Eagleville Lions Club Horseshow Moves to New Location

On Saturday June 19, the Eagleville Lions Club Walking Horseshow was held on the TVPPA/ Tractor Club property on Highway 99, Chapel Hill Highway. This was a new location for the show, which is the oldest, one night walking horseshow in middle Tennessee. With much preparation and hard work by Lions Club members and volunteers, the Show was a great success. The new facility offered a wonderful venue for participants and spectators alike. Refurbished bleachers provided seating for some and many people elected to bring lawn chairs and even blankets, making a picnic of the event.

The new show grounds offered a beautiful view from the hill, a gravel track in the show ring for the competitors as well as plenty of room to relax for the horses, riders and spectators. Without the convenience of an established concessions building, volunteers were creative and used a generator for electricity and propane grills to provide a variety of dinner choices. Visitors enjoyed Bar-B-Que sandwiches, hamburgers, hot dogs, nachos and the crowd favorite and tradition, country ham. The Eagleville Homemakers Club sold homemade pie and tubs of ice kept soft drinks and water cool.

Thankfully, the weather cooperated and the show ring was an endless parade of magnificent walking horses with their riders, showing and "showing off" for the judge. Some 25 classes competed that evening with over 169 total entries in the Show. An exhibition by Did They See Me Do It, therapeutic riding program was a crowd favorite. The Show began with an invocation by Preacher King and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by Mary Grace King. The judge for the evening was Justin Jenne from Shelbyville TN. William Bolden from Unionville was ringmaster. Bobby Sands from Columbia announced the show while Connie Dunlap from Murfreesboro provided show music on her organ.

The Lions Club appreciates all of those who helped including Lions Club members, volunteers from the community, members of the Walking Horse community, and the participants. All of your efforts go to support the many projects of the Eagleville Lions Club. A special thanks to the Show Chairman, Don Davis, Co-Chairman Hollis Kelley, Show Secretary Danny VanArsdale, and Lions' Club President Don Davis.

What is a Hootenanny? Actually, a Hootenanny well, it's an evening, an evening of fun, music, good food and good company. A Hootenanny is a collection of music performed by local artists blending styles and pieces drawing from the bluegrass the crowd grew up singing. A Hootenanny is the fellowship that happens as friends and families gather outdoors to share the magic of music.

And a Hootenanny is what the crowd of over 250 enjoyed on Saturday June 26, 2004 at the TVPPA, Tractor Club Show Grounds located on Highway 99, Chapel Hill Highway. From 5:00 p.m. until well after the sun set against a pink streaked sky, spectators and performers alike enjoyed a variety of artists and variety of musical styles. Performers from the greater middle Tennessee area took the stage, a large flat bed trailer and picked and sang. Spectators filled picnic tables under the newly constructed large pavilion, found places on bleachers and settled in lawn chairs along the hillside. With hands clapping and toes tapping the crowd enjoyed the show.

Johnny Frost did the honors as MC for the show. Performers for the evening included Jordan's Angels, the band Runaway Freight, Homegrown Blue Grass and Friends, Ken Harrell & Bill Vaughn, Trey & Brandy Lambert with Lucas Thompson, Dave Smith and a special feature, Michael Frost a student at Eagleville School on the banjo. Thomas Maupin provided a great Buck Dancing exhibition as the banjo, bass and guitar provided the beat to keep his feet lively.

The crowd also enjoyed a variety of menu items at the concessions area including white soup beans and corn bread, nachos, hamburgers, hot dogs, bar-b-que, and baked potatoes. Iced tea and soft drinks kept everyone's thirst quenched. Homemade pies, cakes, brownies and cookies satisfied everyone's sweet tooth.

All of the proceeds from the Hootenanny are being used to improve the TVPPA Tractor Club Show Grounds. This property is quickly becoming an important site for many of the community organizations such as the Community Center Organization and Lions Club. All of us are glad to support the Tractor Club activities and look forward to more enjoyable evenings at the Show Grounds off Highway 99. And now we all know what a Hootenanny is.

Luper Promoted to the Position of Territory Sales Manager

Lifetouch Church Directories & Portraits announces that Church Consultant Archie Luper of Rockvale, TN has been promoted to the position of Territory Sales Manager. In his new role Luper will oversee a territory made up of forty-one counties in Middle Tennessee including Rutherford County. He also supervises three teams of photographers and portrait sales consultants in his territory.

Luper earned the position based on his management expertise and exceptional sales performance over the past twelve months he has been with the company. Luper attended Freed-Hardeman University in Henderson, TN and the Nashville School of Preaching in Nashville. He has served both large and small churches and most recently served as preaching minister of the Jackson Ridge church of Christ in Rockvale, where his family continues to serve as active members. He previously managed a national accounting and business consulting firm in Nashville.

Luper's wife Kathy is a special education teacher at Kittrell School in Murfreesboro. They have two sons, Josh, a recent graduate of Freed-Hardeman University and Nick, a sophomore at the University of Tennessee at Martin where he is a starter on the Skyhawks baseball team.

Country Music Marathon

On Saturday, April 24th, David Turner of Eagleville participated in the Country Music Marathon, held in Nashville. David's fundraising efforts for cancer research totaled over $9,000, making him one of the top Team In Training (TNT) contributors. The Nashville chapter's total was over $400,000.

David made the complete 26.2 miles in 4:01:34, thanks to training with TNT and the great support of his friends.

Team In Training (TNT) is the world's largest endurance sports training programs, organized to help raise funds for cancer research. The program began in 1988. This year more than 30,000 TNT runners, walkers, cyclists and triathletes will participate in the world's major marathons and triathlons.

