Eagleville, Tennessee

The highest honor, Best of Show, went to Ricky White of Unionville.

On Saturday, July 8th the Park Committee's Car Show was held on the Eagleville School grounds and the future is bright for this event. The show itself featured 96 vehicle entries representing many areas of Tennessee and as well as towns in Georgia. Entries included trucks and cars, restored by their owners, and shined bright for the day. Hoods were raised to show off the pristine engines.

Along with the vehicle entries, Paul Rigsby, Nolensville's Chief of Police, brought his Dukes of Hazzard General Lee. Spectators at the show enjoyed seeing this icon from the early 1980's and many stopped and posed for a photo opportunity. The show even had its own Uncle Jesse who was dressed for the part by Milton Geasley

In addition to the parked Cars and Trucks the show had other favorite areas and attractions. AJ the DJ provided music and entertainment all day for the crowd and everyone enjoyed their contribution. One of the most popular attractions was the Hawaiian Ice booth. City activity committee members Melissa Buchanan and

Eagleville High School Student Returns From 20 day Trip To Mediterranean

Eagleville High School Junior, Christopher Jutkofsky recently returned from a 20 day long trip to the Mediterranean as a Student Ambassador. The trip began in Malta where he stayed with a local family for 5 days, spending time on the white sandy beaches and swimming in the warm Blue waters of the ocean. One of his memorable places was in the capital city of Valletta, where he was able to visit the fortress that once housed the Knights of Malta.

Then on to a ferry ride bringing them to the beautiful island of Sicily, here he spent the time exploring the churches and museums as well as tasting all that the area had to offer in the way of tasty cuisine. While there the group was able to visit a school and learn what a typical day would be like, then stopped at a pizzeria where they tried there hand at making hand tossed pizza. The ride up to Mount Etna saw snow on the mountains and views most spectacular. Once they sailed to the main land of Italy, the delegation stopped in Pompeii; to see the ancient Runes where one steps back in time as you walk through the intact buildings. Finally welcome to Roma, the Piazza Navona, and Parthenon, the Campo de Fiori, the Spanish steps and the Trevi Fountain, made famous in the movie La Dolce Vita. The Capital of Catholicism the worlds smallest state the Vatican, there he got to marvel at St. Peter's Basilica, which houses Michelangelo's Glorious Pieta' and the Sistine Chapel.

I asked Christopher what it felt like to step into the Coliseum, he told me it's smaller then it looks in pictures. Pisa where the famous tower stands was the next city and then off to Florence, the Tuscany region, famous for wine, and the birthplace of the Renaissance, the Duomo the tallest building in the city and the home of the Accademia Gallery that houses the Michelangelo's colossal statue "David".

France began with a tour of a perfume factory, to learn how exotic herbs and oils are turned into perfumes. The French Riviera, Cannes, and the small country of Monaco, "known around the world for its famous Grand Prix Raceway, next on to Paris, but not before stopping in Lyon the "Heart of France", where some of the best food in France is cooked. Finally arriving in Paris, they traveled the Subway through the city stopping at the Louvre to see the Mona Lisa. The last 2 day were packed with trips to the Palace of Versailles, Notre Dame Cathedral, and last but certainly not the least unforgettable the Eiffel Tower.

If you're a soccer fan, you will appreciate that Christopher was Europe during the World Cup and was traveling through Germany, Italy and France during the games. While in Italy every time the Italians scored a goal he and his friends ran through the streets waving flags and rooting on the team. Christopher came away from this trip with new friendships, a new appreciation of other cultures and as well as an appreciation of home and what we have here.

Christopher would like to thank the following people who helped to make this trip

Summer Exercise: How To Keep Cool In Hot Weather

Planning to exercise in hot weather? Stay safe by drinking enough fluids, wearing proper clothing and timing your workout to avoid extreme heat.

In the excitement of a pickup basketball game or the relaxation of a friendly round of golf, you might not notice the temperature rising but your body will. If you exercise outdoors in the heat, use caution and common sense to prevent heat-related illnesses.

