CELEBRATING THE FREEDOM OF OUR COUNTRY

Marvin Williams PFC
Btry F114 Field Arty WWI

November 11, 2003 we celebrate another Veterans Day and honor all those who have served in the armed forces, both in times of peace and times of conflict. November 11 is the designated day as it commemorates the signing of the Armistice on November 11, 1918 at 11:00 a.m., ending World War I. It was known as Armistice Day until after World War II when it was changed to Veterans Day. Until sometime in the 1950's American Legion posts sold "poppies" to commemorate Armistice Day and many citizens wore red poppies in their lapels on November 11 to honor those who fought. Although since then peace has been interrupted many times in many parts of the world, all of us continue to look towards a time and a world where there is no armed conflict and men, women, and children live without the fear of war.

This year as in past years, an assembly at Eagleville School recognizes and honors those who have served. The National Anthem and other patriotic songs are part of the ceremony. The Jr. ROTC presents the Colors and each service person is named and recognized. Area churches also recognize those who have preserved and defended our country during their times of worship with songs which celebrate the liberties and freedoms of our country.

The Eagleville Times is proud to dedicate the November issue to the Veterans who have lived or live in this area. This special edition of the Eagleville Times was mailed to over 6100 homes reaching persons in the larger Eagleville, Rockvale, College Grove, Triune, and Unionville communities and surrounding areas.

Members of these communities have served and continue to serve in the armed forces both during times of peace and times of conflict, often with great sacrifice. We are proud to publish the photos of our Hometown Heroes. These men and women as well as those not pictured deserve our respect and admiration and our gratitude for protecting all that we value and our freedoms. Veterans we salute your love of country and commitment to preserving America.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY - BUILDING THE HOUSE OF FAITH

Members and friends of Rocky Glade Cumberland Presbyterian Church

On September 20th at 5:30 am, members and friends of Rocky Glade Cumberland Presbyterian Church met at 415 Castlevue Court in Murfreesboro to start the first leg of the first Habitat for Humanity house to be completely built in one week. It was also the first handicapped accessible house built in Rutherford County.

The experience was tiring but rewarding. Some members were experienced in construction, but most had never done anything even related to construction. Some members worked all day, while others could only work Saturday morning, or came by in the afternoon. There were also members who brought lunch. The cooperation and the production we witnessed made us all so excited and satisfied.

The missionary project that the church committed itself was one we had looked forward to all summer. We completed the framing, installing the windows and doors, decking and tar papering the roof and putting vinyl siding on one end of the house. In spite of some snags such as missing materials, we completed our part by 7:00 pm. Other teams followed us to completely finish this three-bedroom house in only one week.

It was quite a learning experience for most of us, but working together for a family with a son confined to a wheelchair was so rewarding. It was more than worthwhile.

The house was dedicated and the key turned over to the new owners September 27th at 1:00 pm. The new owners had worked 400 hours to earn their right to purchase the house interest free. Professionals who also had volunteered their time supervised everything.

Though a small church, we always have some project to help others and this one was truly one we shall always cherish.

CITIZEN OF THE MONTH

John Redmond

Small towns are known for colorful characters, and Eagleville is no exception. John Redmond is perhaps most easily recognized cruising through town in his golf cart waving to friends and visiting the merchants in Eagleville. He is a regular at the Dairy Bar, opens up Joyce's Beauty Shack for her on Thursdays, and counts those who work at the Drug Center as friends.

John Redmond, the son of Irene Lorange, born in 1941 is the oldest of eight children. He remains close to his four sisters, Virginia, Betty, Jessie and Barbara and two surviving brothers Herbert and Larry. His brother Jimmy is deceased and missed by this close-knit family. John has two daughters, Jamie and Emily and one very cute two-year-old granddaughter, Occoe.

John grew up in Eagleville and attended all twelve years at Eagleville School. While in high school he worked at Howard Marshall's Grocery Store. Following graduation, John was employed at Genesco and Colonial Bread Company. He then worked at the Coca-Cola Company for 10 years.