The Jeremy Jones FFA Memorial Scholarship was initiated in 2000 as a continuing memorial to the memory of Eagleville graduate and former FFA member and FFA officer Jeremy Jones. Jeremy attended Eagleville high school graduating in 1998. Following graduation he attended National Guard basic training, having joined as a junior, worked full time and was attending vocational school in Murfreesboro. He also was a volunteer fire fighter for the Christiana community. Jeremy had a strong network of friends, a close family and commitment to God and his church.

Tragically on September 1, 1999, he was involved in a fatal motorcycle accident. His immediate family, parents Gayla and Kyle Jones, and sister Tiffany Jones, his larger extended family, and his family of friends from school and church mourned his loss. Kyle and Gayla determined that a continuing memorial to Jeremy in the form of a college scholarship was an excellent way to honor him and the many friends and family who wanted his memory to continue in their hearts and in the hearts of others.

The Jeremy Jones Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a senior member of the Eagleville FFA. The member must have shown leadership, service, and commitment to the local FFA chapter throughout high school. He or she must also submit an essay to the scholarship committee that emphasizes what the money is needed for and how the student will use the money. The first scholarship was awarded to Lynne Taylor. Other recipients include

Jennifer Lamb, George Jones, and Kyle Berglund

The scholarship committee was pleased to present the 2004 scholarship award to Jesse Emery. Jesse was a four year member of FFA, participated in Camp Clements leadership camp, held leadership offices his junior and senior years, and participated in various competitions including opening and closing team, soil judging team, and skills team. His essay, which Gayla read at the banquet is printed below, with permission.

Supplying my Tool Kit

By Jesse Emery

When approaching any job, you need the right tools, you need a tool kit. You need knowledge, skills, materials, time and assistance to accomplish a task whether it is changing a tire on a tractor, competing in plumbing skills test, or leading an FFA chapter. When I think about college I realize I need a tool kit for that as well. High school has provided me with most of the tools for my kit.

This has been a busy year following a busy 3 years. I am fortunate to have had a great high school experience. Through Boy Scouts, FFA, Student Council, Spanish club and varsity sports I have learned leadership skills, teamwork, and commitment to a goal. Through a strong academic schedule I have acquired knowledge, practiced good study habits, and learned how to learn. Through my personal relationship with God, I have established a strong faith and a positive lifestyle.

All of these I am putting in my "tool kit" to take with me to the University of Kentucky. I chose UK for a number of reasons but the primary reason was that the school offers a degree in Landscape Architecture, which is what I have wanted to pursue since I learned about the profession. Attending school out of state at a large state university is an experience filled with challenges which I will face with confidence because I have a well equipped tool kit. It is also an expensive experience due to housing and tuition costs.

My tool kit is lacking one key resource needed to attend college, financial resources. College is expensive. I need the Jeremy Lee Jones Memorial Scholarship to put in my tool kit and assist me with the costs of college. Although I have worked hard for the last four years of high school the rewards this work produces are not financial, they are not tangible but they are valuable. By completing my tool kit with needed financial resources, I am receiving an investment in me and my commitment to continue to build my "tool kit" for life.

ROCKVALE CHURCH OF CHRIST MAKES A BIG MOVE

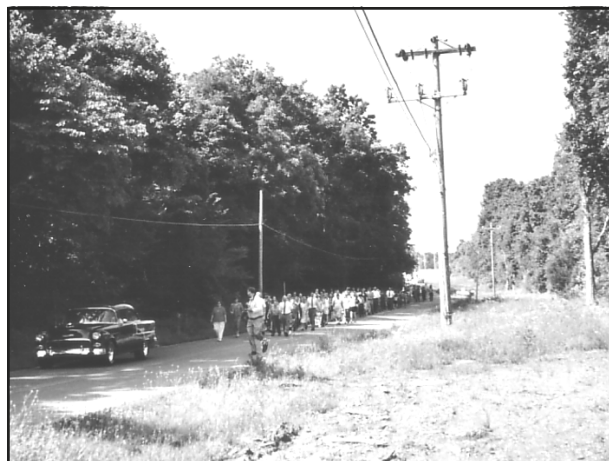

A BIG STEP was taken by the Rockvale church of Christ congregation, friends and families on Sunday, May 23rd, as they walked from the old church building located on Rockvale Road to their new building at 8751 Highway 99, for their first service. Some were walking pretty slowly by the time they arrived, although the kids were still running, some in strollers and some in wagons, being pulled and pushed by parents. Mrs. Miriam Woodson had the better of all transportation while being escorted by Mark McCandless in his 'restored' 1955 Chevy Sedan. Mrs. Woodson is the only surviving member of the few that started the Rockvale congregation in 1944.

A good crowd was present for the first service and Bro. Don Mangrum, as always, made everyone feel welcome. A good lesson was heard and the fellowship was wonderful, with old friends from neighboring congregations in attendance.

An Open House and Dedication Service will be August 8th and more information will be forthcoming.

Members take their final walk from the old building of Rockvale to the new building on the corner of Rockvale Road and Hwy 99.

Don Mangrum, Minister and wife, Kayla, tagging along. Got a little warm during the walk.

Josh and Katie Coker had a nice ride to the new building as mom, Elizabeth, did the work.

"WE ARE FINALLY HERE"

Mariam Woodson takes her trip to the new building with Mark McCandless in his 1956 Chevy. Mrs. Woodson was one of the first members of Rockvale Church of Christ at its beginning in 1944.