How hot weather affects your body

Exercising in hot weather puts extra stress on your cardiovascular system. Both the exercise itself and the air temperature increase your body temperature. To dissipate heat, more blood circulates through your skin. This leaves less blood for your muscles, which increases your heart rate. If the humidity is high, your body faces added stress because sweat doesn't readily evaporate from your skin — which only pushes your body temperature higher.

Under normal conditions, your skin, blood vessels and perspiration level adjust to the heat. But these natural cooling systems may fail if you're exposed to high temperatures and humidity for too long. The result may be a heat-related illness, such as heat cramps, heat exhaustion or heatstroke.

Keep it cool

To avoid heat-related illnesses, keep some basic precautions in mind.

Take it slow. If you're used to exercising indoors or in cooler weather, take it easy at first. As your body adapts to the heat, gradually increase the length and intensity of your workouts. If you have a chronic medical condition or take medication, ask your doctor if you need to take additional precautions.

Drink plenty of fluids. Your body's ability to sweat and cool down depends on adequate rehydration. Drink plenty of water while vou're working out — even if you don't feel thirsty. If you're planning to exercise intensely or for longer than one hour, consider sports drinks instead. These drinks can replace the sodium, chloride and potassium you lose through sweating. Avoid drinks that contain caffeine or alcohol, which actually promote fluid

Dress appropriately. Lightweight, loose fitting clothing promotes sweat evaporation and cooling by letting more air pass over your body. Avoid dark colors, which can absorb the heat. A light-colored hat can limit your exposure to the sun.

Avoid midday sun. Exercise before 10 a.m. or after 6 p.m., when it's likely to be cooler outdoors. If possible, exercise in the shade or in a pool.

Wear sunscreen. Sunburn decreases your body's ability to cool itself.

Have a backup plan. If you're concerned about the heat or humidity, stay indoors. Work out at the gym, walk laps at the mall or climb stairs inside an air-conditioned building.

Play it safe

Stop exercising at the first hint of a heat-related illness. Signs and symptoms may include:

Weakness, Headache, Dizziness, Muscle cramp, Nausea or vomiting,

If you suspect a heat-related illness, get out of the heat. Drink water, and wet and fan your skin. If you don't feel better within 30 minutes, contact your doctor. If you develop a fever higher than 102 F or become faint or confused, seek immediate medical help. Regular exercise is important but don't let your workouts put your health at risk.

Eagleville Express Wins Championship By Lisa Jutkofsky

Beverly Covington wrote me a letter nominating the Eagleville Express Coach-Pitch team as our home grown players of the Week. This is what she said:

The Eagleville Express coach pitch team went to finals at Lascassas on Tuesday night and took the Championship, beating out Kittrell Blue Devils in the first game of the night with a 15-13 win.

These amazing kids took the field again to play the Leanna Flames who by the way were undefeated up to that point. The Express took that second game with a 15-9 win. Once again they took the field against the Flames Playing into their 5th hour of ball and their third game back to back and once again against the Flames claiming the Championship in a 14-13 win.

Being how I was the printer for their team uniforms I can tell you that their name and logo on the shirts that they chose was Eagleville Express with a steam engine logo and I do believe you could say without a doubt they were definitely the "little team that could"

We would love to see these kids who played so hard and achieved their goal to be the best featured in the Eagleville Times.

This team showed that with a lot of hard work and drive you can accomplish anything.

Join me in congratulating our hard working team of the week. If you would like to nominate a player or team for the player of the week please email me at:

Natvny@chaoswebdesign.com.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

BY BOBBIE SUE SHELTON

Herbert Redmond, a 1960 graduate from Eagleville High School, is the son of Irene Redmond Lorance and the late Woodrow Redmond. He was born in June 1942 and has lived in the middle Tennessee area his lifetime. Herbert attended school at Eagleville all twelve years. After graduation he worked at General Electric in Murfreesboro for eleven years, after which he went to work with L & N Railroad. After a serious work related accident he entered into the workforce again by working part time at Emery's Fine Art Gallery in Murfreesboro. He soon ventured out on his own opening up a custom framing business, Frames and More. Herbert worked from his home four or five years, opened a shop in Eagleville for a while and then moved his business back to Murfreesboro at 1011 Memorial Boulevard where he has been for almost eleven years. In 1970 Herbert married Elaine Davis and they make their home in Murfreesboro.