In the late 1960's, John reported for active duty with the U.S. Army and eventually was sent to Viet Nam. On December 31, 1967 the unit he was assigned to was patrolling a roadway. Around 1:00 a.m. the unit was hit with an RPG round. Eighteen of the soldiers in the unit were killed. John was seriously wounded and was burned over a large portion of his body.

On January 6, 1968 John's family in Tennessee was notified that he had been killed in action. Devastated, the family mourned the loss of brother, son and father. On January 23, the family was notified again that John had lost his life. Confusion now invaded the families' mourning and uncertainty about the circumstances of his death surfaced.

At the same time, John was a half a world away in Southeast Asia beginning the slow recovery from the injuries he received. Finally on February 2, 1968, John regained consciousness and was able to communicate to his caregivers. Joyfully, on February 27, 1968 the family received the news that John was alive.

Over the next year, John was treated in hospitals in Japan, Ft. Sam Houston, and Nashville. He received two purple hearts for his service in the Army and he eventually came home to Eagleville.

John leads an active life, is often on the go, and makes friends wherever he is. He rarely misses a community event in Eagleville such as Chittlin suppers, the tractor show and the horseshows. He strongly supports Eagleville School activities and is a dedicated fan of the sports teams there. He is a long time member of the Lions Club, Eagleville Chapter and is always on hand and ready to help with their projects.

John's tragic experience in Viet Nam makes all of us pause and reflect. Yet, John communicates a positive outlook on life and enjoys every day to the fullest. Eagleville is fortunate to have a hero among us and a living reminder of all those who have sacrificed for our country. We are blessed and better for our relationship with John Redmond.

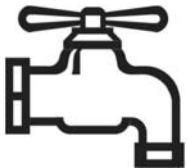

John in his golf cart, ready to cruise Eagleville.

Eagleville Middle School Homecoming

Eagleville Middle School held its inaugural football homecoming ceremony at the new Eagle Stadium on Thursday, October 9. The night was a success in every way. The honor of the first EMS

Football Homecoming Queen was bestowed upon Chelsea Lamb. Chelsea was escorted and crowned by two eighth grade players, Jimbo Porter and Khendall Lillard. The homecoming court consisted of sixth grade attendant Courtney

Vaughn escorted by eighth grade football player Michael Frost, seventh grade attendant Rachel Hedgepath escorted by eighth grade football player Hunter Marlin, and eighth grade attendant Autumn Duncan escorted by eighth grade football player Doug Brown. The EMS cheerleaders and all eighth grade football team members were also recognized. The ceremony was only one of many firsts for the fans and players of Eagleville that night, as the EMS Eagles went on to defeat the Cornersville Bulldogs. This win was the first victory on Talon Field. Congratulations to the 2003 homecoming court, players, cheerleaders, and coaches. Eagleville looks forward to many more homecomings as successful as this one.

HIGH SCHOOL—This year's team members possessed more talent than any of our previous teams. The challenge proved to be learning to play as a team and put that talent to good use. In the end, although disappointed with our post-season results, the team achieved an all-time high with a record of 23-15. There was also much groundwork laid for next year's team to continue our path to improvement in this new sport.

After much anticipation and waiting, the Just Dance studio has moved into their new larger dance building on Main Street in Eagleville. The new building and has a nice lobby for parents to wait while their child takes dance lessons. The new dance room has hardwood floors with extremely high ceiling which are great for tumbling and cheerleading classes.

Just Dance came to Eagleville three years ago as a one-night-a-week class offered at the community center. The first night over 50 children signed up for classes. The response was overwhelming. Last year Just Dance moved from the community center into a building on Main Street and continued to grow.

This year, Just Dance has enrolled over 55 students in classes from ages three to fifty. Students come from Eagleville and surrounding communities such as College Grove, Triune, Rockvale and Unionville. Dance classes offered are Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Cheerleading and Tumbling. Just Dance offers baby combo classes as well as one hour solo classes.

