daughter, Catherine Grace (b. & d. 1-24-2005).

Rita married George Edward Boyd, son of Sam and Sally Boyd of Rockvale, TN. Their daughter, Gretchen, married James Lucas Thompson, son of Jim and Billie Jo Owen Thompson. They have a daughter, Elizabeth Rose "Lizzie" (b. 9-25- 2002).

• A fun time was enjoyed by Lorene Rigsby, Marie Underwood, Lula Mae Johnson and Shirley Williams when they saw the ICE SHOW at OPRYLAND. Even with the temperature below zero inside, they remained unfrozen. Afterwards they enjoyed lunch at O'Charley's in Franklin.

• A birthday celebration was held for Anita Hargrove in December. Anita and four of her sisters, Shirley Crick, Bessie Lee Mosley, Margaret Ryan and Jane Shelton, had a great birthday meal at Henry Horton State Park Restaurant. The sisters were also joined by Nita's niece, Debbie.

• Judy Turner and daughters, Shirley, Elaine, Betsy and Janet, recently spent a long weekend in the Smoky Mountains. They attended the Louise Mandrelle Show, saw the Smoky Mountain lights, visited relatives in Maryville, and went shopping-shopping-shopping!

Happy New Year

• Blake Hodge (pictured at right), son of Matt and Carol Ann Hodge, attended the Holly Ball, a black tie event that was held at the Double Tree Hotel in Murfreesboro on December 11th. The ball was sponsored by the National League of Junior Cotillions.

• The Perrell family enjoyed their annual Christmas lunch at the home of Jane Perrell Shelton on the 11th. With a large group from the families of Mary Frances Perrell Lester, Bessie Perrell Mosley, Whack Perrell, Margaret Perrell Ryan, John Perrell, Anita Perrell Hargrove, Jane Perrell Shelton, Polly Perrell Riggan, and Shirley Perrell Crick.

• Congratulations to Jennifer Lamb, she graduated from MTSU Sat. the 17th with a degree in early Childhood Development. A reception was held at the Eagleville United Methodist Church after the Graduation to honor her. She plans to pursue a teaching career.

• Sandy Shelton entertained a few family and friends with a wonderful Christmas dinner party Sat. the 17th. Her house was beautifully decorated for Christmas. In attendance were, Jane, Kathy, Janet and Mark Shelton, Renee and Michael Shinn, Bessie Mosley, Anita Hargrove, Shirley and Hillard Crick. Brent, Betty, Lane and Sara Beth Stacy, Margaret and Debbie Ryan, Herbert and Evelyn Crick, Marecca Tucker and Dewayne.

• Recently the families of Albert Hargrove, Betty Jo Hargrove Leverette, Don Hargrove, Jimmy Hargrove, Linda Hargrove Blackwell and Jerry Hargrove enjoyed Christmas lunch at Horton Park restaurant.

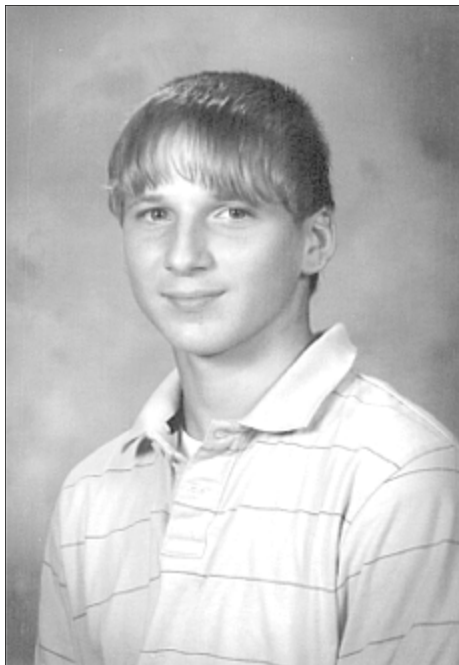

• Elizabeth & L.R. Edmonson invited the Mt. Vernon congregation to their home on December 2nd. Everyone brought food, had a great meal and then decorated the church float for the Christmas parade. The group came back on Saturday for a ham breakfast and then on to the parade. This was the 3rd year for the group to gather for this festive event. On December 18th, the group met at the Edmonsons' again for another festive meal and all then went to the open house at Fred & Sherry Hobbs home. Everyone had a great time.

• Frances Sullivan celebrated her 74th birthday Saturday, November 12th at her home in Smyrna. The party was given by Geri and William Fields, Becky Cunningham, Courtney Vaughn, and Chris and Heather Cunningham. There were forty-four friends and family members in attendance to help Frances celebrate her big day. Everyone enjoyed lots of great food and laughter. Thank you to all of those that attended!