Herbert makes custom frames for keepsake items, prints, certificates and for almost anything the customer wants to frame. His most unusual items have been rattlesnake skins and turkey tail-feathers. One snakeskin he framed was about six feet long and came from Smith County, Tennessee. Interesting items I noticed in his shop was an 1865 "Cleveland Leader" newspaper that contained an article about Lincoln's assassination and a 1963 Nashville Banner with headlines "Second Man Questioned In Slaying of President Kennedy". Framed crochet items and mirrors as well as many portraits and prints were waiting for customers to pick up. Herbert and his wife, Elaine are well known for their excellent work and their customers feel very confident to leave their precious and valuable keepsake items in their care to be framed.

Twenty-Third Russell Reunion

Our newest additin, Jack Faulk, with Great-Nana Emma Russell Molder.

The 23rd Russell Reunion was held June 25th at the home of Jack & Shirley Williams. Those attending, that numbered 79, were from the families of Dorothy Foster, Lorene Rigsby, Lucille Moore, Emma Molder, Lula Mae Johnson and Shirley Williams. Also attending were neighbors and friends of family members.

Our family increased a little this year. We had four additions, two were by marriage and two by birth. One of the births is five month old Jack Faulk, son of Brad and Jennifer Faulk and great grandson of Emma Russell Molder.

The Moon Walk and badminton were enjoyed by the little ones. The Snow Cones were enjoyed by everyone - young and old. There were horseshoes for the almost lazy and swings for the very lazy ones. After the delicious meal, we caught a few in the house napping.

The coming year will be an anxious year for this family. Monte Moore, son of Jimmy & Patsy Moore and Marie Moore; and grandson of Lucille Russell Moore, will be leaving next week for sixty days of training at Camp Shelby, Mississippi and then to Iraq for a year or longer. Our prayers will be with Monte, his wife Robin and daughter Jesa.

To top off a wonderful day, 19 stayed for a pizza party that night. After the pizza party, a firework display was presented. Thanks to Nicholas, Melonie and Jack Williams, Jr. for providing the fireworks.

A Step Back in Time

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

St. Paul United Methodist Church at Rover was first organized in 1868 in a brush arbor 1 1/2 miles from Rover on Kingdom Church Road near the area known as the Morton Woods. This property belonged to the Byler family, early settlers in the Rover area. The first pastor was Reverend Rippletos from north Illinois. Without church buildings, the pastors of the early churches met and conducted services in member's homes.

The first Rover Methodist Church building was built in 1874 on approximately an acre of ground purchased from John Arnold, a great uncle of the late Russell Puckett. The cost of the land was $100.00 and the church trustees named on the deed were: Allen Wade, Sterling Brown, J. B. Beasley, Robert Hall, T. F. Bullock and N. C. Maxwell. The church was built by the Crick family, Dallas who served as foreman over the construction and his sons, Will, Tom, Oscar, Edd and Maynard. Many monetary gifts, labor, lumber and building materials was given by members and friends of the community.

In early 1900 the movement for a new church building was begun by a donation from church member Tom Bullock. In 1904 the old church was torn down and the present church built. Reverend H. P. Keathley was the pastor at this time. The Crick brothers Will, Tom, Oscar, Edd and Maynard were the contractors on this church also.

In 1942 when better roads was needed and the highway, now known as 41 A, was being constructed, the church was moved back to make room for the road. At this time, four new Sunday school rooms were added on the back of the church. Several members and community friends gave trees for sawed lumber on this building project. Also in 1942 when St. Paul and Eagleville Methodist Church was put on the same charge, the pastor, R. S. Qualls, moved into the parsonage at Eagleville. St. Paul and Eagleville Methodist were on the same charge until 1957 when Eagleville became a station church and St Paul was again in need of a parsonage for their preacher to live. With the help of other churches on their charge, Maxwell Chapel and Zions Hill, St. Paul decided to build a new one and on November 15th 1957 the foundation was laid and on January 30th, 1958, Reverend Alex and wife Maurene Nichols moved in, being the first pastor to live in the new Rover parsonage.