Promptly at 1:00 p.m. the house lights dimmed, the stage was illuminated by string lights and spotlights, and the crowd of anxious and excited parents, grandparents, family members and friends found their seats. Behind the scenes, last minute preparations included adjusting costume straps, securing hair pieces, applying shiny lipstick and sparkly eye shadow. Dancers rehearsed their routines or nervously chatted with their classmates. The show was ON.

Just Dance held its second recital "Dancing Under the Moonlight" at the College Grove Artsatorium on Saturday June 5, 2004. The recital is dedicated to Corporal Charles Holt City of Eagleville Police who is serving as Commander International Police Department United Nations Kosovo Mission. Just Dance is owned and operated by Becky Holt and provides classes in ballet, tap, jazz, tumbling, and cheerleading to children, youth and adults. While it was originally located in Eagleville, it has settled in its new home just off Highway 31 in Chapel Hill. The annual recital is the highlight of the year for all the participants and offers these performers the chance to shine.

man who teach the ballet, tap, jazz, tumbling and cheerleading classes. Over 46 dancers participated in the recital for a total of 24 performances. Everyone was a star and basked in the glow of the moonlight.

Just Dance participants included: Ms. Becky, Mr. Clint, Ms. Beth, Ms. Cole, Jami Averwater, Emily Adams, Mallory Shanks, Jennifer Bush, Houston Sawyer, Lilly Belle Howard, Addie Hall, Anna Rakes, Lyndsey Collins, Shelby Raulston, Sarah McKnight, Kalyn Patterson, Morgan Rakes, Hanna Wilker, Helena Dempsey, Katie Lynn, Chelsea Phelps, Mikela Redlin, Emily Green, Andrea Garner, Mattie Harbison, Lexi Loveday, Shelby Burns, Taylor Turnage, Jordan Turnage, Annabelle Goodman, Anna Hayes, Katherine Hill, Cheyenne Wiebe, Elizabeth Goad, Melissa Lambert, Rebecca Jackson, Olivia Adams, Amanda Bowdan, Cassi Davenport, Denise Holt, Connie Garner, Heather McKnight, Rihannah Williams, Tyler Covington, Kim Collins, Marissa Sparschu.

New to the recital was the Daughter & Daddy dance which featured 10 parent/child couples dancing to "Tough Little Boys". Couples included Becky and Cully Holt, Lexi Loveday and Josh Motes, Andrea and Michael Garner, Anna and Mike Hayes, Sarah and Heather McKnight, Rebecca and Horace Jackson, Anna, Morgan and Marty Rakes, Lilly Belle and Mark Howard, Hanna and Matt Wilker. Additionally, Lauren Hines and Ashley Sampson, dancers from a visiting studio danced to Swan Lake. Also new was the finale led by Cassi Davenport, Mallory Shanks, Jamie Averwater, Melissa Lambert, Sarah McKnight, and Emily Adams who were joined on stage by all the dancers. Following the performances each dancer took a final bow and received bouquets of flowers from their admiring fans. Congratulations all around to the dancers, the Just Dance staff, and the volunteers who helped throughout the year and at the recital. For more information about summer or fall classes please call Ms. Becky at 615-653-9617.

Patterson & Appleton

Carrie Ann Patterson and Joshua Christopher Appleton were married on May 29, 2004, 4:00 pm, at the Antioch United Methodist Church, Antioch. Reverend Jay Voorhies officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Ron and Janie Patterson of Chapel Hill/Antioch. The groom's parents are Jimmy and Barbara Appleton of Nashville.

Grandparents of the bride are Robert and Nancy Morton of Antioch and Marjorie Patterson of Eagleville. Grandparents of the groom are Roy and Mary Appleton of Nashville.

Ron Patterson, father of the bride gave his daughter's hand in marriage.

Carrie's gown was a Private Collection by Jacquelyn, strapless with laced back, adorned with pearls and crystals. Her waist length veil was a Crystal Tierra, made by the bride's mother, adorned with tiny fuchsia crystals.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Sandy Moore of Antioch. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ryan Simpson of Murfreesboro; Miss Hailey Houston of Nashville and Miss Martha Tidwell of Franklin. Junior attendant was Miss Kelly Maxson, cousin of the bride. Flower girls were Chelsea

Moore, daughter of Mike and Sandy Moore of Antioch and Austyn Simpson, daughter of Chad & Ryan Simpson of Murfreesboro.

The best man was Nick Appleton, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Jimmy Tidwell, Chad Simpson and Josh Luffman. Junior Groomsman was Grant Patterson, brother of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Ft. Lauderdale the couple are making their home in Nashville.

Happy Anniversary

Seven years ago I thought that I'd met the man of my dreams. Four years ago I knew I had met him when he asked my hand in marriage. It's been said that couples who have been together a long time just naturally start to take each other for granted. But not me....not us! Because even after all this time, I still look at you and ask myself, "How on earth did I get so lucky?" I really mean that. I don't always tell you that's what I'm thinking because I'm afraid it would sound, well, silly... but I think it a lot. It's so easy to get caught up in the routine of life, the endless loop of work...chores....errands....ballgames. But loving you and being loved by you is an everyday miracle for me. Something that could never and will never grow old. God has gotten us this far in marriage and people said we'd never make it, especially this far, but I guess we showed them. Our love is strong, so strong that nothing could tear us apart. God has put our marriage in the center of his will and our lives together in his hands, and I am so grateful that he put us in each others arms. I love you Sam. Thank you for being my husband and the father to our children. Happy Anniversary and Happy Father's Day!

