EAGLEVILLE DOWNTOWN AUTUMN EVENT - FUN FOR EVERYONE

Crisp autumn air, bright warming sun, and the strong sounds of Bluegrass music filled Eagleville on Saturday October 22 at the first Eagleville Craft & Bluegrass Festival. Sponsored by the beautification committee of the city, the festival will be an annual event. This year the day was a great success for the crowds, the vendors and the musicians.

Children enjoyed climbing the obstacle course and bouncing through the maze of "Inflatables". Another hit was the "Find a Pumpkin" booth. Children hurriedly dug through a trough full of corn, searching for pumpkins which indicated the prize they would win. Playing in the hay as they searched for 'pumpkin prizes" was fun too. Pony rides provided by the Riding Program "Did You See Me Do It?" were also fun for children. Face painting at Huckleberry's turned children into leopards, Halloween ghouls, and butterflies much to their delight. Exhibitions by the Eagleville Tae Kwon Do sparked great interest among children, teens and adults as dedicated class members showed their skills

Many vendors set up their favorite crafts for the crowds. Birdhouses were a big hit whether they were left as natural wood or painted in Titan colors. Other crafts included handmade doll cloths, jewelry, and flower arrangements. Beautiful guitars, mandolins and dulcimers filled another vendor's tent. A tent full of embroidered items and venders with country accents had many thinking of Christmas gifts. Antique cars drew attention as people enjoyed the beauty of restored classics. The crowds also enjoyed food choices that included Bar B Que, hamburgers, hotdogs, and Loaded Potatoes.

A stage surrounded by chairs and hay bales offered many a chance to sit and visit with friends and family and enjoy the beautiful sounds of traditional bluegrass music. Throughout the day, everyone enjoyed Runaway Freight, David Travis & Friends and Rank Strangers. Adding to the musical experience were Middle Tennessee Bluegrass and Williamson County Bluegrass. The Middle Tennessee Country Cloggers performed a number of times, showing their skill with this traditional style dance. The fun, festivities and music continued well into the evening as this inaugural Eagleville Craft and Bluegrass Festival was definitely a success.

Varsity Football Homecoming

A week of activities highlighted the Eagleville Varsity Football Homecoming game played to victory Friday October 14th. The week included dress up days—pajama and hat day on Monday, twin day on Tuesday, wacky-tacky day on Wednesday, Luau or Pirate day on Thursday and school color day on Friday. A bonfire which highlighted this years' senior players was fun on Tuesday evening and also featured the cheerleaders and Eagleville Marching Band.

On Thursday, the entire student body loved the Powder Puff football game—featuring Seniors and Sophomores against Juniors and Freshman with Seniors and Sophomores as winners. The activities of the day also included a Powder Puff Homecoming Court featuring some of Eagleville's most "beautiful" guys complete with dresses and "flip" hairstyles.

Friday was a day of pageantry, competition and fun as classes put floats together in preparation for the Homecoming Parade through Downtown Eagleville. Elementary floats included Plow the Patriots, March of the Eagles, Tip the Patriots, Eagle Spirit and the winning float by the 2nd grade classes "Patriots Are All Washed Up and Hung Up to Dry". Students on the float completed the look with their tie dyed t-shirts and blew bub-

Flamingo Express Bids Farewell—The food was great, the location convenient, business was good and the workers were pleasant. Many of the locals would stop by in the mornings on their way to starting their day. Margaret & Jean would put anything on a biscuit; however the customer wanted it. So, why did the Flamingo Express close? Owners

Debbie and Margaret Ryan just bit off a little more than could chew (pardon the pun). It was a memorable endeavor and experience. Margaret and Jean would like to thank those devoted patrons that paid them an early morning visit each day!

26th Annual Division I
State Marching Band Championship
October 29, 2005
Riverdale High School, Murfreesboro, Tn
Eagleville High School is participating
Come and Support Your Band

The Riverdale High School Band and Band Boosters will be hosting the 28th Annual Division I State Marching Band Championship on October 29, 2005.

Twenty-six bands from across the state will compete for the "Governors Cup". It is presented annually to the best Division I Marching Band in the State of Tennessee. Division I Marching Bands are the pride of many small communities throughout Tennessee. Ezell-Harding, from Nashville, won the Governor's Cup in 2004 and will return in 2005 to defend their title.