Rover Methodist Church Built 1904

Over the years the church was updated with modern conveniences as they became possible. A Delco system furnished lights for the church for several years before electric lights were added. A gas heating system installed in 1948 for the cost of $1200. In 1959 an electric Hammond organ was purchased for the church. Several members and friends gave donations to help with the cost of the organ in memory of their families who had passed away. Many other items have been donated through the years by church members, their families, and by fund raisers sponsored by the church and Sunday School classes.

The church grew in attendance until more Sunday school rooms were needed. In 1953 a basement was built under the existing church building by digging out under the main structure with a bulldozer and adding supports as they worked. Additional dirt was carried out by wheelbarrows. This provided three rooms, a small kitchen and storage closets. This effort was made possible by the faithful leadership of Reverend Cliff Ingram. The wood pulpit built by Tom Crick in 1904 and all the pews in the church were refinished 1962. The pews were purchased in Jackson, Tennessee and shipped by train to Chapel Hill soon after the church was built in 1904. In 1963 the inside of the church was remodeled. Sheet rock walls were put up and a hardwood floor was installed. An entrance hall and study with a library were built onto the east side of the church. The Friendship Class in memory of Peggy Jean Smotherman Blanton donated the cross on the front of the church in 1976. The care this building has received shows the love this congregation and the community has for it by all the additions and improvements made over the years.

On July 22, 1990 a committee was appointed by the chairman of the administrative board, Jimmy Sorrells to investigate the possibility of a fellowship hall and present a plan to the members of the church. Franklin Blanton served as chairman of the committee, along with Horace crick, Bill Ghee and Harold Spence. The plan was presented to the administrative board on November 4, 1990; the members voted and approved the plan. Work began on November 5, 1990. After a joint effort by many, the building was completed in February 1991. The fellowship hall was dedicated during the service on March 3, 1991. Reverend Bill Rogers was pastor during this time.

During the summer, 1999 a covering was built over the front entrance to the fellowship hall that provides protection from weather. Franklin Blanton and his sons, Thomas Carroll and Ricky volunteered their labor to build this addition.

In the spring of 2004 faithful members of St. Paul met to discuss the possibility of installing stained glass windows in the sanctuary. Members donated funds for all the windows in memory and honor of friends and family. When the Stained Glass Studio measured for the windows, they were amazed to find how true each window was to each other. In other words, the carpentry skills of the Crick Brothers were exact and excellent and their work still remained in tact for one hundred years.

St. Paul United Methodist Church

St. Paul United Methodist Church was organized 128 years ago and descendents of the church's forefathers are still in attendance. In 2004 the congregation and friends celebrated the 100th anniversary of their present day church building with a homecoming. Booklets on the church history was compiled by Amy Fulton Martin and her mother Willeen Bullock Fulton and given to the congregation at this celebration. They gave credit to the late Minnie Ellen Blanton for gathering and recording much of the church history. I also want to credit Minnie Ellen, Amy and Willeen for their work and for keeping the St. Paul Methodist Church history alive for future generations.

St. Paul is very fortunate by having four members that has entered into the ministry. They include Wallace Rowland, Gene Taylor, Tom Lamb and Jim Sorrells.

Inside view of St. Paul

Notes: Reverend Virgil Pafford was pastor at St. Paul for two years 1891-1893. In 1986 during the Tennessee Homecoming celebrations, Reverend Pafford's daughter, Virginia Pafford Adams and other family members from McLemoresville Tennessee returned to Rover and attended the all day celebration on Saturday Aug. 4th, 1986 and also the church services on Sunday at the Rover Baptist Church, a joint service with the St. Paul Methodist Church. Mrs. Adams was born while her father was pastor in Rover but moved away when she was 2 years old. This was her first visit back to Rover, her birthplace, in 92 years.

Reverend R. S. served as Pastor 1928-1932 and 1939-1942: Quote from a letter written in 1986 from Reverend Qualls: A couple of young people came to get married, after the ceremony was finished he asked, "How much do I owe you," I said "ever how much you think she is worth." He handed me a quarter and they went on their happy way.