Due to the growth of Just Dance in the past two years, additional teachers have been added. The owner, Becky Holt is a Certified Teacher with the Southern Association of Dance Masters. Her new teachers this year are Beth Holt, also a certified teacher with Dance Masters and Clint Adcock, the new Gymnastics Instructor coming to Just Dance from Footloose Dance school in Smyrna.

The goal of Just Dance is to encourage children to learn and appreciate the art of dance. A dance recital is planned in June for all students at the College Grove Artsitorium Center.

Rates are $25 a month for one class. Any additional classes are prorated. There is an annual registration fee of $35 due at sign up. If interested in enrolling in Dance Classes, please contact Becky Holt at (615) 274-2695.

SANTA BARBARA WAR CHEST

Campaign November 2nd-15th
GOAL — $180,203.00

Grady Granville Rowland

This picture was taken in 1942. Grady had just finished boot camp at Camp Cook, near Santa Barbara, California. Fundraisers for the Santa Barbara War Chest chose Grady's picture to appear on five feet tall poster placed in banks and businesses all over California. Only a few months earlier, the 21 year old farm boy had never been more than 30 miles from home. Now his face was being seen by millions. Grady sent this picture home to a proud mother.

Decorating for Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving decorating that has survived for generations is the cornucopia spilling over with autumn harvest, Indian corn and colorful apples, and squashes.

A delightful wreath made of grapes, apples, oranges, lemons, pears, etc. with a center of whole unshelled walnuts and pecans is a perfect holiday centerpiece.

Bring out your ceramic or glass turkeys, squirrels, Indian figurines, pilgrim people, etc. Using your imagination and creativity and some cut-out pictures or patterns for turkeys or squirrels, paste them to small foil tart pans and use as place settings, nut cups, or around candles and salt and pepper shakers.

Of course, mums are the flower of choice at this time of year, but assorted dried leaves of gold, red, orange, and yellow add to the beauty. Tiny sunflowers and crimson dahlias are also great choices.

Rustic apples nestled on beds of straw and placed in colorful baskets or bowls with a shaft of wheat tied in a plaid ribbon will add delight to tables, mantels. etc.

Boil chicken until tender. Salt and pepper to taste. Let cool and then strip chicken off of bone. Save white meat and slice. Put on platter and cover with plastic wrap. Refrigerate until served. Save dark meat for dressing. Strain broth and save for dressing and gravy.

DRESSING

6 cups homemade biscuit crumbs
9 cups homemade cornbread crumbs
3 med. Onions (chopped fine)
4 ribs celery (chopped fine)
3 tsp. Rubbed sage
3 tsp. Poultry seasoning
2 tsp. Pepper
2 tsp. Salt
2 tsp. Baking powder
1 tbs. Sugar
1 stick margarine
4 eggs (well beaten)
4 to 6 cups chicken broth

Mix all ingredients in large mixing bowl. Mixture needs to be thick but moist. Crumbs need to be dissolved. Let soak so the flavors will blend. Grease casserole dish. Put layer of dressing, layer of chicken, layer of dressing. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake at 350° until brown and crusty.

This recipe will make two casserole dishes. Serve one and freeze the other, or better yet, give the second to someone. You might find that you enjoyed the one you gave away better than the one you kept.

MARGARET KELLEY KING

Margaret's Helpful Hints

While preparing that Thanksgiving Dinner, use disposable roasting pans or line your casserole pans with foil. The less washing you have to do, the better.

Clear your refrigerator well in advance to make room for all the Thanksgiving food.

Keep the Butterball Turkey hotline number (1-800-323-4848) on your fridge door. Why go at it alone when there are trained professionals who can answer any question you might have about storing, thawing, cooking or carving your bird?