The bands compete during the day and ten finalists are selected for the finals which will begin at 6:15 pm. Riverdale's Marching Band performs at 8:45 pm while the judges make their decisions. Awards are presented at 9:00 pm.

Make plans to attend the only State Marching Band Championship in this area. Performances begin at 9:00 am and finals start at 6:15 pm. Tickets are $10 for the entire day with a pass to come and go as needed and $8 for just the finals.

Concessions, souvenirs, T-shirts, and programs are available. What better way to enjoy a Tennessee autumn evening then to sit and listen to your hometown band and other bands from across the state?

Courtney Cowart Stars In "Anything Goes"

When Courtney Cowart stars in a production at MTSU, she lights up the stage with her own musical and theatrical talent. This was certainly true of her recent performance as Reno in the musical, "Anything Goes" presented by the Music Department at MTSU. Courtney is the daughter of Rachel (Ralston) Cowart, Eagleville alumni, and Jim Cowart of Signal Mountain, Tennessee. She is the granddaughter of Ann (Ralston) Chrisman of Eagleville and niece of Charles Ralston, owner of Ralston Antiques.

"Anything Goes" was performed at the Wright Theater on campus, September 30-October 2. Joyce Jones and Suzanne McClaran were among Courtney's fans at the opening performance. Courtney is a senior at MTSU majoring in Theatre Performance and minoring in Music. She takes her craft very seriously, putting in many hours of rehearsal. When she comes to visit her grandmother in Eagleville, she serenades everyone and practices her lines on the weekends with her mother, Rachel. Rachel gets as tense about the whole performance as

Courtney Ralston Cowart

Courtney, but even though Courtney is a perfectionist, she always makes it look effortless on stage.

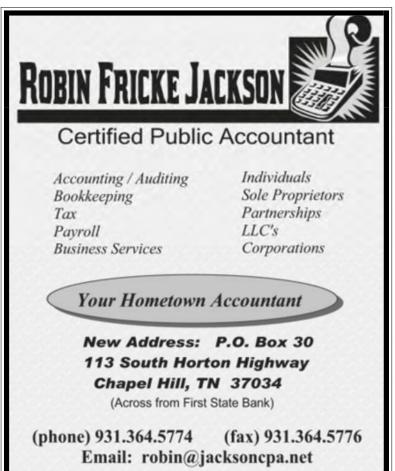

She sang such great songs as "Anything Goes", "I Get a Kick Out of You, "blow, Gabriel Blow", and "Friendship".

Ethel Merman and Frank Sinatra made these songs famous in the original versions of the musical from the fifties.

Courtney is no novice to the stage. She starred as Sally Bowles in the MTSU theatre production of "Cabaret" last year, and she will next appear in the upcoming MTSU Center Stage production of "The Rocky Horror Show". Some of her favorite roles in the past include Cinderella in "Into the Woods", Laurie in "Oklahoma", and Nancy in "Oliver!" She spent part of last spring interning with the Flying Fig Theatre Company in New York

Courtney plans to continue her training after college, and then, watch out Broadway! Everyone that knows Courtney and her enthusiasm for life and dedication to hard work will tell you she's a star in any galaxy in which she may choose to shine.

Something To Think About

If you have a kind word or a tender message to say, Don't wait till you forget, but whisper it today. Some hearts are breaking and for your love they wait, So show them that you care, before it's too late.

Lord, make us an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let's show love. Where there is despair, show hope. Where there is darkness, show light. Where there is sadness, let there be joy. Where there is doubt, show faith.

To be loved is to love, For it is in giving that we receive. It may be a prayer that we need to pray. It is in dying that we are born into eternal life.

Love everybody is my theme,
And you will rejoice as the days go swiftly by.
I will try to be happy.
I will not dwell on thoughts that depress me.
If my mind fills with clouds and blue days,
I will chase them away and fill it with sunshine.
God will bless me and keep me in His care.

Lord, I would not ask for a special blessing. But I often need thy loving council, In the things I cannot do alone. When I am racked with pain and sorrow, May I spend a moment at thy throne,

Pleading for your tender mercy
In the pain, I cannot bear alone.
When my task seem greater than my courage,
And the world would turn my heart to stone.