Your Smile

Nikki Womble

When I was just learning to ride a bike
And I failed
I looked up and your smile
Kept me going.
When I started to school, all the boys and girls laughed
I looked up and your smile
Kept me going.
When I went out into the world with adventures a more
I was scared evermore
I looked up and your smile
Kept me going.
When my heart was broken for the first time,
And all hope was lost
I looked up and your smile
Kept me going.
On January 1, when we laid you to rest,
And all I could feel
Were tears and hurt
I then too,
Looked up and your smile
Kept me going.

We Love You,
Sherry, Gretchen & Nikki

Happy Birthday to Patricia Davis

To a very special lady, a mother, a grandmother, and most of all, my best friend. I honor you mother. Not for just giving me life, but for making my life a gift. Mother, you are truly one of God's greatest gifts to me. Where else can you find comfort, acceptance, forgiveness, encouragement, praise and consolation....all in one hug? All from you mother. You've taught us all so well and so much. You always said laughter is the best medicine and it is. So, I go on myself being hoppy, bubbly, loving, caring and my crazy times for the kids also. We all love you and wish you the Best Birthday ever.

Love always, your loving daughter

Community Care Rx Discount Card for Medicare Beneficiaries

Medicare beneficiaries are not the only ones faced with the daunting task of choosing a Medicare-endorsed discount card. Wayne and Benita Carpenter of Eagleville Drug Center in Eagleville, Tennessee were faced with the same challenge.

"Right after the first of the year, we were inundated with contracts from companies offering these cards. We had to sort through the plans and make decisions about which cards to accept in our pharmacy, and which card, if any, to promote to our patients. We have done our homework and we are ready to assist our patients who are looking for help in selecting a Medicare endorsed discount card," Pharmacist Wayne Carpenter said.

While Eagleville Drug Center accepts many Medicare-endorsed discount cards, when patients ask, they recommend the Community Care Rx Discount Card.

"After reviewing the different plans, we decided that we would support the Community Care Rx Discount Card for a number of reasons," Pharmacist Benita Carpenter said. "Most important is that this is the only card that passes 100 percent of the negotiated Medicare discounts from the drug manufacturers through to the patient at the point of sale."

Under the Medicare discount card program, card sponsors negotiate discounts on prescription drugs from the manufacturers. Community Care Rx has negotiated discounts with major drug manufacturers, including Merck, Lilly, and Johnson & Johnson. These manufacturers are also making their patient assistant programs available through the Community Care Rx Card.

Beneficiaries who meet certain income requirements will receive even deeper discounts on their medications through programs provided by participating manufacturers. For instance, qualifying beneficiaries can purchase Lilly drugs for a flat $12 fee with the Community Care Rx Card. Merck and J & J will also provide very substantial discounts for patients once they have exhausted their $600 credit, resulting in discounts to these beneficiaries of close to 80 percent.

"We also found the prices offered through the Community Care Rx Program to be the same or better than most other plans," the Carpenters said.

The Community Care Rx Program allows patients to receive a three-month supply of medicine from their local pharmacy, and does not have a mail order component.

"We really like the fact that the Community Care Rx Program does not promote mail order. First of all, mail order cannot provide the level of personal service and consultation to patients that we can face to face. We like the fact that we know our patients and their medical histories. We know their physicians. Good pharmacy practice revolves around personal relationships, primarily the patient-physician-pharmacist relationship. You can't have those relationships when your pharmacist is 3,000 miles away. Also, by not promoting mail order, Community Care Rx is helping to keep business in our community, which benefits our local economy," Wayne Carpenter said.

By Rachel Hedgepath

Sarah and Jennifer caught six fish total that weighed up to two to three pounds. Jennifer caught four catfish and Sarah caught two catfish. As they were reeling them in, dad's John and Don helped to get the fish out of the water, trying not to get bitten or scratched up. Rachel and Johnson caught two blue-gills. It was a fun Father's Day just being together.

turned down for medical reasons, he ran the funeral home alone until Thomas returned in 1945. In 1953, they relocated once again to a new, modern building at the present sight.

Prior to the formation of County Ambulance Service, Thomas and Garrett ran an ambulance service for the surrounding counties. They not only responded to Word association plays a big part in our world today. Think of candy/sweet, bank/money, Funeral Director/Garrett Lawrence.

Garrett Lawrence started his career in the funeral business in 1941. He traveled from Chapel Hill to Nashville every day to attend Guppton-Jones Mortuary School. He was only required to attend for six months before he was allowed to

In 1940, Lawrence Funeral Home was rebuilt, after being destroyed by fire on the sight where Horton Highway Utility District is now located. Garrett joined his brother, Thomas, at Lawrence Funeral Home in 1942, while he still helped Mr. Cotton when he was needed. The brothers worked together to build the business before Thomas was called to serve our country in World War II. Since Garrett was accidents and emergencies, but also brought several babies home from the hospital.

It was about this time that electricity came to be in our part of the country. Garrett, being the more mechanically inclined of the two, saw an opportunity to expand their services. Garrett purchased a general electric refrigerator, and after working at the funeral home all day, took it out to show potential customers. After selling the first one, he ordered more and became a dealer for the General Electric Company in 1954. Along with electricity and appliances, indoor plumbing was becoming very popular. Lawrence Brothers Plumbing & Electric was formed to meet the growing needs of their customers.

The tradition of a family run business is still in place today with Garrett's son Garry and grandson, Trey, helping him with the day-to-day operations of Lawrence Brothers. Tommy Howell (who is just like family) helps with the day-to-day operations of Lawrence Funeral Home.