- Anyone who was not in Eagleville on October 3rd missed a great Eagleville School homecoming parade. It was a beautiful day and the school really outdid themselves. The floats and marching band was something for everyone to be proud of. All of the students had a part in the parade. The students that weren't in the parade, along with Principle Buddy Pate, walked ahead of the parade and lined the streets in Eagleville to cheer them on. It was so great and no student was left out.
- Nell Medford, school teacher at Eagleville, will return Nov. 3rd to her class room after a year battling cancer and treatment. She will teach until the Christmas holidays then she will retire. We lift up praises for her return.
- Congratulations to Freeland Maupin who retired from Square D's on October 26, after years and 6 months. Freeland plans to spend part of his spare time visiting the nursing homes and singing to the patients.
- Bobbie Sue Shelton and Grace Majors enjoyed a trip to Fulton, MS for sight seeing and visited Jewel Chamblee for a few days.
- The Eagleville Times is now reaching out to over 12 states and also to England. Some of you may remember Jack McClaran who now lives in England. Jack grew up in Eagleville and attended school here. While in the Air Force he was sent to England. While serving there he married and made his home there. He was so happy to receive a copy of the paper from friend John Ralston that he just had to subscribe. He feels that each month the paper is a way of revisiting his hometown.
- Despite the drizzle rain and early darkness the Eagleville Methodist Church held a weenie roast Sunday night Oct. 26. a great crowd of over 100 attended. Weenies were roasted out side and carried inside to eat. Everyone ate and enjoyed the great music played by Johnny McClaran, Bill Vaughn, Lucas Thompson, Bro. Trey and wife Brandi Lambert, a cousin of Bro. Lambert from Mississippi and a friend of Bill Vaughn.
- L.R. & Elizabeth Edmonson and Gordon & Mary Alice Lamb recently spent a week sightseeing in Branson, MO.

Some people from other locations joined the group. Nicole & Brittany Rigsby and Megan Woodson came up from college to join them. They all said the weather was good and a GREAT time was had by everyone. Also enjoying Gatlinburg were Alvin & Linda Sledge.
- The Seniors of the Eagleville Baptist Church enjoyed a fall trip Oct. 25. There were 18 people who enjoyed a wonderful trip. They went on the bus driven by Wayne & Vicki Johnson. Holiday Safety Tips - Don't be a Victim

Provide by Sgt. Charles Holt, Eagleville PD

As the holidays approach home burglaries, as well as personal crimes rise. Here are a few tips that will help you from becoming a victim. Remember, these tips can be practiced year round as well!

When purchasing large items for your home, break down the boxes or containers that they came in and place them in your garage or out building until you time to dispose of them. If you do not have a place to store them, place them in non-see through bags before placing them outside. This will keep any criminal from driving by your home and "street shopping" for items to steal.

When shopping at the mall, do not place items in your vehicle and return for additional shopping. Many criminals watch for this practice so they can target cars with items inside just waiting to be stolen. When arriving at the mall before sundown, look for overhead lights to park under. This will allow you to have the security of the lights when leaving at dark. Mall and store security are there to be used! Ask for an escort to your vehicle if you have numerous items to transport to your car or if you were forced to park in a bad location. When carrying items to your car, be sure to have your car door key in your hand before exiting the building. This prevents you from becoming distracted in the parking lot and allows you quick access into your car if necessary.

Be sure to keep all of your store receipts, especially your credit card receipts. This will aid you in case of credit card fraud. In cases when you have to return items, this practice also guarantees a full refund on items that are marked down after the holidays. If you lose your credit card report it immediately! Most banks require that you report the loss within a 24-hour time period. Any delays past 24 hours can make you responsible for unauthorized purchases!

When using ATM machines, use only machines that are visible and well lit at night. Be sure to take your receipt with you before you leave and do not throw them away until you get home, where you can shred them before disposal! Advice on telemarketers, "Don't!" If you didn't call them you don't need to take the risk! Shopping on the Internet has increased every year. Only use well-known businesses to shop from. Check with your credit cardholder for fraud protection on Internet purchases. Most do, or can offer special cards with microchip technology that protects you from Internet fraud. "Do not" give anyone your credit card number unless it is part of a transaction initiated by you! When available, use "secured sights" for credit card use! This will help protect you from fraud.