Be thou near me Lord, I cannot walk alone. I don't ask for strength to move a mountain, Or earthly fame or fortune of my own. I only ask for strength and courage, In the things I cannot do alone.

Thank you Lord for my 93 years, And may I pray each day for the dispute on foreign soil, And make every day a day, that God will help surrender this affair.

Let love abide with all families, reunited together again. Peace be with all nations, for God is love. Let's follow Him and pray each day,

And love everybody and see,

If that doesn't make glory in our soul.

And just see if that doesn't want us to head that way, too.

Wouldn't it be wonderful to hear the words of Jesus saying,

"Peace, Peace be still among our nations and love be in every heart."

New County School Web Site Makes Finding Information Easier

Rutherford County Schools has renovated its Web site to make it easier for parents and the community to find information about our schools.

In addition to a fresh new look, the site is better organized with school news, Board of Education information, and quick links to find bell times, meeting agendas and minutes, the school calendar, jobs and much more. Other items will be added as needed.

The new site is an effort by Director of Schools Harry Gill Jr., the Rutherford County Board of Education, and the district administration to increase communication with parents by providing the types of information most often requested.

Please take a look at our new site at www.rcs.k12.tn.us.

College Grove Office Celebrates Employee's 40 Year Tenure at U.S. Bank

U.S. Bank in College Grove, TN recently honored Nancy Ford, Teller, for 40 years of service to the company.

A celebration was held on Saturday, October 1, 2005. The event featured cake, ham & biscuits, mixed fruit, and punch. Nancy was honored with a dozen roses in a glass vase etched with her name and anniversary date. Fellow employees presented her with gift cards to her favorite restaurants. Over 100 clients were in attendance and enjoyed reminiscing old times and scrapbook photos.

"Nancy is a joy to work with. She's dependable and always willing to go the extra mile. When customers enter the door, they make a bee-line to her teller window."

"I have most enjoyed being a teller because you meet customers face to face. As a citizen of College Grove for years, I grew up with many customers, their children and grandchildren, and take a personal interest in each of them. I try to put myself in their place and treat them as I would want to be treated.."

During her tenure at U.S. Bank, Nancy has been head bookkeeper, cashier, customer service manager, payroll administrator, and a teller.

Eagleville, a very fortunate community, can boost about having some very good physicians over the years dating back to the early days when the doctor visited patients on horse-back. The names of the earliest physicians have been lost over time. The following physicians may not be in order as they practiced medicine in Eagleville. At times there may have been more than one doctor practicing in the same area. We do know as early as 1841 there was a physician by the name of Dr. Thomas L. Rives practicing in Eagleville, Williamson County, Tennessee. He was listed in the Catalog of Students of the Medical Institute of Louisville in 1840-41.

In 1857 Dr. George Currin Kinnard was treating patients in Eagleville. Dr. Kinnard was born September 13, 1823, the son of B. C. and S. T. Kinnard. He married Mary Adeline Jordon, the eldest daughter of Johnson and Margaret Jordon. In the 1850 census he was practicing medicine in the 21st district of Williamson County. Two children were in the household. Dr. Kinnard died April 7, 1858. His wife died July 17, 1852.

Amasa Webb Manire was born February 8, 1937 near Versailles in Rutherford County. He was the son of David Lemuel Manire and Susan Ann Elizabeth Jackson. He studied medicine as an apprentice. After the Civil War he graduated from the University of Nashville in 1870 and practiced in the Rover area in Bedford County, and in the Rockvale, Needmore and Versailles areas of Rutherford County. During the Civil War he enlisted in Company A. 24th Tennessee and served in the capacity of hospital steward and was detailed assistant surgeon. He resigned his commission in 1862 and came home to resume medical practice. On March 22, 1858 he married Julia W. White, daughter of William C. and Eliza Taylor White. He lived behind the Alex Ralston home on Mt Pleasant Road later moving to Rockvale. Later he moved his practice to Tullahoma where he served as City Health Officer of Tullahoma. He and his second wife, Lucy lived in Tullahoma until his death. He's buried in the White Cemetery in Rutherford County. He had twelve children:

Dr. Thomas Skidmore Richardson was another early Eagleville doctor. He was born in 1829 in Virginia and was listed as a physician in Eagleville in the 1860 census of Williamson County. He graduated from the University of Nashville in 1855. His home was listed as Spring Hill in Maury County. Dr. Richardson was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge in 1857 and also appeared on the Beer's Map of Rutherford County in 1878, owning land and living near the site of the old fox camp at the intersection of Greenwood and Chapel Hill Roads.