To meet the needs of a growing community, Lawrence Funeral Home expanded in 1986 to be able to continue to provide quality service. In January 2004, under the guidance and leadership of Garrett, ground was broken for a major expansion and renovation. A new Chapel will be added for funeral services and remodeling will take place in the existing facilities to better serve our friends and families.

In addition to work, Garrett is active in the Chapel Hill United Methodist Church, Lions Club, Masonic Lodge and enjoys water arobics. He married Jean Joyce. They have four children, Sue Carolyn, Emily, Vivian and Garry, along with seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren also keep him busy. Jean died December 2001.

Most people may associate the work Funeral Director with Garrett Lawrence. The words I associate with Garrett Lawrence are loving father, grandfather and wonderful father-in-law.

TAKING ONE FOR THE TEAM

Jacob Anderson took that to heart on April 20th while playing for the Eagleville Middle School Baseball team. Eagleville was playing McFadden and Jacob was at bat. The pitcher threw an inside pitch which caught Jacob in the left side below his 10-11th ribs. He took his base and even stayed on the field and ran the bases scoring a run. When he came into the dugout he had pain in his left side and could not go into the field. He went to his pediatrician, Dr. Little, the next day. Jacob was still having pain in his left side and a lot of stomach cramps. He had several blood tests and was sent the next day for an ultrasound and CAT Scan. These studies revealed that Jacob had lacerated his spleen. He was to stay at complete bed rest for the next two weeks. Jacob still wanted to know about baseball. That's right, he still wanted to get back out there. Dr. Little explained everything to Jacob so he would understand why he could not do any activity. We were advised the recovery time was 4-6 weeks. On Monday, May 24th, Dr. Little told Jacob he could return to his activities. He has returned full force into baseball and basketball. Jacob has not had any complications and is glad to be back into the "SWING" of things again.

Troop 123 Enjoys a Week at Camp Craig.

Boy Scout Troop 123 again attended residential camp this year at Boxwell Reservation in the Gallatin area June 27 through July 1st. Camp Craig offered the Troop members a camp site with all the comforts of home, well almost. The troop spent the week living in canvas tents, the sides raised to catch any breezes that blew, sleeping on cots placed on wooden platforms. Without the convenience of electricity, campers used flashlights and propane lanterns once the sun went down. Friendly raccoons and skunks wandered in the campsite, in search of food but rarely made themselves a nuisance. Nearby shower houses offered the opportunity to clean the day's dirt with hot water, if you were there early, cold if you were last in line. The large dining hall, which overlooks Old Hickory Lake offered camp food three times a day and some relief from the heat and humidity as it is air conditioned.

But that's camp and Boy Scout camp offers young men the week of a lifetime. Sunday evening officially began camp with a full campfire program provided by staff. Daily classes allowed the boys to learn and earn merit badges while experiencing the beauty of the 1500+ acres at Boxwell Reservation. The classes were taught in outdoor classrooms and many scouts completed requirements in first aid, swimming and water merit badges, camping merit badge, handicraft merit badges, and merit badges about nature. Outdoor classrooms lend to experiential learning as scouts immediately practiced a new skill or made use of new knowledge.

The repelling tower offered a bird's eye view of the pristine natural area and a quick trip down with the help of ropes and a belay partner. It is a highlight for many of the scouts. Other highlights were fishing excursions on the lake shore which edges the reservation and is accessible to Camp Craig camp sites and flag raising that began each day and flag lowering that concluded the day's activities.

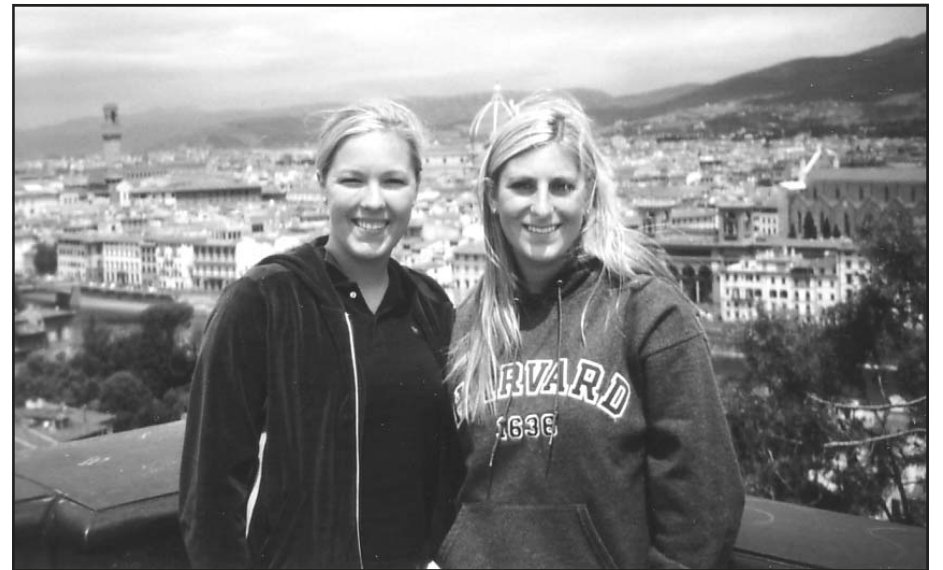

Friday evening presented the closing campfire where scouts were honored for their accomplishments and staff and campers said goodbye, at least until next summer. Good Job Troop 123 and the campers: Jared Davis, Nathan Cron, Garrett Pinkston, Jonathan Maxwell, Calvin Frost, Shaun Hawkins, Nathan Wilson, Randall Cooper. Adult leaders were Jeff Pinkston, Mike Hayes, and Don Davis.