Charities are also actively seeking donations during the holidays. If you have a charity you support, send a check directly to them! This keeps all the money at the charity instead of pennies on the dollar when received through telemarketers. Always ask how much of your donation will go directly to the charity. By law they must tell you! If they don't or try to avoid answering, it's a good sign that it's a telemarketer donation not a charity donation. By donating with a check you will have a receipt for your donation at tax time.

If you have any questions, or need to report any questionable person s or practices, please contact your local law enforcement and have a safe and happy holiday!

Eagleville Cheerleaders 1st Annual Car and Truck Show—A Huge Success

The Eagleville High School and Middle School Cheerleaders hosted Eagleville's 1st Annual Car and Truck Show on the grounds of Eagleville School on Saturday, October 4, 2003. The event was a huge success with 92 registered vehicles. The vehicles ranged in age from several 2002 models to two 1923 Ford T-Models brought by our own John Turner of Eagleville and another brought by Barbara Albus of Murfreesboro. The cheerleaders wish to thank the Eagleville High School Car Club who judged the event. The event raised a profit of nearly $6,000.00 for the cheerleading programs at Eagleville School. The cheerleaders wish to thank all of the parents who contributed their time and energy to this event. Maggie and Rob Lewis served as excellent DJ's for the show and their help was greatly appreciated. Special thanks go to Frank Ward, Dale Nash and all the members of the Murfreesboro Hot Rod Club for their advise in planning and promoting this event. Finally, this event would not have been possible without the support of everyone who entered a car or truck.

The big winner of the day was Avery Hittson of Murfreesboro and his 1972 red Chevy Truck, which won Best of Show from the judges and Crowd's Choice from the participants. Mayor's Choice selected by Mayor Nolan Bar-

Best Graphics went to Joe Chrisman of Murfreesboro for his 2002 Dodge Stealth dragster. C.D. Wright of Nashville in his 1957 Belair won best Rag Top. Best Low Rider went to Chunky Thunder of Winchester in his 2001 Ford Ranger. Finally, Best Teen Entry went to our own Mac Jones of Eagleville in his 1966 Mustang.

The Eagleville Cheerleaders would like to thank all of the area businesses that sponsored a trophy or door prize at the event. They include Crosslin Lumber Supply, Sandy's Market & Deli, Henry & Al's Food Value, Joe Kelly's Market, Underwood & Sons Construction, Barbara & Gerald Montgomery, Steve's Auto Repair, Eagleville Eye Clinic, Eagleville Drug Center, Eagleville Medical Clinic, T-J Rentals, Wastequip Holt, John's Lawn Care & Tree Service, Bo-Jack's Country Market, Valley Towing, Bethesda Market & Deli, Mike Brewer Masonry Contractor, David Crockett Shavings, Eagleville Mini Storage, Joyce's Beauty Shack, Paula's Hair Care, Champions Run Golf Course, Two-Way Market, Layhew Design & Construction, and Mary Watkin's Beauty Consultant.

The cheerleaders extend a special thanks to all the Murfreesboro, Shelbyville, and surrounding area businesses that provided the many wonderful door prizes for the event.

Plans are already being made for next years 2nd Annual Car and Truck Show to be sponsored by the Eagleville Cheerleaders with a tentative date of October 2, 2004. Please mark your calendars and plan on joining us again next year.

Holts Corner Grocery & Café

Having a small country grocery store/café/community gathering place is just what Jon and Jill Martin had dreamed when buying Holts Corner Grocery & Café almost 2 years ago.

Mississippi after seeing us on the TV show just to eat our catfish and enjoy the bluegrass music," says Jon. But the local crowd is pleased to have this establishment so nearby. "It is good to know that we don't have to drive too far for some local musical talent and until 2:00 pm. They close at 3:00 pm on Saturdays.