Dr. Robert Buchanan was listed in the census of 1870 in the Jordan Store area of the 21st Civil District in Williamson County. This area bordered Rutherford County. He was listed as a physician, age 38, born in Tennessee. He practiced for many years in Williamson County near Eagleville. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a member of the Allisona Lodge of United Workmen. He died at his home near Eagleville in Rutherford County July 22, 1893.

Dr. William H. McCord was born near Eagleville, September 1, 1838. He was the son of Allen and Jane Jordan McCord. He married Sarah Macon Williams, daughter of James Chesley and Elizabeth Jordon Williams. The built the present home of his great grandson, Don McCord in 1882. They had 5 children. Dr. McCord was a surgeon in the Civil War.

Dr. Robert F. Keys was born in Ontario, Canada, in 1844, the son of Henry and Martha Taylor Keyes. He was a graduate of Queen's Medical College. He was a member of the Tennessee Medical Association, which he joined in 1876. In 1878 and 1879 he was practicing in Davidson County. In 1886 he had a medical practice in Eagleville and in 1887 was in Marion County. He was in Nashville in 1889 and 1890. The Tennessee Medical Association did not list him after

Dr. William Alexander Harrison was born about 1853 in Virginia. He graduated from the medical department of the University of Nashville in 1873 and listed his home as Unionville. In 1890 he was still living in Unionville, practicing medicine in Unionville and Eagleville.

Dr. William Manier, born in 1847, was practicing medicine in the 8th district of Rutherford County, which was Eagleville in the 1880s.

Dr. John William Hatcher was born in 1856 in Tennessee. He graduated from Vanderbilt University Department of Medicine in 1877. He practiced in Eagleville sometime after 1885, in 1906 in a small community in Williamson County called, Priest, and in 1912 he was practicing in Franklin.

There was a Dr. T. A. Mitchell who was also in Eagleville in the late 1800s. He moved to Nashville.

Dr. Horton Blount Hyde was born in 1853 in Tennessee and received his M.D. degree from Vanderbilt University Medical Department in 1878. He was practicing in Eagleville and Holtland, Marshall County in 1885. In 1891 he bought a lot from the Church of Christ, adjoining the church, and later built his home there. He moved to Nashville about 1895. He was a member of the Tennessee Medical Association.

About the time Dr. Hyde left, Dr. Charles B. Heimark came to Eagleville. (See Eagleville Times, October 2005 issue, an article on Dr. C. B. Heimark, the grave robber).

Solon Snethan Duggan was born November 19, 1848 in Beech Grove, Tennessee, son of Dr. Benjamin Frederick and Nancy Elliott Duggan. He was educated in the local schools of Bedford County and he graduated from the University of Nashville with an M. D. degree in 1885. Before he started his medical education, he began his life as a farmer and afterward became a clerk and druggist at Unionville in Bedford County. After his graduation from medical school he started practicing in Unionville with his father. On December 20, 1868, he married Nannie C. Blanton and after her death, married Mary . He moved his medical practice to Eagleville around 1898. Dr. Duggan had a son, who also was a physician and practiced with his father in Eagleville. Soon after 1916, Dr. Duggan moved to Nashville.

Dr. John Robert Moon, son of Pleasant B. and Mary Ann Moon, was born November 12, 1853 in Bedford Co., Tennessee and died April 11, 1934 in Eagleville. He married May 7, 1876 to Martha Melinda Boyd Dryden. They are buried in the Moon Cemetery, Unionville, Bedford Co., TN. Dr. Moon was educated in the Bedford Co. schools and attended Unionville Academy. He started studying medicine at an early age and entered the University of Nashville Department of Medicine from which he graduated March 1, 1878. He practiced medicine for 13 years in Unionville. He served as doctor at Eagleville from 1878 to 1911. He moved to Eagleville in 1891. He served as postmaster 1909-1911. He moved to Christiana and practiced medicine there until 1921 when he moved back to Eagleville and built the house that the Robert Shelton Sr. family lived in. He was living there at the time of his death. Dr. Moon's practice was a thriving horse and buggy practice. He drove a horse named "Black John". It is said that the horse was so good at his job that even though Dr. Moon sometime, fell asleep as he rode, the horse would bring him safely home. He was a member of the Middle Tennessee Medical Association, the Rutherford County Medical Society, the Tennessee Medical Association, and the Bedford County Medical Society. They were members of the Methodist Church. They had 12 children:

Dr. Edward Leslie Williams was born March 24, 1878. He received his education in Eagleville and entered Vanderbilt University as a pre-med student. After graduating as a doctor in 1903 he practiced in Mississippi for a short time, returning to Eagleville in 1910 and entered into business with his father in a general store. In Eagleville he never had an office or saw patients as other doctors, but would listen to your complaints, prescribe and sell you a medicine. Dr. Williams retired in 1972 at the age of 93. He died January 26, 1974. (See Eagleville Times July, 2005 issue for more on Dr. E. L. Williams).

Robert Carroll Garrett, son of Robert Cannon and Martha Lytle Jackson Garrett, was born August 23, 1872 near Rover, Tennessee (Bedford County). He graduated in 1900 from the Medical Department of the University of Nashville (a school that a few years later became a part of the University of Tennessee).

Dr. Garrett married Martha Bumpus in 1902, the daughter of Martin and Lavinia Brown Bumpus, and they were parents of one child, Virginia Carroll Garrett, who married Hubert L. McCullough.

Dr. Garrett returned to Rover after graduation and practiced a few years before he bought the home and practice of John Robert Moon in Eagleville. He moved to Eagleville in 1911. Dr. Moon then moved to Christiana. Dr. Garretts' brother, Dr. John Jackson Garrett was practicing in Rockvale.

Dr. Robert Garrett was widely known as one of the few remaining physicians of the "saddle bag" days and did extensive practice in Rutherford, Marshall, Bedford and Williamson counties. His records show he delivered more than 3,000 babies and made thousands of calls in the rural sections as well as holding office hours at his office in Eagleville. During his early practice, he carried his medical supplies in large saddlebags, making his calls on horseback. As roads improved he started using a horse and buggy, and still later the automobile, the first being a Model-T-Ford. Life for the country doctor meant long hours of driving through ice and sleet over near impassable roads.

Dr. Garrett was among 48 physicians graduating from the University of Nashville –University of Tennessee who received the "Golden T" certificate for 50 years of service in medicine. Dr. Garrett was interviewed after the award and recalled that medicine "has come a long way since doctors carried their equipment in saddle bags tied onto their horses." He remembered the early days when the x-ray wasn't even discovered and when the textbooks thought disease was due to changes in the atmosphere – when the germ theory was unknown". He also recalled how as a boy plowing in the fields, he would watch the "dressed up" country doctor dash by on a fine, spirited horse, and long to be in his place". Later, as a physician, he discovered the rich experience of close association with people," and with it "came a complete love for the practice of medicine and joy in his ability to alleviate the common ills of his fellow man."

His office was in the Bank of Eagleville building and was picturesque with the old fashioned chairs, roll top desk, well worn volumes of books and cherished family portraits, all providing appropriate background for the stream of patients daily seeking the care and guidance of the doctor.

Dr. Garrett practiced for 52 years mostly in Eagleville. He did public work in Kingston in 1926 with Dr. James Fly. Returning to Eagleville, he remained there for the rest of his life.

He was a member of the Rutherford County Medical Society and the Tennessee Medical Association. He died July 2, 1952 at the age of 79 and was the oldest practicing physician in Rutherford County.

For a time Eagleville was without a practicing physician. Dr. E. L. Williams, due to his keen interest in the welfare of the community, built a small but modern clinic and succeeded in getting a home-town boy, Dr. Ralph Jones, to set up a practice here. Ralph, the son of Jim McClain and Madelyn Jones graduated from Eagleville High School in 1945 and attended University of Tennessee in Knoxville and later medical school in Memphis. He came to Eagleville clinic in 1954, but unfortunately left in a little over a year. Ralph is presently retired and lives in Ohio

After Dr. Jones left, Eagleville had three doctors, none of whom stayed very long. They were Dr. Charles Robinson, Dr. J. S. C. Stewart and Dr. Waldrop.