Troop 123 will meet throughout the summer on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. at the Community Center. For additional information please contact Mike Hayes at 504-1851 or Don Davis at 274-3439.

- Congratulations to Suzanne McClaran she received her 30 year award for employment at Cavalry Bank.

- Bobbie Sue Shelton, Kristy and Taylor Bolin, Carol Ann, Blake and Brent Hodge and Ashley Hodge recently vacationed in Panama City Beach, Florida for a few days. Bobbie Sue and Blake returned home a day early to attend the George Jones Fan Club party held at George's home near

Franklin. They enjoyed a good meal, tour of his museum, which is located in his home, and a concert featuring George Jones and Ricky Headley, Sheriff of Williamson County.

- Bessie Mosley, Margaret Ryan, Anita Hargrove and Jane Shelton visited brother Whack Perrell at the Bedford County Nursing Home. Whack is recovering from a broken hip.

- Joe Carlton, Jr., Cindy and children Tiffany and Kyle have returned home to Eagleville. They purchased the home on the corner of Hwy 41A and Webb Road. Joe's eldest daughter, Kristy and husband Stephen Stingley and son Damian have also moved back and are at home on Elm Street. Welcome Back to Eagleville!

- Rev. Trey Lambert and Belinda Woodson attended the Tennessee United Methodist Annual Conference held at First United Methodist Church in Murfreesboro. They were delegates from Eagleville United Methodist Church.
- On the 18th of June Lynda & Alvin Sledge held a birthday and welcome home party. The birthday party was for Lynda's oldest son, Bill Steagall. Bill was 39. The welcome home was for Jeff Smotherman, Lynda's youngest son, who lives in Washington, DC. There were about 15 guest. A good time was enjoyed by all.

- The Perrell sisters along with other family; Bessie Mosley, Judy Frost, Andrea, Kenny and Gavin Cain, Margaret Ryan, Anita Hargrove, Jane Shelton, Polly and Joe Riggan, Randall, Paula, Alex, Megan and Brett Hutto enjoyed an afternoon together recently. First they watched Polly's grandson Alex play ball afterward they all enjoyed dinner at the Horton Park restaurant. When the sisters get together, there's always a good time had by all present.

Margaret's Helpful Hints

To get rid of itch from mosquito bites, try applying soap on the area and you will experience instant relief.

Dab a bit of perfume on the light bulb in any room to create a light scent when the light is on.

Stop a squeaky door by coating the hinge-pin with the petroleum jelly. No danger of dripping as with oil.

Splinter— Before resorting to tweezers or a needle, put scotch tape over the splinter, then pull it off. Scotch tape removes most splinters painlessly and easily.

Hawaiian Chicken

4-6 Chicken Breasts

Marinade:

1/4 c. soy sauce
1/2 c. + 2 T. dry sherry
1 1/2 c. unsweetened pineapple juice
1/4 c. red wine vinegar
1/4 c. + 2 T. sugar
1/2 tsp. garlic powder

Combine all ingredients and marinate chicken overnight.

Remove and grill, sauté or bake. Baste with marinade ONLY during the first several minutes of cooking. Top each breast with a slice of muenster or provolone cheese and broil just until cheese starts to melt.

ANGELA WOODALL

Buffalo Chicken Wings

Vegetable oil -- for frying
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup Louisiana Hot Sauce dash ground pepper
dash garlic powder
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 teas. paprika
1/4 teas. cayenne pepper
1/4 teas. salt
10 chicken wing pieces

Heat oil in a deep fryer to 375. You want just enough oil to cover the wings entirely -- an inch or so deep at least.

Combine the butter, hot sauce, ground pepper, and garlic powder in a small saucepan over low heat. Heat until the butter is melted and the ingredients are well-blended.

Combine the flour, paprika, cayenne powder, and salt in a small bowl.

If the wings are frozen, be sure to defrost and dry them. Put the wings in a large bowl and sprinkle the flour mixture over them, coating each wing evenly. Put the wings in the refrigerator 60-90 minutes. This will help the breading to stick to the wings when fried.

Put all the wings in the hot oil and fry 10 to 15 minutes or until some parts of the wings begin to turn dark brown. Remove from the oil to a paper towel to drain. Don't let them sit too long, because you want to serve them hot. Quickly put the wings in a large bowl. Add the hot sauce and stir, coating all of the wings evenly.

Serve with bleu cheese dressing and celery sticks on the side.

DEBBIE RYAN

If you want to see a beautiful vegetable garden, just go to the home of Jesse and Mary Rigsby located on Chapel Hill Pike. Each year the neighbors anxiously wait for Jesse (pictured above in his garden) to pass out delicious tomatoes, squash, cucumbers, okra and beans. He ends the garden season with watermelon for everyone.

Daycare Visit to City Hall

By Michelle Bennett

On Monday, June 14th, Just Like Home Daycare came to visit City Hall. They met with Mayor Barham, City Recorder Sherry Marsalis, and Executive Secretary Michelle Bennett. They had lots of questions and learned about what all the Mayor does and what goes on in City Hall. Shown below, the children make the trip back to daycare.

On Friday, June 18th, Eagleville Fireman Mike Bennett took Fire Engine #4502 to Just Like Home Daycare so the children could see and learn all about it. They had a great time. Mike let the children take a look inside and showed them how everything works.