The St. Paul Methodist Church numbers are not large, but this small group, which remains, is strong in their spirit and commitment to the building of the Lord's Kingdom through their work and prayers.

Slow Down

Have you ever watched kids on a merry-go-round, or listened to rain slapping the ground? Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight, or gazed at the sun into the fading night? You better slow down,

don't dance so fast,

time is short, the music won't last.

Do you run through each day on the fly, when you ask "How are you?", do you hear the reply?

When the day is done,

do you lie in your bed,

with the next hundred chores running through your head?

You better slow down,

don't dance so fast

time is short, the music won't last.

Ever told your child,

we'll do it tomorrow,

and in your haste, not seen his sorrow?

Ever lost touch,

let a good friendship die,

'cause you never had time to call and say "hi".

You better slow down,

don't dance so fast

time is short, the music won't last.

When you run so fast to get somewhere, you miss half the fun of getting there, When you worry and hurry though your it is like an unopened gift thrown away. Life is not a race.

so take it slower,

hear the music before the song is over.

FLAT CREEK ICE CREAM SUPPER 100+ YEARS OLD

By Bobbie Sue Shelton

On Saturday, July 15th, 2006, "Down On The Creek" in Flat Creek Tennessee (Williamson County), a tradition of 100+ years will take place. The annual ice cream supper, a much-supported event, will begin at 4 p.m. Hamburgers, Hotdogs, Country Ham Sandwiches, Homemade Cake, Pies and Ice Cream is on the menu. Entertainment by Williamson County Sheriff, Ricky Headley and the Pure County Band will strike up approximately at 4:30 pm.

This enjoyable event evolved from a necessity for a very prominent family, the Corlettes, their friends and neighbors. Robert B. Corlette (b. Aug. 10 1762) on the Isle of Man. He went to Ireland and married Mary. They came to America, making their way to North Carolina. In about 1814 Robert, Mary and other members of the Corlette family arrived in Williamson County Tennessee and purchased many acres of land from the George McLain and Tom Wilson, North Carolina grants, all on Flat Creek. John C., son of Robert and Mary, married and had 10 children. Their youngest child, a son, Meredith (b. Nov. 20, 1851 d. 1933) married Nettie Barker of Burwood. Meredith, along with his friends and neighbors built an icehouse on the Corlette farm. In the late 1890's during the winter months when the streams and ponds were frozen, they would chop the ice and move it to the ice house where it was stored for future use. The elderly and sick in the community were first to receive ice whenever needed.

About this time, ice cream became new on the scene. An ice cream festival was planned at the Flat Creek schoolhouse and ice from the Corlette icehouse was to be used. The date was set, the 3rd Saturday in July and this date continued annually each year while the popularity grew.

In later years as ice became more plentiful from various sources, people would freeze their ice cream at home and carry it to the school house along with coal oil lanterns which was hung on a wire fence or rope stretched from tree to tree for lighting purposes. Keeping the same date, the 3rd Saturday in July, this event attendance has grown to 1200-1500 people.

Meredith Corlette sold his farm to Ben Tomlin where his children were born. The Tomlin family sold the farm about 1930 and moved to Eagleville.

Some of the Corlette descendants moved to Illinois and on to Missouri. In a recent phone call received by Ennis Wallace, a great-granddaughter of Meredith Corlette, who lives in Edward, Missouri related to him how her father and neighbor built an ice house in the 1930s in Missouri just as Grandpa had done in Tennessee in the late 1890s.

If you want to attend a 100+-year-old historic event, eat homemade ice cream and hear good music, make plans to attend the Flat Creek Ice Cream supper, July 15th, 2006 near the Community Center in Flat Creek, Tennessee.

Citizens of the Month - Charles & Evelyn Williams

how this day was going to change her life!

After the potatoes were dug, she and her aunt would go to the picnic. She notices a girl friend sitting in the car with a cute little guy; goes over to talk with her while she eats her hamburger and gets ready to skate. She wasn't interested in the guy, but when he said, "that looks good, how about going over to the stand and getting us a burger and drink?" Of course Evelyn said, "OK." He gives her the money and she brings the food to them and then she goes on to the gym to skate.