In 1955 Carl Bearden Rowntree, Jr. came to Eagleville and opened a general practice in the medical clinic. He was born in 1912 and graduated from the University of Tennessee School of Medicine in 1947 and was licensed in 1948. He came to Eagleville from east Tennessee. In 1967 he moved back to Knoxville where he died about 1979 or 1980.

In the later years, several young people from Eagleville have become doctors, but only one, Ralph Jones, chose to come back home to work.????????????????

Boy Scout Troop 123

Boy Scout Troop 123 had a busy summer and fall. The Troop spent a week at Boxwell Reservation at Camp Craig. There, they worked on Scout Skills and merit badges, lived in tents, and enjoyed the abundant wildlife and great fishing opportunities. During August the Troop ventured to Grimes Canoe base for an overnight campout and a day on the river in canoes and kayaks. During August the Troop ventured to Grimes again where they canoed over 7 miles on Saturday and another 7 miles on Sunday. In September the Troop stayed closer to home and camped at the Wilson's place on Floyd road. Over the weekend the scouts worked on their cooking merit badge and prepared a feast for their guests Saturday evening. The menu included Chili and Cowboy Stew. They also hiked, learned ax safety, and enjoyed the fall weather. During October the Troop traveled to Clarksville and attended Merit Badge University. There, Daniel Wilson earned his swimming and lifesaving merit badges. Four scouts worked on the Communications Merit Badge and two scouts worked on Citizenship in the World.

PARK PROGRESS BACK ON SCHEDULE

Despite the wet weather early this summer, progress on the park is now caught up. June and July did not see much progress at the Park property located off Highway 41, just south of the traffic light in Eagleville. With the drier weather in August, September and October the ball fields are beginning to really take shape. The Park Plan calls for three baseball/ softball fields in the park to be ready for the spring seasons. In order to ensure adequate drainage and sure footing, the ball fields were raised 12 inches by grading with imported dirt. Fencing around the fields, a towered building which will hold the concession stand, the score keeper area, and storage is in progress. Once that is complete, lighting will be installed, allowing for games to be played during the evening hours. Part of the parking area will be graveled and grass seed will be planted in the next few weeks. Hopefully the weather will cooperate and allow those working on the fields to continue with their progress. You are invited to drive down and see all that is happening!

Keeping In Touch

Thanks so very much for establishing "our" hometown paper. I enjoy looking at the events and friends activities of Eagleville. I also am excited that we have a football team now! I have got to get out and come and see a game! Thanks so much for remembering the VETS in a few magazines ago! I am a Vietnam Vet and it sure is great to be honored this way. There are some incredible talented young people in Eagleville! I have started an oldies rock n roll and oldies country group called Simply Black & White. We do a lot of the great songs of our time from the awesome Black Rhythm and Blues artist as well as the White artists who together have created an incredible amount of MEGA HITS in the Rock n Roll and Country fields collectively. Everyone in the group (but one) went to Eagleville School! The other member has a Doctorit Degree and is teaching some of our students at Martin Methodist in Pulaski! So we are tying the talents together from home! I really love it because, I (Dad) am getting to play music with two of my kids and have another waiting to decide which instrument he is going to play, Isaac. Our band consist of Dr. T.G. Engel (formerly with Kenny Rogers, Terri Gibbs, and the Anglo Saxons) on guitar and all I can say is "The Doctor is IN the house!" I had the privilege of playing music with him in the Headliners of Hilton Head Island. John Frost, Jr. is our drummer and he is playing awesome. (Dr. Barham taught him very well!) Alexius Frost is our female vocalist and may I say even though she is my daughter of whom I a very proud, I believe she has one of the most awesome female voices that I have heard in a Long Time. (Dad Bragging:) And our other member is Abe Stoklasa! Need I say more! He can play everything including the kitchen sink. He plays sax, keys, and steel guitar incredibly well! He must have started playing when he was born to know how to play that awesome on every instrument!! I play the bass and sing vocals. I am fairly good. I used to sing on a little radio show called the Grand Ole Opry. (IN the GOOD Years!!!!!) If anyone is interested in having us play for a concert, sock hop (OOPS I lost 3/4 of the younger people who don't know what a sock hop is!). I come from the era of when Proms were not allowed. :(Keep on rocking with the Great Hometown News from the Eagleville Times!! I love you all and think of you constantly. John Terry Frost, Sr.