Weekday mornings begin early at the store. Jon arrives at 4:30 am to get the biscuits in the oven. The doors open at 5:30 am to have the breakfast biscuits and coffee ready for the many hungry early-risers. Sausage, bacon egg & cheese, and tenderloin biscuits are a few to choose from. You can get in on the run, or sit and read the newspaper, watch the morning news, and catch up on happenings with locals.

Weekday lunches provides a variety of meats & 3 vegetables, burgers, fries, onion rings, sandwiches, soups, and homemade desserts. They even serve the local favorite of BBQ ham. Lunch is served from 10:30 until 2:00, with takeouts available. They also are available for catering and hosting private parties/dinners.

The slower-paced after lunch gives the couple a chance to get to catch up with the regulars and talk to those traveling through on their way to somewhere else. At any given time of the afternoon a jam session is liable to break out.

In addition to being featured on the TV show the store had a feature in The Tennessean's Williamson A.M and will soon be a feature in Southern Living magazine. "We are so thrilled that our store is the interest of others. We are glad to share this wonderful community with as many people as we can," Jill says.

Simply decorated with music posters, old metal signs, collages of bluegrass night photos, checkered tablecloths, and a variety of groceries. "We want it to be comfortable for anyone to come in a feel like they want to stay for a while," says Jon. "This is the community's store, we are just here to keep it open."

"We hope that anyone that comes into our store will find us friendly, the food good, the atmosphere pleasant, and want to come back again soon! We love living our dream!" Store hours are:

5:30 am-9:30 am Mondays
5:30 am-6:00 pm Tues. & Thurs
5:30 am-3:00 pm Wednesdays
5:30 am-8:30 pm Fridays
6:00 am-3:00 pm Saturdays
Closed on Sundays

Feel free to call Jon & Jill at 931/364-5690.

Jill Cooking

But the couple had no idea that their dream would touch people far outside this small community just over the Marshall County line. The store is now considered not only the gathering place of the Holts Corner community, but a must-stop destination for those traveling from College Grove to Chapel Hill and surrounding communities.

A feature on the Nashville Public Television show Tennessee Crossroads has brought a lot of new faces from far away cities and states. "We are always surprised to hear of people who have traveled from Chattanooga, Memphis, and even Missisgood food. I am always running into someone from the area that I haven't seen in a while," says local regular Bennie Hargrove. There is an open call for all musicians. Anybody who's got the talent can come and play. Most come from word of mouth, others hear about the venue from store owner, Jon, a professional musician who plays guitar, mandolin, and bass. "I figured if I wanted to pick, I would have to invite people here," says Jon with a smile. "This started out as a selfish reason to have music here, but I believe that I am no longer the only one who loves to be in the middle of playing music." The catfish & bluegrass is every Friday night from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm.

Jon on guitar, Jennifer Kennedy on dobro.

The Friday night event is not Holts Corner's only attraction. Every Saturday morning there is an all-you-can-eat pancake breakfast from 6:00 am to 10:00 am. Breakfast biscuits are also available. Burgers, sandwiches, and fries are served for lunch from 10:30 am

“TIPS FROM THE PRO”

BY

CHAMPIONS RUN GOLF COURSE

With the warmer days starting to get a little harder to find, on those days when you have an opportunity to “tee it up” for a round of golf, its time to start thinking about what lies ahead for the winter months.

Some people think November means its time to put the clubs in storage and wait until spring to get them back out again. But, really winter is a great time for both the more accomplished players and those who want to take up the game.

While the temperatures may very well drop several degrees, so do the number of your typical players on any given day. For the beginners, colder weather means there will probably be fewer players on the course and that presents a wonderful opportunity to take your time and learn the game...to work your way around the course without the hassle of worrying about a large crowd. The more accomplished players can play faster and keep their games in shape for the coming spring.