55 YEARS AGO July 4th, 1951 AT THE ROCKVALE PICNIC

Tuesday, July 4, 2006, was a day for Charles & Evelyn Bryant Williams, to reminisce of this date in 1950. They met for the first time at "The Rockvale Picnic" which was the biggest thing happening in our neighborhood. "Hurry and get the potatoes dug, so we can go to the picnic."

Evelyn's most exciting thing was roller skating in the old gym, no matter how hot it was, and eating hamburgers, which you couldn't have any time you wanted. What a treat! But this year was a little different. She didn't know

A few months later on a Saturday afternoon, a mutual friend Curtis (Dago) Smotherman and Charles stopped by Evelyn's house on their way to Murfreesboro. She was outside, so they talked a few minutes and the boys went on to the big city to ride around and around the square. What else was there to do?

A few weeks later Charles stopped by Evelyn's house, (no phones) and asked her to go to the movies with him. She had to ask her parents, Ernest and Beulah Bryant. Evelyn was only 15 at the time. Her parents said, "yes, but had to be home by ten o'clock" and they were.

The next week the Old Leb Methodist church teens were going skating at the Shelbyville skating rink. Several teenagers in the community attended Old Leb, including Charles. Some of the girls invited Evelyn to go along, so off to the skating rink. They were piled in a pick-up truck with a topper on it. It was getting into wintertime and sitting close together was fine. Especially coming home sitting next to Charles and holding hands.

Evelyn's parents knew Charles parents, Jim T. and Mary Williams of Link. That helped a little! Charles and Evelyn dated all winter, sometimes going to town and going to Red Rose and eating a hamburger and milkshake, but Evelyn's dad thought they were getting too serious. He told her, "she couldn't go with him anymore unless she went out with other friends going along," so one night they planned a night out. Charles had a friend to pick up Evelyn and meet him some place and they would go to the "Starlite Drive-in or just ride around. At 10 o'clock he would take her home and her parents would already be in bed. This finally got old so they decided it was time for them to get married.

The Midland Baptist Church teens were having a hayride on Saturday night, June 7th, 1952. Charles' plans were for a friend, James Jacob Morton, to pretend he was going to be taking Evelyn to the hayride. Just before dark, Mr. & Mrs. Bryant go to Midland Store to play rook, a Saturday night ritual. Evelyn is left at home waiting for her date. She packs her clothes and waits for James Morton to come. When he arrives she tells him what their plans are but he knows nothing about it. Charles had not filled James in on all of the details, because he thought he might not want to get involved. He was very upset and said, "If you do that, I will never come and pick you up again". Charles had made plans for Sam Pinkston (his brother-in-law) and a neighbor (Clarence Cunningham) to take them to Rossville, Georgia, to get married.

Things worked out OK. They all arrived in Rossville at about 1 o'clock AM, got the Justice of the Peace out of bed and were married, even though the thought Evelyn was a little young. He asked her how old she was and she said, "18". He said "you look a little young", but he married them anyway, and took either $2 or $4 dollars and said, "til death do ye part."

Charles had some boys go up to Mr. Bryant's house around midnight to tell him they had gone to get married. He was upset as any parent would be, but after awhile he got over it. Mr. Bryant's brother, Charlie, had worked with Charles and gave him a good name and that helped a lot.

Charles and Evelyn moved to Mr. Bryant's rental house and farmed for him for two years. By this time their first daughter, Kathy, was born. Times were hard and Charles went to work for Roscoe Brown's Heating & Air. Then their second daughter, Mary Ann was born. After five years with Roscoe Brown, he went to General Electric and retired from there in 1985.

Their daughter, Kathy is married to Carl Davis of Christiana. They have two children, Kim and Jason. Kim is married to Daughters, Mary Ann and Kathy - Christmas 1961.

Chris Wilkinson of Christiana. They have three children, Carly, Eli and Dylan.

Their daughter, Mary Ann is married to Mike Ryan, son of Margaret Ryan of Eagleville and they have two boys, Phillip and Stephen.

Charles and Evelyn says time has passed SO FAST. Fifty-four years of marriage on June 8, 2006. They are still active on the farm, with cattle to keep them busy, but they count their blessings. They have been blessed beyond measure and they thank God.