Chosen For People-to-People Student Ambassador

Many of us would like to see the world but for one area student this will become a reality this summer. Christopher Jutkofsky started the process in November with meetings and interviews and was accepted as a People to People Student Ambassador. This year the Student Ambassador Program turns 50 years old, started in 1956 by then President Dwight D Eisenhower and all but one president since then has been honorary Chairman.

Christopher will be embarking on a 22 day trip starting in France, while there he will visit Paris, the French Riviera, Cannes and the small country of Monaco. From there it's off to Italy and Florence, Rome and the coliseums, Vatican City and a possible visit with the Pope, then on to Sicily and Mt Aetna the volcano that last erupted in 2003. The last area he will visit is Malta, besides visiting the Islands it is here he will get to stay in the home of a local and experience the culture first hand. Christopher would like to thank who ever nominated him for the program, as well as Mrs. Pace his Spanish teacher, Scott Courtney Coach, and a Family Friend Dee Smith for writing his letters of recommendation for the program. Christopher Jutkofsky is a member of the sophomore class at Eagleville High School. Everyone please join me in congratulating Christopher on his acceptance and wishing him a safe trip to Europe, this coming summer.

RED HATS MAKING HISTORY IN EAGLEVILLE

The Eagleville Red Hatters enjoyed a lovely Christmas Party at the Home of Betty Bolek on December 14, 2005. Wonderful food and exchanging gifts with Dirty Santa was enjoyed by all as well as the comfort of Betty's beautifully decorated home. We looked back at our scrap book of pictures and outings of the past year. It's hard to believe that only

1 year ago nobody in Eagleville knew what being a Red Hatter was all about. Wouldn't Mrs. Nell Medford be tickled now to know that there are 3 Official RED HAT SOCIETY CHAPTERS right here in our quaint little town. What some of you might not know is that Nell asked me to promise her that I would start a Red Hat society in our little town before she passed away. I thank Nell for that and I hope to continue to see more Chapters start in our town.

Many of you younger folk are asking how you can become a Pink Hatter. Go to the Official web site of RED HAT SOCIETY.COM and all of your questions should be answered but if you still have some questions I'm only a phone call away.

The most important goal of our society is having fun and I think we are upholding that just fine. Many new friends have met and we continue to get email invitations and offers for outings from other groups.

One of our outings included officially proclaimed RED HAT DAY IN TENNESSEE on April 25, 2005, at OPRY MILLS MALL. More upcoming events include the 2006 INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION in ST LOUIS, MO which will be June 5-11, 2006, titled "GATEWAY to GLITZ" which includes a formal night, Roaring 20s PUTTING ON THE GLITZ. Can't wait for that one. It will be a week long celebration of Red Hatters from all over the NATION and our sisters from other countries including China, Japan, Australia, Germany and Canada just to name a few.

Currently over 1 million women are members of a Red Hat Society and growing strong. So go ahead and make plans to start your own chapter or join one of the current ones accepting new members. Happy New Year to all and put on your RED HATS AND FEATHER BOAS and be proud.

Eagleville 2nd Annual Parade of Homes

By Melissa Buchanan

The 2nd Annual Eagleville Christmas Parade of Homes was a great holiday event that has become a yearly tradition. The following residences participated in this year's tour: Home of Jimmy and Linda Skinner, Home of Darrell and Michelle Huffman, Home of Fred and Sherry Hobbs, Home of Wayne and Rhonda Tucker, Home of Jim and Billie Thompson, and the Home of Nick and Carrie Duke.