A few tips for winter golfers:

- 1) Always wear clothing in layers rather than some cumbersome heavy coat. This will keep your swing from being so restricted and keep you warmer at the same time.
- 2) Minor investments into hand warmers, stocking caps, etc. will also make your golf round more enjoyable.
- 3) While on the course, bear in mind that colder temperatures dictate the ball will not fly as far, so be sure to use more club than normal. Generally, at least one more club will be needed and in some cases, depending on the wind, it may take as many as two more clubs.
- 4) Winter is also a great time to deal with worn grips because in the weather these grips can become very slick. Either clean your grips with a mild detergent and warm water or have them replaced if they are worn badly.
- 5) And keep in mind that if you are going to take refreshments on the course; don't rely on alcohol to keep you warmer. In fact, alcohol actually reduces your body heat.

Ray Pearce is Head Golf Professional at Champions Run Golf Course located at 14262 Mt. Pleasant Road in Rockvale, Tennessee. Champions Run Golf Course stylistically showcases the natural beauty of Middle Tennessee while showcasing the distinctive mark of its architect C. Stuart Moore. The 6,900-yard layout wraps itself gently around beautiful hardwood trees and picturesque landscaping. The championship course features 18 holes, 16 bunkers, and numerous water hazards as well as some very challenging tee shots. Visit their website at www.championsrunggolf.com for more details and information.

A recent 5 night cruise to the Western Caribbean with stops in Playa Del Carma and Cozumel Mexico was enjoyed by Cassie Dobbins, Kimberly Keltner, Elisa Locke and Elaine Cunningham. Much pleasure was had by all including a visit to the Mayan Ruins, swimming with horses in the ocean and lots of shopping. The trip also included several hours touring the French Quarters of New Orleans before returning home on Saturday.

SCOUTS ENJOY GREAT FALL WEATHER

Eagleville Scouts, Pack 123 and Troop 123 made the most of the fall weather during October. On October 4, a group of cub scouts, boy scouts and parents completed a 5 mile canoe trip on the Duck River. Each scout learned the basics of canoeing on a moving body of water, learned the paddling strokes and how to steer, and reviewed water safety. The weather was beautiful and the sun shone warm despite the fact that Friday night was almost frigid. Since they could take a leisurely pace, the group had a great time talking and laughing between canoes, and of course eating snacks. The group members had a great experience.

On October 12-14, Troop 123 participated in the Trail of Tears District Camporee held this year on a farm in the Christiana area. The Scouts practiced no trace camping as a patrol, pitched their tents, cooked their own food over open fire, and enjoyed a great weekend of outdoor scout experiences. The scouts competed in many skill areas geared toward wilderness survival and outdoor skills. These skill challenges included pioneering competition (lashing poles together to build a structure), knot tying, tomahawk throwing, flag raising contest and catapult competion. We are all proud that they won 1st in the First Aid competition. A memorable campfire Saturday night was a great way to end the successful day.

Troop 123 meets each Tuesday at 7:00 at the Eagleville Community Center. For more information about Cub Scout Pack 123 or Troop 123 contact Don Davis at 274-3439 or Mike Hayes at 931-364-4744.

FUN FOR ALL!

By Evelyn Williams

A record crowd turned out Saturday night, Oct. 4th at Roy and Judy Robinson's "Barn Yard" near Rockvale, for the annual "Chili & Hot Dog" festival. This started many years ago as a fellowship and cook out for members of the church of Christ at Rockvale. It has now blossomed to include friends, neighbors and anyone that enjoys good food and company of good people.

Thurman Price and James Donald Clark, the expert chef's, grilled hot dogs, potatoes, onions and sour kraut to the taste of all, plus all the home-made chili, cakes, pies and "you-name-it" food the Rockvale ladies are known to cook up. Hayrides for the children were "very scary" as Mr. Roy pulled them around the farm with the tractor and wagon. A few spied some "ghosts" in the woods along the way.

After all were filled and sitting back enjoying the bonfire and roasting marshmallows, a "shade tree" Bluegrass band entertained. Charles Hood and grandsons, Casey and Ryan Reed, from Franklin, played the fiddle and guitar, while brothers, Phillip and Stephen Ryan from Salem, played the Mandolin and Banjo.