Welcome to Novembers edition of Talon Tidbits. We started this month with great anticipation, and disappointment was not to be had. The first game of the month was against the Cascade Champions, and what a game it was. Charles Steagall led the teams rushing with 154 yards, on 21 attempts. Rickey Brookshire was in form with his passing obtaining 79 yards on 11 attempts, and 5 completions, down field to catch these were Poteete for 3 Steagall for 1 and Wilson for 1. The Eagles defensive was working hard that evening. Topping the list of tacklers are JoJo Vestal with 15, Jeremy Moore 10 and Khendall Lillard with

8. The team as a whole had a total of 83 tackles for the evening. In the end By Lisa Jutkofsky & Lee Smith the score told the story: Eagleville Eagles 27, Cascade Champions 19.

While all this was taking place on the field, just off the field, the Talon Tailgaters were hard at work doing what they do best, cooking up a party! As part of home coming, the talented cooks that cater to Eagleville on Talon Field whipped up a Taste of Tuscany, complete with Chicken Parmesan, Baked Ziti, fresh Garlic Bread with Pesto, Caesar Salad and a very special Home Coming Cake. The dining area had been embellished with chairs, tablecloths, candles, and a large fall floral centerpiece. Even Eloise Eagle complimented the meal on both the professional presentation and the food's quality and taste as well.

Ricky Brookshire appeared on TV Monday night (Oct 17t, 2005 on WKRN - News 2) to accept the Tennessee Titan's Prep Player of the week award for his outstanding performance at Whitehouse. Presenting the award was Jeff Fisher, Head Coach of the Tennessee Titans. Congratulation Ricky!

Friday October 22, started out as any normal day for most of the 50 members of the Eagleville

Eagles Varsity football team, but far from normal would the day end. My memories of the game will be driving through Eagleville watching the boys boarding the bus on their way to Chapel Hill, and the sounds of the cheers from the bus as it made its way through the center of town. When we think of rivalry we think of two sides in combat. What we normally don't see is two teams...rivals yes, but not enemies. No matter what side you sat on that night, or color you wore blue or maroon what a game it was.

We need to mention the Offensive line that did a great job this week, Khendall Lillard, Scott Moss, Josh Smith, Aaron Fisher and Chris Davenport. We will all remember Jacob Wilson running for a touch down at one point carrying a player with him, and Ricardo's catch. Charles injured but not out. For me my most prized memory was a sophomore named Jet who ran for all he was worth and made sure the Rockets didn't score any more that night. Many will say the curse is broken; perhaps it wasn't a curse but just time waiting for that special team, a group of boys and coaches putting it all on line for great night, between to two great teams. And if you need the score Eagleville Eagles 27 Chapel Hill Rockets 7

The Eagleville Football Booster has been hard at work running both the Concession Stand and the Eagleware Booth. Sales are look bold and in the black on both sides as they work towards their goal for the year. Of special note this month is the Limited Edition Custom Eagleware Jerseys. Modeled after pro jerseys, these shirts look like they could cost over a hundred dollars each...but they didn't. Only a select few were able to order their jerseys, each with a player's name and number on the back. Keep an eye out for them because they're sharp. If you want to order one, you'll have to wait until the Maroon and White game rolls around next summer! We should mention that the greatly anticipated Chili supper was canceled due to scheduling conflicts. We hope to host something similar either later this fall or during early spring of next year.

And now we move on to other sports. Yes, we have been talking about covering sports outside of football for quite some time. Well, there is a light at the end of the tunnel and it looks great! We have just received word from some Eagleville parents that want to help those other, less publicized teams get recognized. We're looking forward to pictures and full season write ups relating to both Volleyball and Golf in next month's issue.