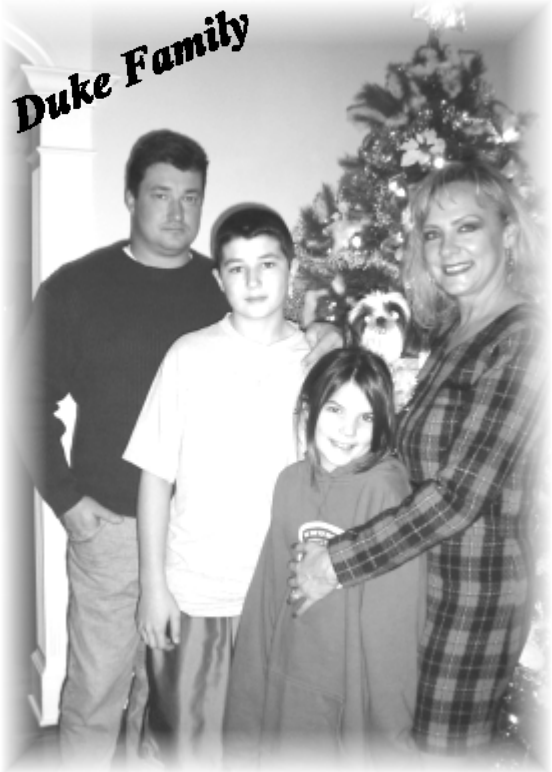

Each home featured had its own unique flair and individualized Christmas décor. Some homes were brand new to our community and hosted their first holiday season of entertaining. Each resident that participated through out the welcome mat as patrons of this event enjoyed a variety of Christmas refreshments. Visitors caught up on old times as they bumped into an old friend or even met a new face of someone new to the community. Many holiday decorating ideas were sparked and everyone went away from this event with a great Christmas spirit.

Thanks to Eagleville Florist and Gifts, Huckleberry's Café, and Ralston's Antiques for ticket accommodations, and of course, to everyone who patronized this event! Funds raised from the parade of homes will go toward future beautification efforts of our town and to host other community events. The Eagleville Activities Committee has already got a great list of homes slated for next year's parade and would like everyone to mark their calendars for the 2nd Sunday in December 2006. Some of the older/historic homes in Eagleville will be opening their doors for everyone to see!

By Lisa Jutkofsky

Welcome to a new year and, the January edition of the Talon Tidbits. I hope everyone had a pleasant holiday with family and friends. As promised I was able to interview the new baseball coach, Scott Courtney and we have the list of the Junior Pro teams from Rockvale.

First off the interview with Coach Courtney, so lets get started shall we. I asked the coach for a little background on himself, he's from Decaturville Tennessee, and attended both UT Knoxville and MTSU colleges. He both majored in Nuclear Engineering and Math Education. Mr. Courtney is a teacher at the Eagleville High School, teaching both Math Foundations and Algebra II. Some of you football fans might know Coach Courtney from Coach Scharsch's staff, but he was one of Coach Lynch's assistants last year on the baseball team. We have 2 new additions to the baseball staff, Richard Bolden and Erik Hurter.

This year we have 10 returning players Ricky Brooksher 'Senior' Mac Jones, John David Proctor, John Jones, Chad Greene, 'Juniors' G.J. Strunk, Drew Gentry, James Blackwell, Hunter Marlin, Christopher Jutkofsky 'Sophomores'. Although we had 10 seniors graduate last year, we still have some nice pitching talent in Blackwell, J Jones, Gentry and Strunk.

In the past the team has scheduled during the spring break an away tournament to Lenoir City, but this year the boys will be heading to Hixson High School for a weekend tournament.

I know everyone dreads fundraising time, but as you know with all sports it needs to be done to help the teams out financially. This year the team will be having 2 fund raisers, the first the gold cards similar to the ones the football team sold. Coach Courtney would also like to see at least 20 to 25 new banners added to the fences on the field, if you are interested in sponsoring a banner you can contact me here at Talon Tidbits Natvny@comcast.net or you can contact Coach Courtney at Eagleville High School for more details. We also want to let all you High School boys know that the team will start conditioning after Holiday break, don't forget freshman there is a JV team that will need 14 players to fill out the roster. Thank you Coach Courtney for your time.

Now on to Junior Pro basketball, Coach Chestnut over at Rockvale School was nice enough to get us a list of the Junior Pro players check it out under Rockvale Rockets sports. Spring sports are around the corner so make sure to look to us for all your spring sports news. Speaking of SPORTS NEWS please send any suggestions or sports worthy topics to me Lisa Jutkofsky at: Natvny@comcast.net would love to hear from you.

Margaret's Helpful Hints

If you don't like getting your hands messy when mixing meatloaf, put the ingredients into a large, resealable plastic bag. Close the bag, then "knead" everything together until well mixed.

When cooking rice, put a folded towel between the lid and the pot. When the rice steams and creates moisture, the condensation doesn't drip back into the rice.

Before heating milk, rinse the pan with cold water (do not dry). This keeps the milk from scorching.