A good time was had by all and "Thanks" go out to Roy and Judy for the hard work they put into this each year.

Rockvale Elementary School Annual Harvest Festival

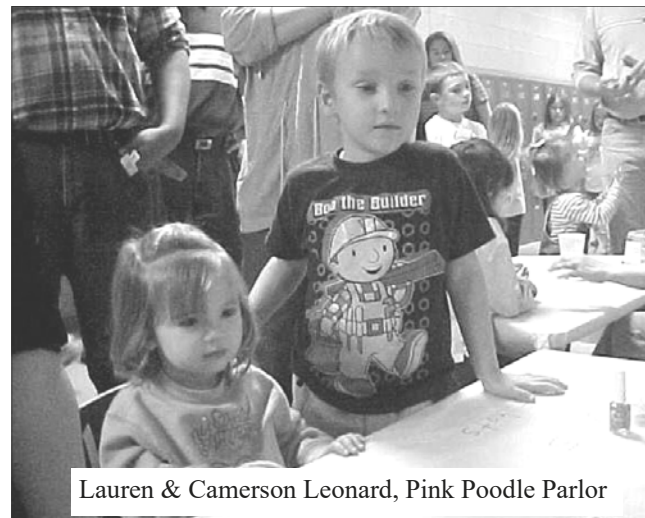

Rockvale Elementary School hosted its annual Harvest Festival on Friday, October 24th. It proved to be a successful "harvest" of patrons coming to support the school.

Games such as the Cake Walk, Musical Chairs, Ring Toss, and Putt Putt were great old time favorites. What a beautiful night for a hay ride! How many fish entered the community that night? The Pink Poodle Parlor was visited by boys and girls alike. It must have been the hair coloring that attracted so many boys to the parlor. Other features included the dance down the sixth grade wing and cookie decorating in the fifth grade wing. Families enjoyed pizza or barbeque before venturing off into the halls of the festival. The Harvest Festival is organized by the Parent Teacher Organization of Rockvale. PTO President Nikki Johnson could not have managed this enormous task without the assistance of the PTO's executive board, parent volunteers, and the teachers of Rockvale Elementary. The Festival brought in over $8,000 that evening. The money will be used for various projects throughout the school during the 2003-2004 school year.

Safe and entertaining transportation for the group was provided by Wayne & Vicky Johnson.

On October 25th the Eagleville Baptist Church Seniors left on tan all day excursion viewing the beautiful Fall foliage and other of God’s inventions in northeastern Tennessee and southeastern Kentucky. A stop was made in Byrdstown at Cordell Hull Birthplace and Museum. Cordell Hull served his country as a congressman, Secretary of State under Franklin Delano Roosevelt for eleven years, and the 1945 winner of the Nobel Peace Prize for founding the United Nations. Each person got the chance to hold the Nobel Peace Prize. Then the group continued to the Alvin C. York State Historical Site and toured the family home with Sgt. York’s son, Andrew. Alvin York was awarded the Medal of Honor, the nation’s highest military decoration for his bravery in putting a German machine-gun battalion out of action in the Argonne Forest during WWI. After WWI he returned to his home and dedicated himself to improving the educational opportunities in Fentress County. The tour continued on through the Big South Fork National River Recreation Area viewing high cliffs, deep scenic gorges and valleys cut out by the Big South Fork of the Cumberland River. By now it was time for a lunch break, which was taken at the Daniel Boone National Forest National Arch Scenic Area. After lunch everyone was eager to board the bus to go see the Cumberland Falls that is the second largest fall east of the Rockies and know as “Niagara of the South”. The mist from the falls creates a moon bow only visible on a clear night during a full moon. This unique phenomenon appears nowhere else in the western Hemisphere. A trip is not complete unless a stop is made at the golden arches. What a fun day full of good Fellowship!