JUST LOOK WHAT ROCKVALE PICNIC'S CAN DO FOR YOU!!

Charles & Evelyn, still working on the farm (below).

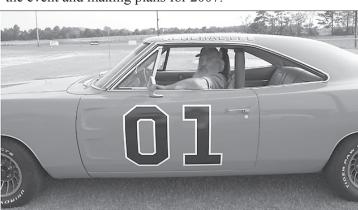

Kim Baehr worked non-stop all day dishing out the icy treats For those who were hungry the concession stand provided good food and refreshments. It was efficiently operated by volunteers Joyce Jones, Bill Tollett, Chris Lynch, Jean & Jimmy Lamb, Jeff & Kelly Mooneyham, Jimmy & Lori Beard, Troy Horner, Nancy Marlin, and David & Peggy Rigsby. Children found a way to stay cool. A $2.00 pass allowed kids unlimited play on the inflatable water slide and wading pool.

The Best of Show was a difficult choice to make for the 5 teams of judges with 2 judges per team. Although it was a close call the 5 foot Best of Show trophy was awarded to Ricky White from Unionville with his 66 gold Chevy Nova. In total 52 trophies were presented to recognize excellence. As part of the event, a brand new ATV, donated by David Turner, was given away during the car show. Chances on the ATV were available at various events through the spring and summer. Herbert Crick of Eagleville had the winning ticket and was awarded the ATV.

The show was definitely a hit. It was fun and raised funds for the City Park. All venues at the Show benefited the Park and totaled over $5,000.00. Because of the matching funds grant, that $5,000.00 actually means $10,000.00 of revenue for Park projects. The next project slated for funds and implementation is the playground. The equipment has been ordered. Once paid for, installation can begin.

A Car Show is an event that is great fun to attend and participating is great fun; but it takes effort and planning to be successful. Jeff Mooneyham, Ronnie Hill and Payton Hill were a key force behind the 2006 Show. Months before the show, they spent many hours in preparation and put in a long hard week just prior to the event. Jeff & Jeanese Shanks used their knowledge and expertise to lend a hand for the event. They helped on much of the organization on the day of the show. And everyone learned a great deal from this, the first Car Show event to benefit the park. Many people offered great ideas, feedback, and suggestions to make next years show bigger and better for those who bring their vehicles and for the fans who come to see them. The Park Committee is already busy evaluating the event and making plans for 2007.

To The Sponsors

The Eagleville City Park Committee gratefully thanks all of the many sponsors and supporters who generously donated to make the car show possible. Without your help, the committee could not have accomplished this successful event. For the citizens of the community, we hope to soon have a park that will bring enjoyment for many generations to come.

Garden Thyme With Tee By Tee Billingsly

Gardening during the last two weeks of July in our area:

Continue deadheading.

Yellowing leaves could mean spider mites are present.

Do not plant or prune.

Killing pest, according to the almanac, is best done between July 26-30. I need all the help I can get, so I follow the almanac.

Fertilize with 5-10-15.

Spray pyracantha, azalea, camellia for spider mites, scale, lacebug etc with Orthene or Sevin.

Cut away old woody raspberry and blackberry canes that won't fruit

Clip out sprouts that go straight up in fruit trees.

AN ALUMNUS RETURN

By Thomas Brannon

Out Rockvale's southern border the glory of you and I Still stood our alma mater but now about to die.

I went to see our ole schoolhouse standing all alone. No children running and playing they had all gone home.

I parked in the driveway to take a look once more I walked up the four long steps and in through the double door.

On my left, the school office with the principal's desk and chair On the right, the small library but all her shelves were bare.

I walked through the auditorium and stood gazing at the bell Thinking if these walls could talk, the stories they could tell.

The classrooms all were empty and the blackboards were bare But the ghost of all the teachers still lingered in the air.

I could almost hear them saying, with a smiling face, "Children, settle down and take your proper place".

"See the test on the board you will take today Get out your pencil and paper and put all books away".

I seem to hear the class bell calling the children to their class Hear footsteps in the hallway and laughter as all went passed.