Favorite Recipe

NEW YEAR'S BLACK-EYED PEAS WITH SAUSAGE

- 3 (15 oz.) cans black-eyed peas
- 1 lb. sausage
- 2 tbsp. oil
- 1 lg. onion, chopped
- 1 (4 oz.) can diced green chilies
- 1 (14 oz.) can whole tomatoes
- Salt and pepper, to taste

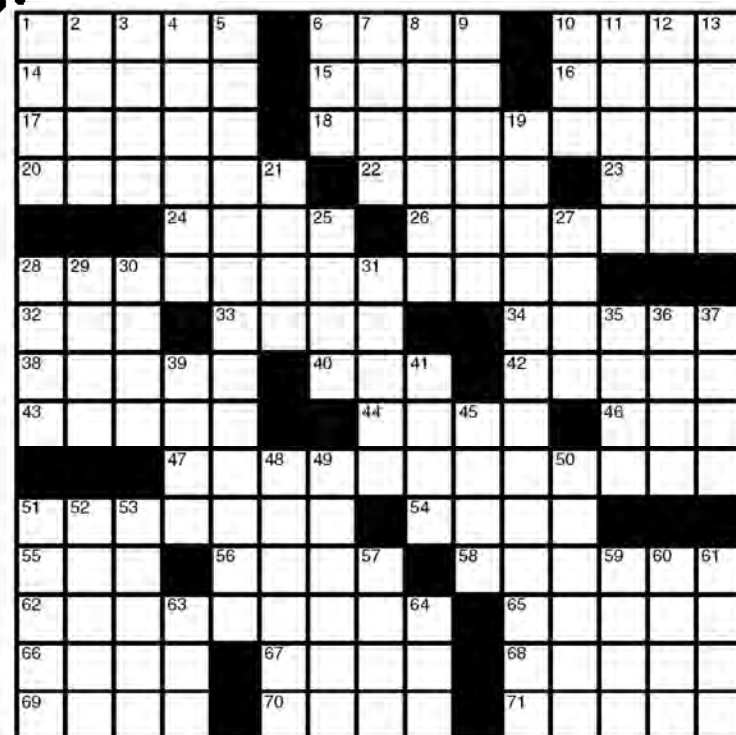

Place black-eyed peas in large stew pan to simmer. Fry sausage in oil until well browned. Drain all but 2 tablespoons of oil from skillet. Sauté onion in remaining oil. add onions with oil and remaining ingredients to peas. Simmer for 30 minutes over a low heat. Serve with corn bread and tossed salad.

A Very Special Lady Celebrates
Her 94th Birthday

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

Mrs. Maye Taylor celebrated her 94th birthday on December 14th. She received many birthday cards and calls from her friends wishing her a happy birthday. Mrs. Maye was told by her daughters that they were taking her out for dinner that night for her birthday. Evening came and they arrived to get her. As she tells it, “we started out towards Eagleville. When we got to Eagleville, we went under the light toward Allisona but quickly turning in at the restaurant (Huckleberry’s Restaurant). Several cars arrived about the same time, but it looked sort of dark inside. We all went in and candles were burning on the tables. The lights came on and all my family started coming in.” All her family was present with the exception of a granddaughter who lives in Colorado. They enjoyed a wonderful meal and after opening her gifts Mrs. Maye told her family she wanted to pray to thank the Lord for the many blessings she receives each day. According to Mrs. Maye this was one of her best birthdays - with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and families helping her celebrate this occasion. (A few days after her birthday, she began to think back on that happy night and the following prayer came to her mind. With a pen and paper always handy, Mrs. Maye wrote down the following:)

A Prayer For The Day - December 14th, 2005

“Thanks Lord for this occasion”. As we look upon this world we are living in, me, being 94 years old and see me as I struggle along. Folks think I have nothing. I know I am not wealthy in money but I have the Lord in my heart. I’ve had these clothes for years and thank Him for the blessings everyday. In my heart I’m rejoicing, my Savior walks with me. Thank you Lord for all the blessings like this. I have a good roof up above me; I’ve got a good warm place to sleep. There’s food on my table and shoes on my feet. You gave me your love, Lord, and a fine family. Thank you for your blessing as all of them came to my party for my 94th birthday. Give us a good and happy Christmas and our love extends out to everyone.

This is my prayer. Thank you Lord for your blessing day by day.

Congratulations to Rhianna Williams

Eighth grader from Eagleville School, for making the Middle Tennessee School Band and Orchestra Association's 2006 Middle School Honor Band. She, along with eight other Eagleville band members spent a long

Saturday in December at McGavock High School in Nashville auditioning for spots in the Mid State Senior High, Junior High and Middle School Honor Bands. The auditions included scales, sightreading, and prepared music. Over 2,500 middle Tennessee students compete in these auditions for mid state bands each year. Rhianna will rehearse and perform with the Middle School Honor Band at the end of January in the MTSBOA All-Mid State Honor Band Concert at Tucker Theatre on the MTSU campus.