Continuing from last month: Zoning / Legal Basis

- Have advance notification of the location and extent of the construction or authorization of any public street, building, park, ground, open space, or utility, whether publicly or privately owned, for the purpose of planning commission review and approval (TCA 13-4-104);

This broad power to review and comment on any public project is sometimes referred to as mandatory referral. The Tennessee Code states unequivocally that the planning commission shall be consulted prior to the construction or authorization of any project, and this includes private utilities. The law provides that all state, county, and local agencies and officials having jurisdiction over such projects must comply with the referral requirement. The purpose of this referral is to assure that public projects and their locations are in compliance with the general plan, and further, to assure coordination between various agencies of different levels of government. Compliance with the planning commission's recommendations is not mandatory since the legislative body (City Council) or other responsible authority (i.e., a school board) can override the planning commission. However, it does guarantee that the commission has the opportunity to comment. Failure to comply with this provision could, in case of a court challenge, delay a project or even jeopardize some all together.

- Prepare and adopt an official general plan

(TCA 13-4-201);

It shall be the function and duty of the planning commission to make and adopt a general (comprehensive) plan for the physical development of the municipality including any area outside its boundaries which bears a relationship to the planning of the municipality. The plan, as described in the legislation, is to show the planning commission's recommendations for the physical development of the area. The plan may include the general location, character and extent of the streets, bridges, waterways, parks, airports, public utilities, whether public or privately owned, and other purposes. In short, the general plan may cover any service the municipality might provide, as well as direction for many private activities. While the plan is not a legal instrument, the municipality does have ample power to implement it through a variety of means.

(To be continued next month)

Many thanks to Chief Jackson, the volunteer firemen, and Chief Stone plus the County deputies for their excellent assistance during the severe evening storm on May 30th – 31st. Your presence was re-assuring to many people. Thank you for the readiness and preparation you exhibited. We are very proud of you.

It is great to have Chief Stone back home following the death of this mother in Kentucky. In addition, while away, the Chief had to have emergency surgery. While away, Sheriff Jones and several deputies have been on patrol throughout our area. On behalf of the community, "thank you" to all of the men and women who represent the Sheriff's Department for your help and concern. We commend you!

The bid date for Hwy 99 has been moved to September, 2005, instead of 2004. Several major road projects in Rutherford County were also delayed, including Hwy 96. The utility companies will continue their work in preparation for this road improvement. Every effort on my part will continue along with our State delegation to see this project completed.

The Eagleville Bicentennial Public Library's Summer Reading Program has its biggest enrollment and participation ever. Fifty or more children are reading many books each week during months of June and July. The very popular "Story Time" begins Thursday, July 1st, at 2:00 p.m. for 5 Thursdays. Once again, very special guests are scheduled. My favorite...Snow Bird from Channel 4 on July 15th! You may recall the terrific summer last year with the programs and the coverage Channel 4 had recognizing our library. Congratulations to Librarian Debbie Turner, Nina Merritt, and all of the parents and guests who make these programs so wonderful.

As we enjoy July 4th with fireworks, family, patriotic music, food and fellowship, take time to reflect on the blessings of living in a free Country. God Bless America!

FFA Degree Recipients Backed By FCS Local Chapter Receives Recognition At State Convention

When it's spring in Tennessee, more than 2,000 FFAer's gather in Gatlinburg, Tenn. for the youth organization's annual convention. During the first few days of May, FFAers from across the Volunteer State attended a series of business sessions, presented proficiency programs, listened to motivational speakers and joined in on traditional FFA fellowship.

In addition, over 200 members were awarded the prestigious FFA State Degree which is provided to students who demonstrate extra-curricular achievements and success in their experiment programs. This Degree is the highest degree a state can bestow upon its members.

FFAers from the Eagleville FFA Chapter were among the members recognized and were at the convention to accept their award.

Joining them for the closing program were representatives from Farm Credit Services of Mid-America (FCS), a perennial sponsor of the FFA State Degree program. FCS is a $7.4 billion farmer-owned financial cooperative, making loans and leases to agribusinesses, farmers and rural resident in Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and Tennessee. FCS also provides crop insurance and other lines of insurance coverage. # A Step Back in Time - Pleasant Hill School

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

Pleasant Hill School, sometimes called "Chigger Ridge" and "Pumpkin Center," was located on Rocky Glade Road about four miles north of Highway 99. It was on the south side of the road just east of the intersection with Taylor Road. It was established in 1923 with 45-50 students attending and was built with lumber from the torn down Little Rock School. It was a two-room white weather boarded building for grades first thru eighth. According to the late Harrison Mosley who attended Pleasant Hill School and graduated from the eighth grade, there was a stage at one end of the room where chapel was held each morning for 5 or 10 minutes. When Harrison attended school, there were about 30 – 35 students enrolled most of the school years. The male students would take turns making the fire in the stove (for heat) in the winter months and also sweeping the floors. They were paid 5 cents a day. In the fall school would close for about 3 weeks for the families to get their cotton picked. He also remembered boys were often playing pranks. They would lay a crayon on the stove or mark on the side of the stove and as it melted there would be a strong smell and smoke. At other times the boys would take a pin and stick the girls that sat in front of them by sticking the pin through the crack of the seat.

Pleasant Hill School - About 1934

Teachers were (left) Francis McLain and (right) Vera Covington, principal. Students (not in order): Jim, Ala and Maude Ghee; Thomas, Alton Robert and Clyde Clark; Jack, Pitts, Edward, Allen and Gene Morgan; Gladys, Alfred, Eugene, Charlie and Fay Clark; Vedosa Hinton; Billie Hinson; Miles, Harrison, Aubrey, J.W., and Henry Mosley; Irene and Ruby Beasley; Clifford and Grady Rowland; Geneva Lester; Lula, George, Horace, Harold and Bell Tune; Maggie Mai, Audrey and Tilman Underwood; Lula and Susie Underwood; Hayes and Johnny McDaniel; Robert, Charles, Louise, Frances, and Mattie Morris; Elmer and Thomas Burns.