"Our House Can't be Stopped." That's the phrase appearing on many shirts around Eagleville lately. The eagles are steamrolling through the competition, though it's not an easy fight. Their hard work has garnered the team the chance to host their first, and hopefully not the last play off game. After speaking with a number of different people, I have come to the conclusion that this year's Senior High team may very well have what it takes to end the season on the top of the football food chain. Go Eagles!

bles as the float made its way down the streets.

The middle school floats also showed the talents and hard work of students. The 6th grade class used Burn Down the House. The 7th grade played on the popular game of Yahtzee to cheer the Eagles on to Victory. The 8th grade class won for the middle school and featured a 50's style diner to Shake'em Up. In the High School division the freshman class used the theme Imprison the Patriots. Sophomores Pounded the Patriots. The Junior class built on the new film of Zorro to Slash the Patriots. The Senior class won with their float of a big shoe to Punt the Patriots through the goal post.

The parade which began at the school and went through downtown Eagleville was lead by the High School Marching Band. Convertibles carried the middle school Homecoming court. The parade also included convertibles carrying the Homecoming court for the high school including class representatives, flower girls, crown bearer, and the Homecoming Queen Megan Strunk. The streets of Eagleville were filled with students, fans, and parents eager to see Eagleville School's 2005 Homecoming parade.

Yard of the Month

Hi! My name is Heidi and I am a Saint Bernard. I have just moved to Eagleville from New Orleans. Just before hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans, my owners left me in a shelter and evacuated. Saints Rescue in Memphis came down to New Orleans and saved me. Then my current owner, Betty Goodpaster, found out about me and adopted me. I am almost 5 years old and weigh 131 lbs. I love living here. The weather is definitely better for me than in New Orleans!!!

Margaret's Helpful Hints

If you want your chocolate cake to not have that "white dust" on it, use cocoa to dust your cake pan instead of flour.

Need to peel a bunch of oranges for a salad? Just soak the oranges in boiling water for 5 minutes then peel as usual. The "white" part of the peel will come off along with the peel to give a beautiful presentation.

If a cake sticks to the pan after baking, simply set the pan over a pot of boiling water for a minute or two. The cake will pop out of the pan nice and neat.

Favorite Recipe

- 2 pounds ground lean beef
- 1 1/2 cups chopped onion
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 4 tablespoons chili powder
- 2 teaspoons cocoa powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon red pepper flakes
- 1 tablespoon ground cumin
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 (15 1/2-ounce) can tomato sauce

CHILI

Directions:

In a heavy pan, brown beef, stirring to break up; drain grease. Add onion and garlic. Cook and stir until onion is tender. Stir in remaining ingredients. Cover and simmer over low heat for one hour, stirring occasionally.

Vera Covington Celebrates 94!

Long-time Rockvale resident Vera Covington celebrated her 94th birthday with friends and family October 1st and 2nd. Her family surrounded her on October 1st with a special birthday celebration, and then on Sunday, October 2nd, her church family brought another party to her. This party included cake and punch, and over 94 birthday cards, all wishing her a happy birthday.

Many Rockvale residents fondly remember "Miss Vera" as their first grade teacher at Rockvale Elementary School where she taught for many years. She touched and impacted many lives in the Rockvale community.

Red Hat "Sweet Tarts" News

The Eagleville Red Hat "Sweet Tarts" have been having lots of fun. Some of our group attended a fashion show. Some of us joined College Grove's "Groovy Grovettes" for a trip to Fayetteville, Tn. We had lunch in a jail cell at "Cahoots" and shopped in several antique shops around the square. We also went to the famous fabric store, "Sirs".

October 18th, the "Sweet Tarts" drove to Lynchburg. Shopping (The Red Hat Favorite Sport) was a must. While there we had lunch at the world renowned "Miss Bobo's". Other Red Hat Society ladies were having lunch, as we enjoyed chatting with them.

It was an honor to be asked to judge the pumpkin carving and costume contest at the 1st Annual Eagleville Craft & Bluegrass Festival held on October 22nd. Those attending were "Lib" Davenport, Alice Freeman, Nina Merritt, Evelyn Plunkett, Annie Smotherman, Joy True, and Linda Yates.

OUR MEMBERSHIP IS STILL OPEN TO RED HATTERS AS WELL AS PINK HATTERS. THERE ARE NO DUES.