And from the little music room, just across the hall, Audrey on the piano playing that famous "Wabash Cannonball".

I looked at that old stage where many entertained their guests And that old green curtain proudly supporting dear ole R.H.S.

And all the forty-five graduating classes that had passed by And on each face the smile would read "I am from Rockvale High".

Old Rockvale never turned one down you took us one and all If we didn't pass in the Spring, you were still waiting in the Fall.

You gave us all our start in life we owe it to you. Born 1927, died in 1972.

Through cracked and dirty windowpanes, I gazed with a special glare Where joyful laughter once was heard on a campus that now is bare.

When that big round ball strikes these walls, whenever that may be. Each brick that is broken will break a piece of me.

I walked out to the shadow of the maple, under skies so blue So long, so long old Rockvale School I bid farewell to you.

A real true friend you have been you sure have served your place Now I say our last good-bye with tears running down my face.

I look out over your campus thinking of happy days gone by When one day a year all parents joined us here upon the Fourth of July.

I walked back down the driveway thinking of another day. Climbed up in my pickup truck and slowly drove away.

4th of July Weekend Activities

A shopper loads up at the meat sale at Henry's Grocery. The sale is becoming a popular occurrence that the community looks forward to. BBQ, ribs and hot dogs are grilled and sold, on the spot, at a great cost.

Clyde waits for his treat as he sits in the hot sun atop Richard Hale's truck while Richard goes in for lunch at 3-Corner's Market in Unionville. Clyde is owned by Gary Garney of Lewisburg.

Tammy Watters and Donna Hood, just one of the many yardsale events occurring over the 4th of July weekend, had a great turnout. Once the building being renovated in the background is completed, Tammy and Donna will be opening their antique shop, DH Interiors, at this location on Hwy 99 in Eagleville.

The Heart of Our Youth

What a blessing I received Saturday. It really lets you know how much John was loved and still is. Everybody had a story about John, even the ones that just knew him as the guy that rode the golf cart.

Lots of people feel these day's that our youth are not like we were when we were young. Let me tell you right now that they are wrong. I'd like to share two stories. The young men carrying groceries to the cars would get a tip. Then would give the tip to John's fund.

One little boy {I guess about 8} was setting in the car waiting for his Mom to come out of the store. Next thing I knew he was standing in front of me, looking straight in my eyes and asked "are you having fun?" Before I could say a word he said "I only have a dollar, will that help John?" What lump came in my throat, as I tried to hold the tears back I said "sure, more than you think". He just smile and dropped the dollar in and walked back to the car. As he open the door he looked back and gave one of the biggest smiles you've every seen. God Bless Our Youth!!!!! With the help of John's friends I was able to collect $320.00 Thanks. Uncle Sonnv

Margaret's Helpful Hints

Drag your nails across a bar of soap before working in the garden, the soap stops the undersides of your nails from getting dirty. Or, just wear gloves.

To remove white water marks from furniture or varnished surfaces, apply mayonnaise to spot, rub in let stand an hour, then remove with soft cloth.

Church Bulletins

Thank God for church ladies with typewriters. These sentences actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced in church services:

- The Fasting & Prayer Conference includes meals.
- The sermon this morning: "Jesus Walks on the Water." The sermon tonight: "Searching for Jesus."
- Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.
- The peacemaking meeting scheduled for today has been canceled due to a conflict.
- Don't let worry kill you off let the Church help.
- For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.
- Next Thursday, there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.
- Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.
- A bean supper will be held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Music will follow
- At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be "What Is Hell?"
 Come early and listen to our choir practice.
- Eight new choir robes are currently needed due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some older ones.
- The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility. Potluck supper Sunday at 5:00 PM - prayer and medication to follow.
- Ladies Bible Study will be held Thursday morning at 10 AM. All ladies are invited to lunch in the Fellowship Hall after the B. S. is done.
- The pastor would appreciate it if the ladies of the congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday.
- Low Self Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday at 7 PM. Please use the back door.
- The eighth-graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the Church basement Friday at 7 PM. The congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.
- Weight Watchers will meet at 7 PM at the First Presbyterian Church. Please use large double door at the side entrance.