The first teachers were principal Georgia Lee Marable Pate who served four years, 1923 – 1927, and Elise Robinson. Others who taught there were Anna Campbell Morgan, Mary B. Prater Marable, Nannie Kelley Vaughan and Mary Frank Auberry. In 1931-32, Vera Covington began her teaching career there with Nannie Kelly Vaughan as principal. When Nannie Vaughan retired to raise a family, Vera Covington became principal and Frances McLain became the second teacher.

Because of consolidation of schools and the consequent decrease in small schools, by 1936 there were only 18 males enrolled in the fall with one teacher, Vera Covington. These students were: Grady Rowland; Alton, Robert and Clyde Clark; Alfred, Eugene, Charles and Fay Clark; Hayes and Johnny McDaniel; Pitts, Edward, Allen and Gene Morgan; Thomas Burns; Harrison, J. W. and Henry Mosley.

The Pleasant Hill School was consolidated with Rockvale and Eagleville Schools in 1938-39. On March 1, 1941, the County Board Of Education deeded to Mrs. H. V. Hall the one-acre of school property. The old school building is now rental property for a family dwelling and is presently owned by Mr. Harold Hall.

Annual Country Ham Breakfast

By Judy Mosley Frost

EAGLEVILLE TIMES Page 29

We also had "doodle gravy", grits casserole, fried corn, sausage, sliced tomatoes from Mama's garden, seedless watermelon, sweet rolls and muffins, banana pudding and I'm sure I've left out some items.

The food was blessed as we all were thankful for so much and especially a perfect day since it had rained the week previously and was to begin to rain again on Sunday. We figured Mammy and Daddy were doing some heavy negotiations "upstairs" for a good day for all of us.

An added attraction this year was the "Tiki Lounge" that was provided by Andrea. It was a porta-potty that was uniquely designed using a tropical theme. There was aroma therapy, candles, relaxation music for "inspiration", mints, hand lotion, a welcome mat and an inflatable palm tree to add to the aviance.

We gathered under the shade trees and ate together, shared stories together, laughed together, reflected together and even some tears were shared together.

Once everyone was sufficiently stuffed, the attention turned to our entertainment. We had a blend of guitars, stand up bass, banjos, mandolin, fiddles and "spoons". Sounds echoed, people sang along and clapped to the rhythm of the music. The band out-did themselves this year!

This was a significant gathering because it was one of my Daddy's last requests that "the breakfast was to go on because people enjoyed it so much and counted on the good time that was had". Somehow we joined together and made it happen without missing a beat. What a true blessing to have family and friends that stick together and make these wonderful times happen.

We have something that so many people would give any amount of money to have and it all just happens naturally. We love each other and stick together like glue. These past few weeks have been hard for my family but we've held on to each other and got through it.

So again, we made more wonderful memories for a lot of people with this breakfast. A lot of hard work, lots of steps back and forth, hours of preparation and planning, but most importantly---an enormous amount of love and devotion made this happen. Today, I know that lives were touched by the effort, hard work and love that went into making this tradition continue on.

College Grove Senior Center Goes Western For Special Visit By Woody Woodruff, Cowboy Poet

On July 1, College Grove Senior Enrichment Center is going Cowboy with a special noon performance by Woody Woodruff, Cowboy Poet and a Best Dressed Cowpoke and Cowgirl Contest. There will be a lunch scheduled at 11:30 a.m. that is open to the public.

Woodruff is quoted as "always having a passion for the west and the cowboy way of life. Be it movies, music, poetry or whatever. Ever since my high school days I have been writing, mostly birthday, Christmas and prank poems. I have always wanted to write poems on the west and cowboy way of life, so for a little over 3 years I have been doing just that." Woodruff released a CD of his original work in 2003 entitled Woody Woodruff: World Wide Unknown Poet, Vol. 1. Woodruff born in Hickman Co. Kentucky has lived in Texas and now resides in Centerville, TN where he works as a farm manager for Country Gold Farms which is a quarter horse farm owned by the legendary Country Music star, George Jones.

"Woody was a special guest at the Homer Dever Benefit Concert for the Center in March and read a few poems during the intermission between acts and it went over so well that we invited him to come back and do a reading for us, said Cherry Ralston, Program Director at the Center"

College Grove Senior Enrichment Center is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The Center offers educational and recreational classes to the public. For more information about classes or other scheduled special programs, call Cherry Ralston, Program Director at 615-368-7093.

Vacation Bible School and "The Glade"

The Rocky Glade Cumberland Presbyterian Church hosted its annual vacation bible school June 7th through the 11th. The children, whose ages ranged from 3 years old to 6th grade, participated in such activities as arts and crafts, bible lessons, and music.

A favorite of the children was the cross t-shirts. The teachers put tape on a plain white t-shirt in the shape of a cross and painted the bottoms of shoes and marked their shirts with "Jesus' footprints" and when the tape was peeled off, there was an image of a cross. The kids showed a lot of determination while working on these shirts.

The highlight of the kids' day was music time. They loved getting up on the risers in front of the teachers and showing off their skills.

Friday, the final day of Bible School was extra special. The kids all invited their parents and friends to come join them for a picnic. Weather threatened to spoil the plans but luckily it passed with no raindrops.

On Sunday, the week was ended with a special presentation for the parents and a special meal following the pro-
